GLORIOUS

A Glorious Celebration

LUKE 15:7 (TPT)

Hi, God's Glorious Girls!

Are you ready to have a GLORIOUS celebration in the presence of God? I am thrilled to invite you to come and be a part of Glorious 2024! The fun begins on March 8 and 9 at JDM International Headquarters in Destrehan, Louisiana. Like all of our JDM conferences, registration is completely FREE and all are welcome to come and magnify our Heavenly Father in spirit and in truth. There will be great worship, glorious giveaways, and anointed, on-time teachings that I know will inspire you to step into your God-given destiny with passion! The Holy Spirit has imparted specific, life-changing messages for me to share with you as we prepare for the return of our Savior. It's time to be BOLD in our faith so that we can continue to walk in victory with Jesus each and every day.

This year's conference kicks off with a powerful service on Friday night at 7pm, and continues on Saturday morning at 9am with our Glorious Girl Talk Panel. Join our dynamic guest panelists as they answer relevant questions with supernatural wisdom and biblical insight. This powerful time of discussion will bless you as you learn how to apply God's Word to any circumstance of life. Then, at 10am, after the Glorious Girl Talk Panel, the final service begins. This will be a powerful celebration of worship, another life-changing message, personal prayer, and more glorious Glorious giveaways! You don't want to miss anything!

I encourage you to make plans to attend, and let us know you are coming by registering online today at JDM.org. Invite all of your girlfriends and get ready for a transformative time of women's ministry. I can't wait to celebrate with you at Glorious 2024!

~ Cathy

The Curse Has Been Reversed

CATHY DUPLANTIS

Curse: that word never would have entered the earth if Adam and Eve had just obeyed God. But, of course, we all know what happened. Instead of subduing the devil, they listened to his lies and obeyed his command. As a result, they lost their authority in the earth, their right standing with God, and their garden home. Through this one act of disobedience to God's command, Adam and Eve paved the way for the curse to enter the earth.

But long before any sin was ever committed, God had a plan that would reverse the curse and restore mankind to right standing with Him. Before the foundation of the earth, it was settled in the throne room of Heaven that Jesus Christ would shed His blood to redeem mankind. This one act of love

Even after the fall of Adam and Eve, God's covenant promise of blessing always reversed the curse on anyone that would obey Him by faith.

reversed the curse forever and shattered the power of the devil to steal, kill, and destroy God's creation. This one act of love also paved the way for God's blessing to be upon everyone that would believe His Word by faith.

From the beginning, blessing has been the central element of God's covenant with mankind. Think about the fact that the very first words Adam and Eve heard were blessing words. Even after the fall of Adam and Eve, God's covenant promise of blessing always reversed the curse on anyone that would obey Him by faith. In Genesis 12:3, God told

Abraham, “And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.”

Pronouncing God's Blessing

Blessing is a powerful thing. Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary defines it this way: “The act of declaring, or wishing, God's favor and goodness upon others. The blessing is not only the good effect of words; it also has the power to bring them to pass. In the Bible, important persons blessed those with less power or influence. The patriarchs pronounced benefits upon their children, often near their own deaths (Genesis 49:1-28). Even if spoken by mistake, once a blessing was given it could not be taken back (Genesis 27).”

Many years ago, when Jesse and I first understood this principle, we laid our hands on our daughter, Jodi, and pronounced God's blessing upon her life. We know from experience the value of saying blessing words over our family so that God can fulfill His covenant in the earth.

In Numbers chapter six, God gave specific instructions about pronouncing His blessing on others:

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

The LORD bless thee, and keep thee:

The LORD make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

The LORD lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

And they shall put My name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.

Numbers 6:22-27

When we pronounce a blessing on someone, it is not a light thing; it is a strong thing. It is a command that is recognized in Heaven and changes people on Earth. Every time we say “God bless you,” it should remind us that the curse has been reversed and blessing is restored.

Redeemed from the Curse

As born-again believers, we are not subject to the curse of the law. In Galatians 3:13-14, the Bible says, “Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.”

Jesus Christ, the Anointed One, has reversed the curse and paved the way to the blessing. His blood has redeemed you from any curse that would want to come across your path. If sickness or any curse listed in Deuteronomy 28:15-68 attacks your household, you can take authority over it. You don't have to put up with an attack from the devil!

No wonder the devil works overtime to stop you from studying the Bible or faithfully attending church. He knows that it's all over for him the moment you discover the authority given to you by Jesus Christ.

In Luke 10:19, Jesus declared, “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.” And in John 14:14, He gave you authority to use His name: “If ye shall ask any thing in My name, I will do it.”

That's exactly what happened in Acts 3:6 to the paralyzed man that sat at the gate of the city. When he asked for alms, Peter said, “Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.” The authority to use the name of Jesus instantly healed that man. He was so excited that he took off running and leaping and praising God.

When you have the authority to use someone's name, it is as though they were standing there in person. When you use the name of Jesus in faith, everything that is named has to bow. Actually, the devil messed up when he put a name on your problem. The Bible says in Philippians 2:10-11, “That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in Heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” So cancer has to bow, poverty has to bow, oppression has to bow, fear has to bow, and every name that is named has to bow!

In the book of Ephesians, Paul prayed this very powerful prayer that is now available to you through Christ Jesus:

That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him:

The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of His calling, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,

And what is the exceeding greatness of His power to us—ward who believe, according to the working of His mighty power,

Which He wrought in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead, and set Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places,

Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

And hath put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be the head over all things to the church...

And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 1:17-22, 2:6

You are seated with Christ and blessed with full authority to use His name to bust the devil's head back into the dust. So get busy!

Protection from the Curse

Throughout the Bible we can read about people who were victorious when they believed God's Word and walked by faith. Just think about the curse, or plague, that came to destroy the firstborn of Egypt in Exodus, chapter 12.

God gave specific instructions to the Hebrews to apply the blood over their door posts so that the destroyer could not enter into their homes. Those that obeyed actually reversed the curse that was on that land. They were set apart for protection and salvation because of their obedience to the Word of God.

However, if they refused to obey God, all of the firstborn in their households would die along with those of the Egyptians. Now that would not have been God's fault. He clearly revealed to them how they would be protected from the curse that had come upon the land because of sin. It was up to them to do something about it. They had to walk in obedience and do what God had called them to do, and so will you.

“I Will Bless Them”

When God sent Jesus to the cross, He had your blessing on His mind. Ephesians 1:3 says, “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who bath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.” Everything we could possibly need to be an overcomer in this life is ours in Christ!

You are redeemed from the curse of the law so that you can walk in boldness, wisdom, favor, strength, and have victory every single day of your life.

Take a moment and think of any spiritual blessing that comes to mind. You may even think of a few. Now, realize that God has already given it to you! You have a promise to be blessed in everything that you do (Deuteronomy 28:8). You have a promise to be empowered to prosper in every area of your life (3 John 2). You are redeemed from the curse of the law so that you can walk in boldness, wisdom, favor, strength, and have victory every single day of your life. Knowledge of this truth gives you power to run into the enemy's camp and take back all that has been stolen from you.

How do you do that? By boldly declaring God's promises and enforcing His will for your life. With your heart and mouth, you need to say things like: “The curse has been reversed. I am the blessed of the Lord. I am empowered to prosper in every area of my life. I am the head and not the tail. I am above and not beneath. I am walking in favor. I am walking in promise. My body is whole in the name of Jesus!”

Search out God's promises to you and rehearse the verse! Stand firm on God's covenant promises to you and declare: “I am redeemed from the curse of the law! I don't have to be sick. I don't have to be poor. I don't have to be oppressed. The blessings of Abraham are mine!”

Once you know who you are in Jesus, you realize that you are not walking around alone in this life. God Himself is dwelling inside you, empowering you to prosper. When you begin to take hold of how much God has already done for you, it is not only going to transform your life, it's also going to transform all those that are around you. Don't be surprised if you hear people start to say things like, “Who is this person?” “This is not the same person I grew up with.” “You are changed!” “What is different about you?”

I believe that God wants to strengthen you today and let you know how much He loves you. He loves you so much that He sent Jesus to reverse the curse over your life and to bless you eternally in Heaven and in this present life on earth. Once you accept Jesus as your personal Savior, you are no longer under the curse of the law. Sin, sickness, and oppression of any kind have been eradicated by the blood of Jesus Christ.

The blessing God promised to Abraham's seed belongs to you and all that will obey His Word by faith. Receive God's blessing today!

This article is an excerpt from Cathy's book Suited for Success.

Jesus Reversed the Curse for You!

Jesus loves you—He loves you so much that He sent Jesus to reverse the curse of sin and death over your life. He wants to bless you with eternal life in Heaven and in this present life here on earth. All you have to do is accept God's plan of salvation through Jesus and the curse of the law (sin, sickness, and oppression of any kind) will be eradicated by the blood of Christ. Romans 10:9-10 says that if you believe with your heart and confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, you will be saved. If you're ready, pray this prayer with me now:

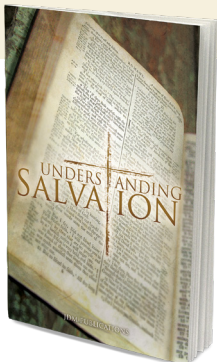

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of all my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that you died on the cross for me.

Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. In Your name I pray, Amen.

If you just prayed this prayer, you are now part of the family of God—congratulations! All of Heaven is rejoicing along with Jesse, me, and the entire JDM team. You have a brand-new life with Jesus to look forward to starting right now. Would you do us the honor of letting us know your decision to make Christ the Lord of your life today? We want to send you a free booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you begin your new walk with Him. You can do that online at JDM.org (Select: Do You Know Jesus?), or you may use the response/order form included in this magazine.

Remember, you have been redeemed from the curse of the law forever, and you can walk in boldness, wisdom, favor, strength, and have victory every single day of your life. Search out God's promises in His holy Word and stand firm on what He says. Jesse and I are lifting you up in prayer and want you to expect nothing but God's best from here forward. Jesus has paved the way to a bright new future of life and blessing for you—receive it today!

UNDERSTANDING SALVATION (Mini-Book) MBS01

There is a path that leads to inner peace, real joy, and true wisdom about life. You begin walking on this new path the moment you reach out to God...the moment that you realize your need for His love and salvation.

In Understanding Salvation, you will discover why God sent His Son, why salvation is necessary, and what you can do to begin living a new and better life in Christ Jesus.

SUITED FOR SUCCESS

While societies in the world today are driven by the desire for success, many Christians seeking success in their own lives are not well received. But the TRUTH about God's view of success is revealed throughout the Bible. His will is and always has been for all of His children to thrive, prosper, and achieve everything in their lives that He's called them to do.

AND THE CURTAIN TORE

The moment when Jesus cried out from the cross, “It is finished!” and He gave up His Spirit, the thick curtain in God’s Temple was torn from the top to the bottom. Until that historic moment, the veil in the Temple declared, “Keep out! Do not enter!” But when God tore the veil, the power of His light and presence was opened, and complete access to come boldly into His presence anytime became available to whosoever believes in Jesus Christ.

In this passionate and inspiring message of God’s great love in providing access to Himself through the finished works of Jesus, Jesse builds your faith with biblical truths and sets you up for a deeper, more intimate relationship with your heavenly Father. Learn how you serve an approachable God and understand your rights and privileges to enter into the most Holy of Holies by faith, by love, and by reverence.

Come closer to God as you discover how:

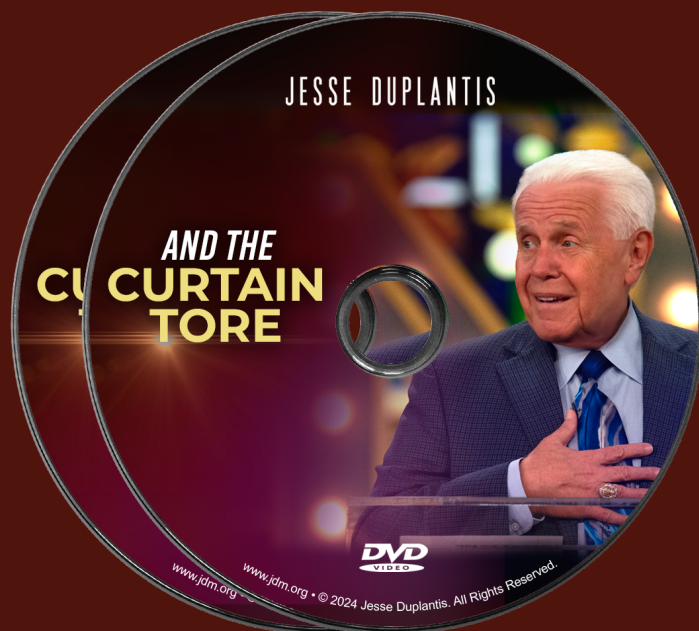

- The torn curtain was a symbol full of eternal meanings: Jesus had come, Jesus had lived, Jesus had died, and Jesus has risen
- Jesus was the crown of all prophecy and the consummation of all history
- Through the shed blood of Jesus, the power of sin was broken—man was freed in Christ’s triumph
- Jesus’ atoning death on the cross tore aside all manmade restrictions, and the secrecy of God was revealed and opened
- The centurion realized Jesus was not a criminal; Satan was
- There is no aristocracy in the New Testament Church—all can come boldly to the throne of grace

It’s time to break out of the prison of religion and start enjoying the intimate life with Jesus that God planned for you. Through Christ, you’ve been given complete access to the throne of grace. Because He tore away all barriers, you are completely welcome and completely accepted at any time. God tore the veil and He’s given you an open invitation to go before Him for anything you may ever need.

“And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent...”

JESSE'S "THE HIDDEN HELP" NOW AVAILABLE IN SPANISH!

THE HIDDEN HELP

Who are we to the angels? Why do they help us? What draws their attention? Are guardian angels real? Are God's angels worthy of praise? How can we tell the difference between the fallen and the faithful angels? Dr. Jesse Duplantis answers questions like these and much more as he shares teaching and stories from the Word of God to help you view the angelic realm, as well as yourself, in a biblically-sound way.

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

The resurrection of Jesus was the most Glorious Moment of all time! He triumphed over death, hell, and the grave and paid the supreme sacrifice for our sin. Because He lived, died, and rose from the dead, we can live eternally and daily reflect His glory. Second Corinthians 3:18 NLT says, “So all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord—who is the Spirit—makes us more and more like Him as we are changed into His glorious image.”

Each time we take the time to tell others about God’s goodness in our lives, we are reflecting His glory to the world. Today, as you take the time to read someone else’s story, I pray that you will also remember a glorious moment in your own life. Spend time with Him today and let Him make you more and more like Him!

I’ve been watching every day, connecting from Botswana, and I am truly blessed by your teachings. I touched my TV screen every time you ministered, and I was hit by the power of the Holy Spirit and even received my healing (I had pain on my chest and back). My husband and I laughed our lungs out the entire time and we really enjoyed it. God bless you, sir.

I watched your Thursday night message from the 2023 Visionary Conference on YouTube and connected with a couple of things you mentioned. I wasn’t able to be there, but I’m thankful that I could see your meetings on YouTube. You mentioned a lady had an abortion and she can’t get over it. If I was able to jump through my monitor screen and be there, I would have gone forward! I listened intently because I’ve been struggling with my poor decision for 46 years and regret it every day. I’m thankful that you mentioned it and for God setting me free of guilt and condemnation. Praise the Lord! Thank you both for your faithfulness and believing God with your ministry. I’ve been a Partner with JDM for a while now and enjoy listening to both of you.

At the Visionary Conference you prayed over everyone watching online. I felt my hands (they were raised) get heavy like there was something in them. I expect I was holding that hundred-fold blessing! Thank you, sir, for teaching me.

I saw Jesse at the “Opening the Heavens Conference” on 9/16/23. I just was getting started with my walk with my Heavenly Father. I’ve always known Him but didn’t have a close relationship with Him. I was struggling with two things in my life. I had asked God to give me answers while I was at the conference. Your sermon gave me those answers. You had started talking about your salvation and even said, “I don’t know why I’m talking about this.” It was about you giving up drugs and alcohol immediately, that the purity of the Gospel got down as far as the pollution of sin and pushed it out. I was questioning my use of pot. I now know I was being convicted and gave it up! Also, I was questioning tithing. You said ‘you were told to say it,’ and you explained it so that I could understand. Thank you for being the messenger for my questions. I have grown so much since September. Thank you and bless you!

I just want to thank you. We started partnering with you in February 2021 for $25 a month. I told my husband we needed your anointing on our lives. One week later, my husband received overtime and has had it continuously ever since. He had it before, but for only 4 months out of the year. I just realized it has been a 60-fold increase every week. Thank you for teaching us the truth in God’s Word. You have blessed us in so many ways.

I have just returned from the hospital after my final checkup for a total hip replacement 13 months ago. I was declared 100% fit, and the X-rays showed a perfect replacement for my worn-out original. I have been active and pain free in both my work and recreation for more than 9 months, and I give all the glory to God. Thank you both for all your faithful teaching (and Boardroom Chats!) that have raised my belief and understanding of God's ways to bring about this victory. And thank you both for your daily prayer and the support of your prayer team that brings so much power to these situations.

I am a Christian who has been backslidden for a very long time. Actually, I have just felt lost and like something was missing in my life. I came to Colorado 2 ½ years ago to get help for alcoholism and suicidal attempts. My daughter lives here, and she got me the help I needed. I have been sober for 2 ½ years and am doing great, but I have still felt like something was missing and I have an empty spot inside me. I am disabled and I started physical therapy at the YMCA here, and the first day I walked in, I saw this lady standing at a table talking with some other people. She had a glow all around her and I was just drawn to her. She turned out to be a personal trainer and dietician. I hired her to work with me, and we made an extremely close connection right away. While we were working out, she would talk about how good God is and what He does for us, and she was just excited about God's Word when she was talking about it! Then she asked me if I like to read gospel books; that she had just read an incredible book that she thought I would love to read. Well, I am here to tell you that she has no idea what your book, The Hidden Help, has meant to me. After she gave me the book, she invited me to go to church with her. Between the church and your book, God has really been dealing with me and I know He hasn't given up on me! I am in the church that I am meant to be in. That empty spot inside me is gone, and I am so happy about being back in God's Word and God's work! I am rededicating my life to Jesus and I am truly looking forward to every day now. Thank you so much for your book The Hidden Help! You have no idea what you have done for me.

When we look back and see how richly you have sown into our lives, we thank God for you with greater and greater depth of gratitude! You have made such a difference in our lives, our faith walk, and fortitude. This year, 'Admit it, Quit it, and Forget it' has loomed large as we'd made a misstep. We know God has taught us and is using it to give us a God reality check, and we know that things will work for our good as we love God and He has called us to participate in this purpose. Without your teachings and prayers to buoy us up and restore and help us recoup, I can't say where we would be. Thank you.

Jesse and Cathy, thank you! I want to thank Jesse for coming out to Austin, Texas to Impact Family Church. Jesse is a very special person to my husband and I. Twenty-six years ago, my husband was very young and tried to take his life, but God had other plans for him. After being taken to the hospital and admitted into a room, a Christian nurse stayed by his side and she had kind words for him. Then, she turned on the TV and guess who was on the television? Jesse! His words pierced my husband's heart and he is a changed man. He uses what happened to him as a testimony of what God can do! God puts people in your path that leave a lasting memory and blessings. When Jesse's in our area, we go see him or watch him and learn from his teachings. We love what you do and are so appreciative of your ministry! Like Jesse says, "reaching people, changing lives, one soul at a time!"

I had not heard of you until one of my clients brought up your name, Kenneth Copeland, Oral Roberts, and Kenneth Hagin. I actually had not heard of any of you before until he mentioned your names. Once he mentioned your names, I got online and started watching the Believers' Conventions, and that is the first time I ever saw you and heard you. I am 69 years old and I am just hearing your messages. Since I heard you, I have been listening non-stop, every minute I can, to you and your wife, Kenneth Copeland, Jerry Savelle, and Kenneth Hagin. That is where I heard you say that for every dollar we send you, one person would be saved and brought to the Lord; and that if I sowed seed money into the ministry of God, it would come back 100-fold. So, I sent you a check for $50 so that I could receive a 100-fold on this seed to sow into a ministry in my area. Now, here is the miracle: A few weeks after the check cleared my bank account, I got a letter from the IRS saying they were sending me a refund check because of a mistake they made on my taxes in 2020. I prayed that it would be at least $500 so that I could sow it into to a women's ministry in my area. I went to my bank and got a print out of my account because things were not adding up right. The IRS had deposited $1,524.00 into my account. As you can imagine, I was stunned! I have been singing and dancing and praising the Lord all day! I asked the Lord what He wanted me to do with this money. He told me to send you $500 and to bless the women's ministry in my area. I praise the Lord for introducing me to you through your online ministry. I feel like the Lord just opened up the doors to Heaven for me. I have watched everything I could on you, and I praise the Lord for this blessing. I praise the Lord for what He has done in your life and your ministry and for what He is doing in mine. Amen!

The Resurrection Makes Life Worth Living

J E S S E D U P L A N T I S

There is a reason why you don't just die and go to Heaven when you get saved. The reason is because life is precious to God and He didn't send Jesus to die on the cross for nothing. There is a principle at work here. God won't give in to the devil. He won't retreat, and neither should you. Until Jesus comes back and kicks the devil into the lake of fire, you and I have a job to do. We are to be lights in a dark place, enforcing Satan's defeat and living in the power of the resurrected Christ.

It is our divine right to have what God says we can have. It is our divine right to be free. That's part of the package of redemption. You see, the light of the resurrection makes life worth living. Not enduring, but living! Life is something to enjoy. And joy can be found in all seasons of life. In the easy times, in the hard times, in the waiting times—joy is available. You can enjoy your salvation even in the midst of trouble. How? By faith!

Your faith in God can sustain you during the hard times. You can even take pleasure in knowing that Jesus has defeated the devil—and although the devil may be trying his best to steal, kill, and destroy what the blood of Jesus bought, he cannot win! You will be victorious. Change your mindset. Recognize the power of what Jesus did. He rose so that you might rise, too! Speak that out in times of trouble. Don't let the thief steal your joy.

The blood of Jesus doesn't become less effective when the devil fights hard. The power of the resurrection doesn't lessen in the heat of the circumstance. It's as strong today as it was the very day Jesus' body rose out of the grave over two thousand years ago. Sometimes you've got to remind yourself of that and let the truth of what Jesus did set you free!

The Day Before Easter

The day before Easter wasn't always filled with excitement and anticipation. In fact, the very first "day before Easter" was anything but happy. Nobody was looking forward to much, especially the followers of Jesus.

I don't know if you've ever felt so down that you just wanted to quit, or if you've ever looked around at your circumstances and thought, There is just no way out of this situation. But if you have, you can understand the kind of “no-way-out” emotional dilemma that the disciples experienced the day after the crucifixion of Jesus.

They were flat out depressed! After all, things didn’t exactly look good for their new religion, Christianity. Jesus was dead. It looked like big, bad Rome had won. The stinking Pharisees had finally gotten their way. Jesus, the Son of God and Man, was beaten by a bunch of dim-witted religious guys who just wouldn’t give up their old way of doing things. Prideful fools.

For Jesus’ followers, things just couldn’t get any worse. But that’s just considering the spiritual aspect of their situation. There was a real economic problem going on for them, too. Bottom line? They were out of a job. And let’s just face it, it probably didn’t look too good to list “Disciple of Jesus for the past three years” on your resume.

Even if it was the most rewarding work you’d ever done, you sure weren’t looking to broadcast the news that you lost your job because your boss was killed for allegedly committing blasphemy against the government. After that, you just might as well say, “And, oh, I happened to deny knowing Him, too. I’m a real loyalist. You can count on me!” No, the disciples’ situation didn’t look or sound good in the natural.

So, what happens when a man’s back is against the wall like that? What does he do when his hopes are in the dirt and he has nothing left to believe in? Well, usually, he starts backstroking. He goes back to the life he knew before the adventure, before the tragedy. He does his best to forget what made him leave his old job in the first place. For Peter, that meant putting aside catching men and getting back to catching fish.

Let me tell you something, this was a serious personal crisis for the disciples. You sure don’t read too much about their strong faith during these couple of days. But, thank God, someone did keep the faith during this bleak point in the history of Christianity. Who was it? Was it one of the disciples? One of the lame men Jesus had healed? Maybe one of the lepers? No.

It was a bunch of women.

The Extraordinary Women Who Followed Jesus

You have to hand it to them, the women who followed Jesus were extraordinary. They loved Jesus and wouldn’t quit serving Him even after His death.

Let’s read the account in Mark and see how Scripture records this famous Easter morning message.

And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint Him.

And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: He is risen; He is not here: behold the place where they laid Him.

But go your way, tell His disciples and Peter that He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see Him, as He said unto you.

And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven devils.

And she went and told them that had been with Him, as they mourned and wept.

And they, when they had heard that He was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

Mark 16:1-11

These women were flat excited. The Bible says they were so amazed by what they saw and heard that they trembled. That Mary Magdalene was one incredible woman! Even though she was afraid to tell the men, she put her fear aside and went to where they were mourning. She had to tell the Good News that Jesus was risen.

Of course, being the bunch of faithless men that they were, they didn't believe her. They sat stewing in their mourning and paid no heed to Mary's excitement. After all, she was "just a woman." Feminism hadn't taken hold in old Jerusalem. But I just love the fact that God used a former prostitute who'd had seven devils cast out of her to first proclaim the Good News. God does some wild stuff! Mary Magdalene's use as the first proclaimer of the resurrection just proves how purifying the precious blood of Jesus is. It can clean the sin off of anybody!

Who Will Roll Your Stone Away?

Today, we have many things that hold us back from having a life worth living. We have many obstacles standing in the way of our spiritual, physical, and emotional success. Disease, depression, unsaved spouses, poverty—these are just a few of the problems that entomb us, that keep us captive in the grave. But who will roll those miserable stones away and allow us to be free?

Before Jesus came into my life, I was dead to salvation. I was dead to joy and peace. There was a huge stone of sin and addiction keeping me in the grave. But in Boston, Massachusetts in 1974, God rolled away the stone. I was able to step right out of the filth of sin and into the pure, blood-bought righteousness of Jesus Christ. I rose from the dead! I was resurrected! Old things were passed away and I was made new. It takes strong faith to believe that we rose when Jesus rose, but it is the truth. And if you receive that truth into your heart, it will set you free.

There is power in your belief in the resurrection of Jesus. The reason we have Christianity today is because of that event. Without the resurrection, the disciples would have mourned for a while, went back to their jobs, and spent the rest of their lives talking about three years when they really thought they had something. It would have been nothing but a bunch of "Yeah, I remember when..." stories that would have passed into history and affected little but the textbooks.

But that is not what happened.

Jesus rose!

Christianity won!

It may have looked bleak for two days, but on the third day Jesus rose from the dead and changed the course of history. The news of Jesus' resurrection from the dead amazed the world when it first happened, and it is still amazing us today. We're talking about victory over hell, death, and the grave—that's what Jesus' blood did. It paid for every sin—past, present, and future. The day that Jesus rose from the dead, you rose from the dead. I rose from the dead. Your family rose from the dead.

Victory over hell? You got it the day Jesus rose from the dead! Victory over disease? You got it the day Jesus rose from the dead. Victory over poverty? You got it the day Jesus rose from the dead. Victory over addiction, depression, and every other diabolical thing sin brought into this earth was given to you the day Jesus rose from the dead.

We got the victory when Jesus paid the price.

The power of the resurrection makes life worth living!

Break Out of the Rut, Step Out of the Tomb!

We've still got Christians living in the grave today—graves that I call ruts. Ruts of sickness, disease, poverty, and misery, they just can't seem to get out of the grave for anything! Why do we accept sickness in our bodies? Why do we accept poverty or lack of peace when Jesus died and rose again so that we too might rise out of all the terrible things that try to hold us down?

It's our job to say, "NO! I will not accept a life

It takes strong faith to believe that we rose when Jesus rose, but it is the truth. And if you receive that truth into your heart, it will set you free.

lived in this grave. I will walk out of this tomb and into the freedom that Jesus bought for me!” It’s our choice. We are free will beings. Just because Jesus died and rose again for us doesn’t mean He’ll force the benefits of His sacrifice on us. We’ve got to do our part and fight the good fight of faith.

Sometimes you have to get strong with this thing because the devil isn’t going to back off. He’s going to try to keep you locked up for the rest of your days. Why? Because He doesn’t want to accept that Jesus died and rose again. He doesn’t want to accept that he has been beaten—on his own turf—by God living His life as a flesh and blood man. That means that Jesus Christ beat the devil as a man!

You see, the devil knew that God could beat him as God...but that a flesh and blood man did the job? Oh, that one was a big blow to his ego! And you know how prideful the devil is. So, when you and I walk in our blood-bought freedom and refuse to back down and accept less than what Jesus died to give us, it completely irritates the devil. Ha! That’s why it’s so much fun to prove it to him over and over again.

When you walk healed, it’s like saying “Na, na, na, boo, boo, Jesus beat the tar outta’ you. And now I am, too!” When you walk out of the tomb of poverty, it’s like proving the power of the resurrected Christ all over again. Every time you use your faith and win, it’s a blow to the devil because it continues to prove that what Jesus did on this earth meant something.

So, don’t get caught up in crying over your weaknesses. Don’t get caught up in crying over the fact that there is still a tomb on this earth. Self-pity is an easy trap to fall into, but it won’t bring you one step closer to getting out of the tomb. Tombs are a part of life—at least they’re a part of life in a sin-filled earth—and that fact isn’t going to change until Jesus comes back. While there is still a devil on this earth, there will still be trouble and every kind of tomb you can imagine. But while that may be true, it doesn’t change the fact that Jesus’ death paid a price. It was the ultimate sacrifice. And His resurrection made a way of escape for ALL that will believe on His name and take a step of faith.

Think Outside the Tomb: The Power of a Clean Conscience

Does that mean you’ll never face problems again? No, the devil will always try his hand against you. But that’s all he can do. He hinders, but he can’t stop. Several years ago, he tried to kill me in my own plane. My engine blew up when we were flying.

That’s what the devil tried to do. Here’s what God did: We landed safely. No one was hurt or injured. God got us such a great deal on the engine repair that my plane was worth more afterward than it was before Satan made his move.

Things happen, but you don’t cry, “Gloom, despair, and agony on me. Deep, dark depression, excessive misery—I quit!” Christ rose so that you might rise all the way out of your circumstances! If you don’t think Jesus is powerful enough to handle your situation, why was there a whole band of soldiers guarding Him when He was dead? That ought to tell you something. When Jesus came out of that tomb, He rolled away the stone, knocked down the soldiers, and came out with a bright, shining light. He’ll roll the stones of trouble away from you, too.

The resurrection of Christ is a pledge to those who are believers. What does it pledge? For one thing, it pledges that the resurrection has the power to heal your conscience. Do you understand how important that is? Sin on the conscience is a great stone. Since the stone has been rolled away from my life, I am not sin conscious. I’m righteousness conscious.

Sin consciousness will tell you that you are a low down, dirty dog, piece of trash from hell. It will condemn everything you try to do. It isn't conviction. Conviction doesn't make you feel bad; it just opens your eyes so that you can see the truth and repent.

"Don't you feel bad, Brother Jesse?" you might ask.

No, I don't feel bad. I feel convicted sometimes.

Condemnation is feeling bad. Conviction is education. Condemnation comes from religion. Conviction comes from the Holy Spirit. Sin consciousness also makes you focus on all the "don'ts" when living for God is about the "dos."

You have a destiny to fulfill in this life. But how are you going to do what God has told you to do if you're stewing over your own faults all the time? How are you ever going to think outside the tomb if you're so concentrated on your own weakness?

Living for Jesus is a positive thing. It's about what you can do, what you can have, and how wonderful life can be when you're not strapped with the misery of uncertainty and confusion.

Jesus rose from the dead. His work was completed. So that means that you can benefit from His work—mercy and grace are available to you. That's the power of the resurrection making life worth living.

Allowing mistakes and sin to rule your thought life robs you. It steals your ability to actively pursue your destiny. As for me, I know I've got weak points. There are some things in life that I'm not so good at, some areas that I'm not so strong in. But I refuse to let my weaknesses stifle my destiny. The devil will not rob me of that! I will not assist that fool by listening to the condemning thoughts he tries to push onto me.

Jesus Changed Death Forever

Do you know why I serve Jesus? Because He's alive, and because what He did, no man has ever done. Yes, the virgin birth was phenomenal, but I think rising from the dead is harder. After all, with an Immaculate Conception, you're dealing with a living body. But when you're dead, you're dead!

The power of God raised Jesus from the dead. Jesus changed death forever. It's no longer a closing of life; it's just an event in life. The power of the resurrection gives you the ability to explain death. Think about that.

As far as I can tell, everyone wants to go to Heaven, but nobody wants to die. Do you know why? Let's just be honest, I think it's because it looks like it hurts! Sometimes they wheeze kind of hard, you know? That death rattle is pretty rough.

I like what Billy Graham said, "I look forward to death. I don't look forward to the process of dying." I like that. Sure, nobody looks forward to the process, but, thank God, Jesus rose again so that we never have to be separated from God again—not on earth or after death. We just move out of the weight of this body and into the glorious presence of God!

As a preacher, I've had the opportunity to see death many times. You should pray for preachers and doctors because they have to witness the actual dying process more than anybody does. By the time the mortician sees them, they're already dead. They can't talk. They aren't suffering. We see them on their way out. Some scream and holler as they pass, and you can't help but wonder if they're already seeing the flames.

Others go so peacefully—their eyes filled with understanding and their hands reached out to God—it's obvious they're on their way home to Heaven. But to tell you the truth, it's not easy either way. Why? Because as human beings, we've got a built-in, God-given instinct to fight death. We don't like to see the life pass from a human body. Life is a great and mysterious thing created by the breath of the Almighty, and no one wants to see the human life pass from the body.

But, thank God, when you believe in the power of what Jesus did, you never really have to fear death. Salvation assures us that we will never experience what it's like to have your life "end." It's the power of the resurrection of Christ that ensures our eternal fellowship with God in Heaven. For believers, there will be no real death. Death will not have the same sting. For believers, death is just an event in the life-process. We go on to forever experience life with Jesus, our Risen King!

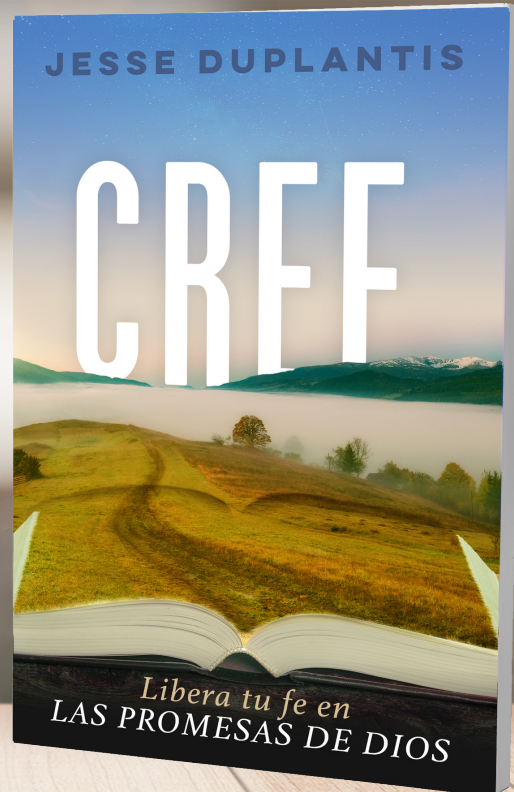

Jesus is alive. He came to earth through a virgin. His life was the perfect example for us to pattern our own lives after. He gave His life as a sacrifice to redeem mankind. He took the keys to hell, death, and the grave and forever changed the world upon His resurrection. Now, Jesus is seated at the right hand of the Father making intercession for you and for me, and He's planning His return.

The work has been done.

Jesus is risen!

Step out of captivity and into your blood-bought freedom. The power of the resurrection makes life worth living!
