The vision of our JDM Spanish Outreach has become a reality due to the faithful generosity of our JDM Partners!

Whether the Gospel is declared through social media content, on broadcast television programs, in print media, or in evangelistic meetings, the precious message of salvation found in Jesus Christ is transforming the lives of MILLIONS globally...and this year we are expecting even greater miracles of FAITH to manifest!

ENJOY THIS POWER-PACKED TESTIMONY FROM A SOCIAL MEDIA VIEWER!

“Thank you Jesse Duplantis Ministries for reaching out on Facebook and talking your life-giving words to me. I needed this so much today with so much hate and confusion in people all around. It is like this world has flipped and is backward. Things that are good are said to be bad, and what is bad is said to be good. Youth are being brainwashed to believe this backward worldview. If I did not have the Word hidden in my heart, I would be in depression. But because of the Word of God, I have peace and faith that Jesus is coming back. Thank you for Live Chats and words of faith on Facebook to reach the lost.”

Angelic Experiences Don't Build More FAITH IN GOD

JESSE DUPLANTIS

Whenever I share an angelic experience, there is always somebody who tells me, “Oh, I wish I’d see what you’ve seen!” or “Why haven’t I ever seen something like that from God?” That’s a question I can’t answer. I do know that a lot of people I’ve talked to think that if they just saw something like I’ve seen, they’d have greater faith. I mean, you’d think if someone saw an angel of God or even been rescued from some kind of catastrophe, they’d believe and follow God, right?

All we have to do to dispel that lie is read the Word. Faith comes by hearing, and hearing the Word of God (Romans 10:17). It doesn’t come by seeing angels. But what if someone saw the Son of God walking around and healing people? You’d think they’d believe if they saw Jesus doing miracles, right? The Word throws that lie right out the window, too.

There were people who saw the miracles of Jesus who didn’t believe—some even said demons helped Him work miracles (Matthew 12:24). There were others who saw Him do miracles and praised Him for those miraculous works, and still they betrayed Him in life. Remember that many of the same people who praised Jesus into town with palm leaves waving ended up turning on Him and crying out, “Crucify Him!” not too much later (Matthew 21:6-9; 27:22-23). If that’s not proof that people are fickle and don’t gain faith by witnessing supernatural things, I don’t know what is.

Words are what God used to form this world. The Bible says that Heaven and Earth will pass away, but His Word will never pass away. Hearing is not just about sound waves going into our ears, but about what we allow to sink down deep into our heart—the more of God’s Word we hear, the more our faith builds. That’s how God made us.

Jesus was God in the flesh, coming down to rescue His creation from the sin-sick state of being that had permeated the whole world after the fall of man. Jesus’ words were so truthful that they cut through human hypocrisy like a sword. People didn’t like that back then. They don’t like it today. People like what’s comfortable and easy to hear.

People like the miracles, but they don’t always like truth—and even if God parted the sea for them, they might still choose not to believe. That happened before Jesus ever came on the scene, back when Moses led the Israelite slaves out of Egypt. Those people saw all the plagues and the supernatural events that led to their freedom from bondage. They even walked through a parted Red Sea when Pharaoh changed his mind and sent an army to capture them and bring them back into slavery.

Yet it’s not that long before many of those freed slaves, who saw God do the supernatural, gave up on Him and started worshiping false gods—and that’s because seeing and experiencing do not guarantee believing. It’s not automatic. Think about it. While Moses is literally up the mountain getting the Ten Commandments written by the finger of God Himself, those fools were down in the valley making golden idols of cows and thinking it was alright (Exodus 32:7-8,19-24).

The bottom line: you’ll never get more faith in God by seeing angels or any sign or wonder. Those things can only support your faith, but they can’t produce it. So, again, because I really want you to get this: the only way you create faith in your heart for God is by “hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.” Faith doesn’t come by seeing and seeing; it comes by hearing and hearing. Seeing can astound you. It can fill your mind with wonder. It can even help to set your life in a new direction where you want to know more about God and His truth. But it doesn’t produce faith. In fact, Jesus Himself said it’s better if you believe and don’t see (John 20:29). That means you can have faith and see things, but the ones who don’t see and yet believe are in a better position to God in Heaven. Glory!

Some people in this world seem just more prone to seeing into the spirit world. They have a gift of some sort, but just because a person is gifted doesn’t mean they are using that gift in truth or with a right spirit. The Word says the gifts of God are without repentance—and that means even the unsaved and deceived may have spiritual sightings that believers don’t have. Their gift is not dependent on their faith. It’s a gift God created, but they could easily reject the truth for a lie and use their gift to support the lies of the devil.

Who knows why some are given the gift of sight in that area? That’s God’s business, not ours. We each have gifts that are given to us that God gave to us for a reason—and He wants us to use what He’s given us in our individual lives. Envyng somebody else’s gift just sets you up for inner strife and takes away your recognition and appreciation for the wonderful gifts God has given you.

Some people hear my experiences and tell me they remember times in their lives that they wished an angel had intervened—hearing any experience where God intervened makes them angry and bitter. This is tough because while we all want smooth sailing with no loss or trouble in life, bitterness and resentment don’t bring any relief to the human heart. They don’t help anyone release hurt or heal. And while I don’t know why The Hidden Help intervene in certain situations and not others, I believe that God knows something we don’t—and the best thing we can do is remember that God loves us and is with us, but there is an enemy on the earth that only comes to steal, kill, and destroy (John 10:10).

God knows what we don’t. God’s thoughts are higher than our thoughts and so are His ways (Isaiah 55:8-9). He knows why certain moments matter in the scheme of things and why angels must intervene—and we are not God’s judge. So, all the “whys” that involve judging God when it comes to past events we wish had turned out differently are fruitless mind games that bring no peace.

The Word tells us that the secret things belong to the Lord (Deuteronomy 29:29). He may or may not choose to reveal the whys, but if we want to be free in our own heart and not let the past hinder our present and our future, we must trust Him. We must trust that He created us eternal beings and that this world is temporary, along with all of its hurts and pain. He has promised that He is near to the broken hearted and that no matter what has happened, we have the victory over the devil and all his works through Jesus Christ.

Trusting in the Lord and His Word, that’s what real faith in God is all about. We don’t have to know all the whys to trust God and continue in our faith. With or without the obvious intervention of the Hidden Help, we can be sure that God sees it all, and because of His saving love, we can find peace no matter what has happened in this temporal life. His Word reminds us that while we live in a spiritual war, His plans aren’t for our harm—His plans for us are for good and not evil, and He always has our best interests at heart (Jeremiah 29:11).

There are many angels helping and ministering to us from the spirit world, but there are also many fallen angels who live in that realm too, and are doing their best to steal, kill, and destroy God’s people in this world. There are many types and varieties of angels, but the most important distinction you can make is just between the two groups—the ones who serve God and want to help and the ones who serve Satan and want to harm. That’s it. God told us to choose which we will serve. We shouldn’t ever fall into the trap of blaming God for what the devil and his demons do—but don’t you worry; their day is coming!

Hell was created for the devil and all the fallen angels, and one day you will see them all kicked into the lake of fire as an eternal punishment for every single thing they did. From turning their backs on a good God to hurting what He loves—you and me, and all of the creation we see around us that He meant for us to enjoy. Satan and the fallen angels will experience the wrath and final judgement of God Almighty.

So, if you’ve lost a battle, the war isn’t over. Jesus is coming back, just like He said He would. Don’t listen to the scoffers, the ones who leave the faith or water down the truth of God’s Word. The Bible warns us that there will be a great falling away before Jesus comes, among a lot of other things, of course. But I want you to remember that the Word tells us people will leave the faith in droves before Jesus comes back—they will mock believers who say Jesus is coming and say, “They’ve been saying that forever!” Sounds like what’s going on today, doesn’t it?

I don’t know about you, but I’m never leaving my faith behind. What could I possibly want to go back to? What in Hell do I want? Nothing! God has everything good in store for me, and I’m not giving up for that loser, Satan, or the angels he convinced way back when to rebel against God. They have caused so much trouble, and they will keep doing it until the end.

So, I go about my days in joy and with a good heart no matter what they are doing. How can I do that? Because Jesus won at the cross, and I’m walking every day in His victory. I enforce Satan’s defeat every time I speak the Word, every time I don’t bend to the pressures of the world, and every time I receive what God has for me. Glory!

Satan fights people because he hates God, and because God loves people. So, over my many years of serving the Lord, I’ve learned to rise above his attacks—I live free and let the Word of God fight for me. I put it in my heart and it comes out of my mouth in faith, and it cuts the devil’s plans to shreds.

Faith is peaceful. When you know that you know . . . well, you know! So, I refuse to live in fear and worry. I live free in Jesus. I’m joyful because that’s a fruit of God’s Spirit and I choose to walk in it. Every day is a choice to put God first and believe what He said in His Word. Every day is an opportunity to let Christ live through me.

I’ve adopted for my own life what Paul said in Galatians 2:20: “I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself for me” (NKJV). This is a self-centered world because the ruler of it is Satan, and he self-authored pride and doing things his way. But as a believer, I reject living his way and my aim is to live Christ-centered every day. That means putting God first, living by childlike faith in His Word, acting on my faith, and being amazed at what happens.

How can I live this way in a sin-sick world run amok? Because I know that I’m going to live forever and that all this is temporary—Jesus is coming! Either He comes to me or I go to Him, but either way, Heaven awaits. So, I decided to take the Lord’s prayer to heart and start practicing. I want His will to be done on earth as it is in Heaven (Matthew 6:9-10). Is it His will for me to be sad, sick, and disgusted? No. Is it His will for me to live in fear and worry, wringing my hands about what the devil is doing? No. I preach the Gospel because I love Jesus and because He said in Mark 16:15 to “Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature”—that’s my part.

I wasn’t always this way. If you know my testimony, you know that I was a rock musician who didn’t care about God at all. I wasn’t an atheist; I was just completely indifferent and focused only on myself. After I got saved, I had a lot to learn . . . I mean, a lot! After nearly 50 years of knowing the Lord, I’d say I’ve learned a lot about how to live for God.

I’m not perfect, far from it. But I’m much better than when I started out—my wife, Cathy, says it’s like night and day! I went to my 50th class reunion and they voted me “Most Changed.” It made me laugh because if you knew me before, you wouldn’t have ever believed I’d be a preacher of the Gospel. But that’s the power of Jesus. That’s the power of salvation.

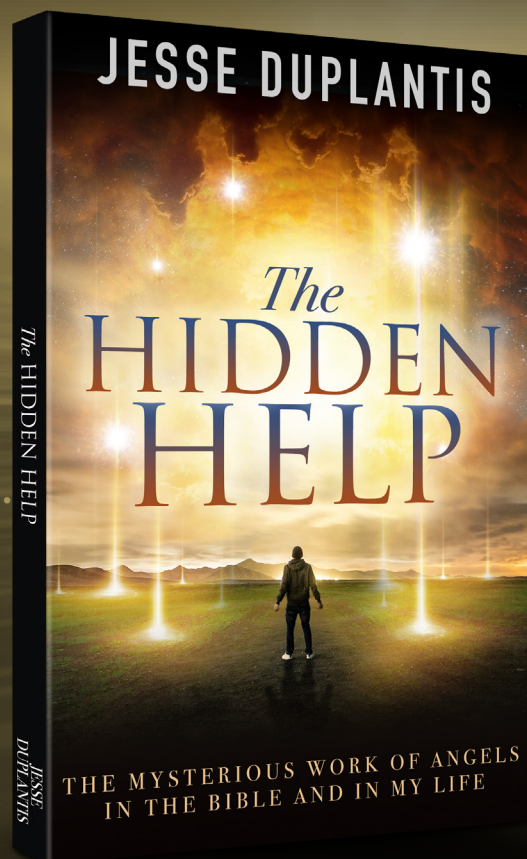

Every day with the Lord, even after all these years, I learn more, share more, and get better at using my faith. Spiritually, physically, and financially, I know that God is concerned about every part of my life—and if I put Him first and just do what He said, I know that even His angels will get involved in bringing His Word to pass in my life. It’s amazing!

You see, I know there’s a war going on between God and the enemy, but I’m on the right side of the war—God’s side. And because I’ve read the back of the Book, I know that no matter what Satan does, we win! When it’s all said and done, we WIN! We don’t just win once . . . we win forever. And it’s all because of Jesus: the One Who went out of His way to reach me.

Who are we to the angels? Why do they help us? What draws their attention? Are guardian angels real? Are God's angels worthy of praise? How can we tell the difference between the fallen and the faithful angels? Dr. Jesse Duplantis answers questions like these and much more as he shares teaching and stories from the Word of God to help you view the angelic realm, as well as yourself, in a biblically-sound way.

As believers living in a fallen world, our aim is to always live by faith and not by sight—but, at times, God chooses to peel back the veil and reveal the spiritual world to His people. He did it in biblical times and He's still doing it today. If you're curious about God's mysterious angelic creation and how some interact with us even today, pick up your copy of Jesse Duplantis' latest book, The Hidden Help—The Mysterious Work of Angels in the Bible and in My Life.

Will You Believe?

Do you know my Jesus? He's reaching out to you today. He loves you—you're His precious child. You have a place in His heart no matter what you've done and no matter how great your weakness seems. God's arms of love are open to you...are you willing to believe?

The Bible says, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). Jesus, the Son of God, laid down His life and rose again so that you could spend eternity with Him in Heaven, and so that He could help you live in victory every day.

If you don't know Jesus as your Savior, you can receive Him today. Open your heart and let these simple words be your guide. Say these words and believe them with your heart, and you will be born again...

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You died on the cross for me. Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

If you have prayed this prayer, you are in the family of God. It wasn't hard, was it? People sometimes make things hard, but because of Jesus, salvation is easy. I'm your brother in the faith now, along with millions of others all around the world who have accepted God's plan of salvation. We will all have eternity together, but for now, your aim is to grow in your faith and relationship with the Lord. The Bible says that you build faith in your heart for God by "hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." Read the Bible every day. Listen to messages that will encourage your faith as often as you can. Find a church to attend regularly. Being with others of like precious faith is so important, and God has so much in store for you as you follow Him—new people, new ideas about how to live well, and new insights for your own journey in life. Welcome to the family, and may God bless you as you go and grow!

Understanding Salvation (Mini-Book) MBS01

There is a path that leads to inner peace, real joy, and true wisdom about life. You begin walking on this new path the moment you reach out to God...the moment that you realize your need for His love and salvation.

In Understanding Salvation, you will discover why God sent His Son, why salvation is necessary, and what you can do to begin living a new and better life in Christ Jesus.

POSSIBILITY Thinking

JESSE DUPLANTIS

Did you know that your thoughts have supernatural ability? When you think on purpose, in faith, God says anything is possible for you! So, what are you thinking about? What are you believing for? What are you willing to receive? If you can think it, you can have it. But it's important that you understand that all things are possible to those who believe (Mark 9:23). Believe what? Believe what God says. I pray that the words that I'm about to share with you will help raise your thinking and deepen your faith. It's time to increase your capacity to receive abundantly in every area of your life.

What I want to teach you about today is the power of "Possibility Thinking," and it's based on what Jesus taught His disciples in Luke, chapter 17. Jesus was instructing them about forgiveness, and in verses 3-4, He said, "Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him."

Now those verses are pretty hard to swallow, right? I remember before I was saved, when I read, "If thy brother trespass against thee," I thought, "Kill him! And if he repents? Who cares? Bury him in the Mississippi River and get it over with!" Like Peter, I had a temper, man! So I can imagine Peter was floored by Jesus' command to forgive, too. After all, Peter would cuss you and cut you at the drop of a hat! But I love what the disciples said next in verse 5: "And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith."

Clearly, the Lord had their full attention and it was the perfect opportunity for Him to share one of His most powerful illustrations of faith. In verse 6, Jesus said, "If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you." That seems impossible, right? A mustard seed is barely the size of a bit-off fingernail, and yet we know that it has the ability to produce a 12-foot tree. Notice how this illustration shows that Jesus was deeply impressed by the power of response and the mystery of nature and the human heart. He knew perfectly well how to open up the disciples' minds and hearts to possibility thinking, and I believe He's doing the same for you, too.

I love possibility thinking—it's so creative! Thinking thoughts with purpose and without any limitation creates the picture, the music, and the song about what people talk about. So, what picture are your thoughts creating? What is your song that people are talking about? It is important for you to understand that God chose you to be His instrument, a channel that flows with His life. He wants you to always flow with creativity, just like Him! Ephesians 5:1 (AMPC) says, “Therefore be imitators of God [copy Him and follow His example], as well-beloved children [imitate their father].” And remember, you have the mind of Christ to think God-related thoughts that produce God-related blessings. I call it “The H-factor,” which means the harvest, praise God!

It always amazes me when I think about the extraordinary power of mustard-seed faith. Because even the tiniest amount of faith is an invisible force that surrounds us and calls us to accomplish the impossible. The Bible says, “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen” (Hebrews 11:1). If you think about it, faith is actually a lot like a magnet. If you put a paperclip near it, the magnet has an invisible force that will suck that paperclip right to itself. Faith in God’s Word and possibility thinking work the same way.

I’m not saying that possibility thinking is always easy, but it has a wonderful track record. Just look at Jesus. All of His accusers said, “We’re going to kill You, Jesus!” But He said, “I’ll be back in three days.” And He was! That seemed impossible, but Jesus believed the Father, He kept His mind focused on His destiny, and it came to pass for you and for me!

Throughout my 47 years of ministry, many people have asked me how I am able to believe the Bible the way I do. First of all, there is a world of difference between taking a statement literally and not taking it seriously. I know God’s Word is true and I take that very seriously. I’ve learned to set my mind and heart on what He says, and I never accept the humiliating bondage of circumstances around me. If God said it, I believe it through and through.

But, unfortunately, some Christians don’t take the Bible seriously. For example, there are believers who are battling a disease or illness and they take “by His stripes you were healed” literally, but not seriously. Maybe they believe in healing to a degree, but not all the way. Consequently, they don’t experience what it means to be healed and made whole. Their faith magnet has no charge. But you and I are called to remember that we serve an Almighty God Who never breaks His covenant, and like the apostle Paul, we know in Whom we have believed (2 Timothy 1:12). We are confident that all of His wonderful promises to us are yes and amen (2 Corinthians 1:20).

One of the many things that I love about God’s nature is how His almightiness is at our disposal any time we need it. But there is one thing that He requires of us: We must put it to proof. Remember, Jesus gave you the power of His name. He put His name in you—not on you or around you, but in you. John 14:13 says, “And whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.” This is so much more than religion, don’t you see? This means that the God Who lives inside of you gives you the power of attorney to use the name of Jesus. That’s God’s Word to you! You can talk like Him, walk like Him, be like Him, and own what He owns—all through the almighty power of His name. Now that’s possibility thinking!

So, is your mind open to possibility thinking? I’m telling you, nothing is impossible with God. When you purpose your thoughts and heart on believing the Lord for something big, you can and will receive it. And don’t be discouraged if someone comes around and tells you that it’s never going to happen. Whether you’re believing for something spiritual, physical, financial, or all three at one time, if God said it, you can have it. Remind yourself that a tiny, little mustard seed of faith has supernatural ability to bring forth a great harvest for you. Meditate on God’s Word and recognize for yourself that His amazing power resides within you. Anything is possible with Him, so think BIG! This is your year to receive all that He has put on your heart to believe Him for. 🌐

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

I am always filled with glorious, inexpressible joy when I read the awesome testimonies that our Partners and friends send to us. I call them “glorious moments” and love sharing them on our broadcasts that reach over two billion people, and in our monthly ministry magazine.

Each time I read a testimony, I also realize that it is a “living letter” showing Jesus to those that have not yet seen His amazing love for the world. Jesse often says, “The only Jesus some people will ever see is the Jesus in you and the Jesus in me.” Each one of us is a walking billboard for our God and can be used by Him to reach others.

1 Peter 1:8 (NLT) says, “You love Him even though you have never seen Him. Though you do not see Him now, you trust Him; and you rejoice with a glorious, inexpressible joy.” I pray that you will be filled with more love for Him and rejoice with glorious, inexpressible joy as you read about the marvelous things that our God is doing today!

“Hello Brother Jesse, I’m from China. Recently I’ve had an issue with my throat for several months. Not a very major one, but there was tightness and uncomfortableness on the right side of my throat. I was listening to you one night and couldn’t stop. I listened to several hours of your teaching into the night and praised God with you. Two days later and there is no tightness in my throat. In the message, you said that you know the promises of God, and I confessed that I knew that I was healed because of Isaiah 53. I confessed that every time I felt the uncomfortable feeling in my throat. Praise Jesus.”

“I bought a new car for my daughter who needed a car, and paid cash. Your ministry taught me to think big and don’t limit God. It was a huge blessing to me and her dad to do it, and we are filled with joy as it is something we always wanted to do—to live debt free. Thank you for your teachings and your stories. We don’t get tired of them. Faith comes by hearing, and hearing the Word of God. Now onward, I want to buy a house, pay cash, and be debt free. Nothing is too hard for the Lord, and with God all things are possible. God bless you.”

“Your ministry has blessed me so much here in Western Uganda. We are Pastors and we have been encouraged. Thank you, Jesus, and we love you all.”

“Bro. Jesse was ministering at Faith is The Victory Church in Nashville, TN. In the service, the word of the Lord came forth to everyone that had student loans that the Lord was canceling them. My husband had student loans that were over $100,000, so he received the word and held onto it by thanking the Lord every day for canceling it. Four years later we received 4 letters stating that my husband’s student loans have been completely paid in full! Praise God! Supernatural debt cancellation! The Lord did it! Thank you for your obedience to Jesus. This was Supernatural! We love you!”

“In the past, I was always worried about making ends meet. Since I became a JDM Partner, I haven’t worried as all my needs are met each month and every day. God bless you two and thank you for your obedience to Jesus Christ. You’re truly a blessing to me spiritually.”

“Praise Jesus! I have learned much from Brother Jesse on giving and receiving over the years. The other day I was sowing a $25.00 seed and it mistakenly went to $50.00, so I knew the Lord changed it. A few days later someone handed me a check for $1,385.00. Praise Jesus, I am in an increase and multiplication time, A RUNNING OVER TIME. I know what it is to struggle financially, but I never stopped giving my little. Now He can make me ruler over much. I always said I was persecuted broke; now I will be persecuted wealthy.”

“In late 2021, we needed to purchase a vehicle because our 15-year-old car had become unsafe to drive. With a loan, we brought home a vehicle in December 2021. In 2022, I rediscovered you on YouTube after many years and a lot of life situations. Listening to your messages several times a week, sometimes several each day, I began to imagine paying off the car loan in ½ of the loan time. Continuing to listen, I thought maybe we could pay off the loan in 1/3 of the time. I sent a seed to JDM in August 2022 and became a Partner in September 2022. Just this past weekend, October 2022, the Lord so very graciously and gently led me to see my trust was in our income. I was trying to pay the car loan instead of believing the loan to be paid. Just this past weekend, the balance of the loan was paid! Yes, Hallelujah! The next day I watched the Boardroom Chat about the relationship with money, and I heard Jesse and Cathy describe the experience I just had. I’m in awe of our Amazing Father. Now I am beginning to believe the mortgage to be paid sooner than I can imagine or think!”

“We have been tithing to Jesse’s ministry and we are debt free. We are in our 50’s and completely debt free. God is amazing! Jesse has the anointing for sure.”

“Brother Jesse and Pastor Cathy, I am so thankful to you and your ministry, as you have led so many people to Christ. Your humble, kind, and sweet spirit has been such a BLESSING to all of us. Your teachings are strictly from the Bible, and I am glad that you continue to teach about prosperity, because those that criticize what God’s Word says are missing out on all the blessings we are entitled to. Thank you again for all you do to keep the Word of God alive and true.”

“You two are truly a blessing to me, and since I have become a Partner with this ministry, God has increased my substance. Praise God! I look forward to reading your posts on Facebook because it always encourages me.”

“Thank you, Jesse and Cathy, for your ministry and for staying with what God taught you both when everyone else was trying to negate it. Your ministry has changed and continues to change my life.”

“I would like you to thank God for Jesse and Cathy! Their teachings have been a blessing to my life. Jesse’s sermons have brought hope and joy when I had none. May God bless you.”

“Your message helps keep me focused on faith the way I’m supposed to and want to do. I see my faith-walk building. It hasn’t been overnight, but I see it improving and getting deeper. I see myself believing on God’s Word to go to work in every area I speak it over. Thank you, God. I love your messages on faith! They are my favorite and bless me so much!”

“I’m really thankful for ministers like you, who stay the course over the years. The last two years have put the entire world through a ringer, but the glorious Gospel that God has allowed y’all to preach has been a tremendous anchor for my soul, and countless others globally!”

“When I first came to know Christ, it was because of you I could laugh again. My life had so much sadness back then. I thank God He introduced me to you and your beautiful wife.”

“I love watching all your shows and sermons because they are such a source of inspiration and teaching for me. I put the Word to work in my life and God has given me restoration of everything the enemy has tried to take away. In the span of 7 months, I had lost everything! I lost my precious Jeunesse (Chihuahua) of 16 years. My daughter and her family, whom I was living with, had our home snatched out from under us and had only a month to find a new place. They couldn’t make it here, so they moved to another state. I also lost my car. I kept hearing over and over what I had learned from Jesse and Cathy’s preaching. I dug in and stayed in the Word, and within 7 months God had restored my car, better than the one I had. I now have a place of my own, and with my new place, I can eventually get a pet when I’m ready. My family is doing better where they are than when we were living together. God is so good. I keep thanking Him and keep speaking the Word over what He’s given back to me so the enemy can’t take it again. God is so good! Thank you for the Word you both preach. May God keep blessing you richly every day. We all need that out here in the world.”

*If your life has been changed through JDM,
I want to hear from you! ~ Cathy*

Suited For SUCCESS

CATHY DUPLANTIS

Success: Many people get upset when a Christian seeks it, but success is not a bad word. In fact, the first time it was used in the Bible was by God to Joshua after the death of Moses.

In the first chapter of Joshua, verses eight and nine, God said, “This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.”

Joshua must have had concerns about stepping into Moses' shoes as leader of Israel. Wouldn't you? After all, Moses was the long-awaited deliverer, miracle-worker, and the man that spoke face to face with God. But now God was speaking to Joshua and telling him how to succeed. And just like it was with Joshua, so it is with us today: Prosperity and success are always a direct result of following God's Word.

I believe that wisdom and knowledge from God's Word can enable each of us to advance to the top regardless of obstacles or recessions. When you need favor, wisdom, protection, or prosperity, God's Word shows you how to pray effectively and receive it. If sickness attacks your body, you can apply God's Word and receive your healing. No matter where you go or what you come into contact with, you can be victorious. Or as we say in South Louisiana, "If you fall in an outhouse, you come out smelling like a rose."

Equipped with Essentials

God wants you to be a success and has provided you with the essentials you need to succeed in this life. You see, His plan of salvation includes more than just eternal life and a mansion in Heaven. As a member of the family of God, you have access to benefits that provide for everything you could ever need in this life.

In fact, the moment you were born again, you were issued a suit of armor designed by God Himself. From the top of your head to the soles of your feet, you are equipped with supernatural clothing that is impenetrable by the enemy. I like to think of it as my success suit.

Ephesians, chapter six, describes it this way:

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might.

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

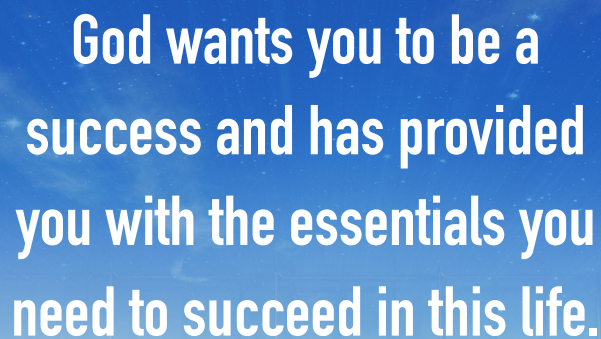

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace;

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

Ephesians 6:10-17

God wants you to be a success and has provided you with the essentials you need to succeed in this life.

Have you ever tried to dress a child that is distracted or refuses to help while you are dressing them? It can be very frustrating. But when that same child is excited about going somewhere, they will tear off their pajamas, throw on their play clothes, and look for someone to help with the buttons and laces. Big difference!

God has provided this awesome suit of armor so that you can successfully "stand against the wiles of the devil." But it can't help you unless you wear it. It is your responsibility to accept it and put it on. Romans 13:12 tells us, "The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light."

How do you do that? You read God's Word and accept it by faith. You meditate on it day and night and don't let it depart from your mouth. Follow God's instructions to Joshua and you will be a success going somewhere to happen. You will be suited for success and equipped with the essentials for victory!

Accessorize Your Faith

Once you are suited with God's armor, you can browse through His Word for ways to accessorize your success suit. Second Peter 1:4-8 says, Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

What an awesome promise! You have been given exceeding great and precious promises. You are a partaker of the divine nature. You have not only been given the measure of faith (Romans 12:3), but according to this passage, you can accessorize your faith—by adding virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love (charity). When these things are in your life, you will be productive, fruitful, and will bring glory to God.

Take Time for a Closer Look

Mirrors are wonderful things. If you take the time to use them, they will reveal things that need to be fixed and save you from embarrassing situations. You will be able to see the lettuce in your teeth, the ketchup on your cheek, or the stain on your tie. But, most importantly, it will reveal the hem of your skirt inside your pantyhose! But you have to look in the mirror or else you will be exposed.

That's what happened to me years ago. The bathroom of the church I was visiting did not have a full-length mirror, so I just moved my hand down the back of my skirt to make sure everything was in place. The skirt that I was wearing had a lining and two layers of peach chiffon, so I did not realize that everything except the top outer sheer layer was inside my pantyhose. I walked all the way up the aisle of the church to the front pew before someone told me what had happened. Since that time, I have come to understand how important it is to take time for a closer look in the mirror before heading out the door.

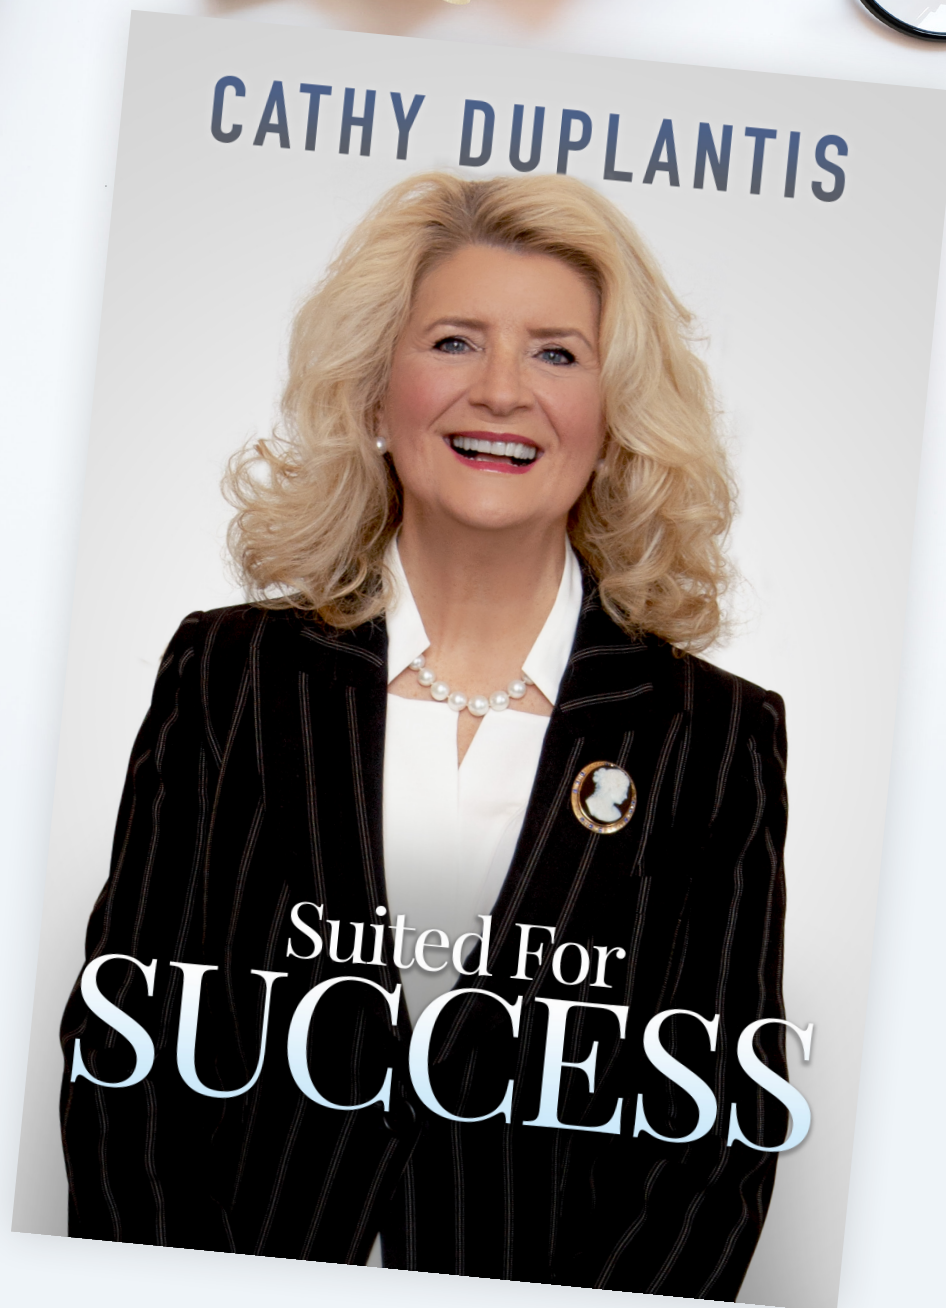

The point? Don't take things for granted. The Word of God is your mirror, and before you begin anything, always take time for a closer look and allow it to reveal things that you may need to adjust. James 1:23-25 says, "For if any be a hearer of the Word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

God's Word will reveal the way for you to succeed. Second Timothy 2:15 (AMPC) says, "Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth." When you are diligent to study God's Word and do what it says, you will never be ashamed. You will know where to go and what to do when you get there. You will be blessed and fully suited for success. 🌐
