One Vision, One Goal, One Mission: WORLD EVANGELISM!

Jesse Duplantis Ministries has one goal: to share God's message of salvation through Jesus Christ with the world. We want everyone to have an opportunity to know the real Jesus. Approachable, personable, compassionate, and full of joy, that's the real Jesus that Jesse and Cathy Duplantis know and love. And it's their mission in life to make sure everyone on every continent has an opportunity to know Jesus, too.

Jesse Duplantis Ministries is making a difference. Through worldwide television broadcasting, ministry resources such as DVDs, CDs, and digital media, Christian literature including books and our monthly magazine, internet and social media outreaches, and meetings held around the globe, Jesse Duplantis Ministries is "reaching people and changing lives, one soul at a time." Jesse and Cathy Duplantis are reaching out with the Gospel in a way that is captivating the lost and turning hardened hearts back to their first love. People are responding to this joyful, down-to-earth, and passionate ministry. They're tuning in. They're listening and laughing. Most of all, they're realizing the freedom, simplicity, and joy that comes from being at peace with God and in love with His Son, Jesus.

At JDM, we're committed to keeping our focus uncluttered—pure and simple, just like Christianity is supposed to be. We're proud to have one vision, one goal, one mission: World Evangelism. It's our passion! And we invite you to join with us and make it your passion, too.

JESSE DUPLANTIS •

DON'T GIVE UP ON

Your Vision

What do you do when a storm blows your way? Whether the storm is a raging wave, a powerful wind, a destructive relationship, a financial storm, or even a life-threatening disease, it has one purpose: to blow you off your faith walk—to whip you, and make you frightened and weary until you just give up.

Give up what? Your walk with God. Your health. Your prosperity. Your family. Your vision. More than anything else, the storm is designed to make you give up your faith and rob you of God's blessings.

God never said we should hunker down and hide from the storm. We're told to go into the world, to press on toward the mark of our high calling in Jesus Christ. There isn't a clause for fair-weather followers.

Paul faced storms. Peter faced storms. John faced storms. Even Jesus faced storms. As surely as the sun rises in the east, storms of adversity arise in life. How will you continue your faith walk when the winds of hell blow against you? (Because you must continue.)

You'll find the answer in the fourth chapter of Mark.

And the same day, when the even was come, He saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

And when they had sent away the multitude, they took Him even as He was in the ship. And there were also with Him other little ships.

And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

And He was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake Him, and say unto Him, Master, carest Thou not that we perish?

And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

And He said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith?

And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?

Mark 4:35-41

The first thing I want you to notice is that Jesus made a simple request to His disciples. He said, "Look, I'm tired. I've been preaching all day and I want to catch a few winks. I'm going to take a nap. You sail the ship to the other side of the lake."

But there arose a great storm. Jesus hadn't mentioned anything about a storm. "Well, Brother Jesse, do you think He even knew the storm was coming?"

Jesus is the Son of God! God always knows there are storms coming; it's the rest of us that are caught by surprise.

Notice this wasn't just a little storm. The Bible described it as a great storm. The waves beat against the ship until it filled with water. Jesus was so tired that He slept through it. Finally, the disciples woke Him and said, "Hey! Don't You care that we're about to die?"

When Jesus woke up, the boat had filled with water and His disciples were terrified. Yet Jesus dealt directly with the problem. He didn't rebuke the disciples (He saved that for later). He didn't rebuke the boat. He didn't even rebuke the devil. The wind was the problem. He rebuked the wind and spoke to the sea.

"Peace, be still." That's all. Three words. But not just any words, He spoke three faith-filled words.

The Bible says that the wind ceased and there was a great calm. At least the weather was calm! Then Jesus turned to His disciples and said, "Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith?"

Wouldn't you hate to hear those words from Jesus? I would.

I know for certain that when you're facing a storm of hurricane proportions, you want to call on someone who isn't afraid and is in control.

When I was eighteen years old, Hurricane Camille hit Biloxi, Mississippi like an eraser. It wiped out homes in every direction. Just before it arrived, I was one hundred forty miles out in the Gulf of Mexico on a drilling rig. The wind was too fierce for the helicopter to fly out and pick us up.

Finally, they sent us a boat. It took fourteen hours for the boat to reach us. We boarded and started the trip back against twenty-foot waves. It was one of those trips where you find out what you've eaten for the past four years.

One wave blew out the windows in the front of the boat and knocked the Captain unconscious. We were still one hundred miles from shore with almost three feet of water inside the boat.

What do you do in a situation like that? Pray. Everybody prays. Everybody comes together in the unity of the faith. Nobody talks against anyone else. If you took an offering, you'd get it all.

I wasn't saved at the time. The first thing I thought about was Mama. "It's your tough luck you were born to me," she said so many times. "You'll get saved whether you like it or not!"

I thought, "Right now would be a good time, Mama. I'd like that. Really!"

Refuse the Opportunity to Fail

When you're a Christian, the storms in life may blow, but your faith walk continues. Every storm offers you opportunities. The first opportunity it offers is failure. Don't take it!

I faced a storm when I first started dating Cathy. "Do you want to go skating, Jesse?"

Every storm offers you opportunities. The first opportunity it offers is failure. Don't take it!

Of course I wanted to take her skating, but I had a couple of problems. First, I didn't know how to skate. Second, I didn't have very good balance. But I really wanted to be cool, so I said, "Sure, I'll take you."

It was one of those old skating rinks with the wooden floor and a big Masonite blade fan in the corner. I put on those skates and tried to pull myself around the rink by the rail. "You don't know how to skate, do you?" Cathy asked.

"No, but I'll learn." About that time, some guy blew a whistle in my ear. "Come on, move! Get your hand off the rail!"

I took my hand off the rail... Wham! I hit the floor.

The storm was blowing. Cathy skated by and said, "Do you want me to help you?"

"No, I can do it," I answered, pulling myself up by the rail, "but how do you stop?"

"Put your foot forward and lean on that little rubber stopper." I started moving and then leaned on both stoppers at the same time.

Wham! I hit the floor hard.

The storm was blowing. Kids were skating by and laughing.

Finally, I got going, but I didn't know how to turn. Some kid pushed me and I headed straight for the fan, screaming the whole way. I hit the fan-rail with such force, it broke. I landed inside the fan and somehow managed to grab the blades.

Tweet! Tweet! Tweet! The whistle guy blasted at me and yelled, "Turn loose of the blades!"

"No!" I screamed. "That thing will eat my lunch if I turn loose!" By then, blue smoke poured out from the fan motor. It made an awful sound.

I'd burned up the motor.

They had to shut down the skating rink to get me out of the fan. The storm was blowing. I had cuts on my hands from holding those blades. Everyone kept staring at me, saying, "You burned up the fan!"

That storm gave me a great opportunity to fail, but I refused to take it. I got up and dusted myself off. "Come on," Cathy said, "give me your hand." I put my hand in hers and let her guide me. After a while, I was gliding.

When you face storms in your faith walk, don't take the opportunity to fail and never try to make it through alone. Reach out to the Holy Spirit. He'll take your hand and lead you through to safety.

Refuse the Opportunity to Sin

The second opportunity that storms offer is the opportunity to sin. The devil will try to convince you that the trouble you're facing excuses sin. Don't fall for it.

The devil will try to convince you that the trouble you're facing excuses sin. Don't fall for it.

That's what happened to three Hebrew boys. Their names were Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Those names are hard to remember, so I made up my own. I call them My-shack, Your-shack, and A-bungalo.

All they wanted to do was serve God, but the devil wanted them to sin. They were given the opportunity to bow down and worship King Nebuchadnezzar or be thrown into a fiery furnace. The storm was blowing!

Don't you know the devil worked overtime to remind them of all they had to live for? If faced with the same situation, a lot of folks would say, "Hey, don't get nuts with this thing. Bow now, and repent later!"

Those Hebrew boys didn't fall for it. The storm was blowing hard, but they refused the opportunity to sin. It made old Nebber so mad, he heated the furnace seven times hotter. Then he said, "I'm gonna' watch 'em burn."

He didn't figure on Jesus being there. That's where a lot of Christians miss it—Jesus is always in the fire. He's always in the middle of the storm with you ready to lead you to safety.

They came out of that furnace without even the smell of smoke on them.

It was a bad day for the devil.

Refuse the Opportunity to Lie

The third thing that storms offer you is the opportunity to lie. Don't do it. Sometimes, when the wind is blowing hard, lying seems like an easy way out. I haven't faced many fiery furnaces, but I've been in situations where I was mighty tempted to lie.

I very seldom visit people's homes, but many years ago I was up in the northern part of the country and a lady invited me over for homemade gumbo. Now, good gumbo is an art, and it is a blessing to me, so I decided to go. I could hardly wait.

We all sat down at the table and that dear woman gave me the biggest bowl she could find. I held my spoon while we prayed over the food. Then I took a big mouthful of gumbo.

It was awful! I mean, it was so bad a dog would refuse it. I didn't even know if I could swallow. Everyone was looking at me intently. Her husband was sitting there holding his spoon, waiting on my reaction. Her nine-year-old son held his spoon and waited, too. Finally the woman said, "Brother Jesse, is it good? Do you like it?"

The storm was blowing. I didn't know what to do. I didn't want to hurt the lady's feelings. I wanted to lie like a dog and say, "Oh, it's wonderful!" But I didn't want to go to hell over a bowl of gumbo either.

I thought real fast, and decided to ask God. The Lord spoke up on the inside of me and said, "Tell them the truth."

That's easy for You to say, I thought, trying to swallow that gumbo. The woman asked again, "Well, Brother Jesse, do you like it?"

"Ma'am," I said, "this is trash."

Her husband threw his spoon down. "I know you're a man of God!" he said. "I know you are!"

I was so shocked, I couldn't say a word. "We've had preachers come over here and eat this trash. But you're the only man that told the truth. This stuff is no good."

"Well, Honey," his wife said, "you never told me it was bad."

"I didn't want to hurt your feelings," he said, "so I prayed for a prophet of God to come tell you the truth."

When the storms are blowing, tell the truth.

I've learned something over the years. Most people don't miss God because the devil tripped them up—most people miss God because they get bone-weary tired of doing good. We're warned in Galatians 6:9, "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

Are you standing in faith for your husband's salvation? Don't get weary about it. I don't care how long you've stood; it's his rotten luck he married you. Greater is He that is in you (1 John 4:4)! The Bible says you'll reap if you faint not.

Do you know what happens to a lot of people? They believe God...and believe God...and believe God. Then, when their prayers are finally, totally, and completely answered, they miss it. How? They passed out on the floor. They got weary and gave up.

If Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego had gotten weary of well doing, they would have missed out on one of the greatest miracles recorded in the Bible.

The storms may blow, but don't grow weary. Why? Because in due season, we shall reap if we faint not.

If you want to reap your harvest, don't grow weary! The faith walk continues.

Watch What You Hear

So, how do you continue the faith walk in the midst of the storm? There are two things that you can do that will bring you through safely.

The first step is to watch what you hear. It's interesting to note that Jesus cautioned the disciples about this before He got in the boat. Look back at Mark 4:24:

And He said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

Do you want more? Second Chronicles 20:20 says, "... Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe His prophets, so shall ye prosper."

Do you want to be established even when the winds are blowing? Believe in the Lord. Do you want to prosper even in storms of adversity? Believe His prophets.

The world will tell you that you shouldn't do that. But let me warn you: If you go the world's way, you'll participate in recession and depression. Believe God's prophets, and you'll prosper in the midst of those things.

A man accused me once, "I suppose you believe the whole Bible?"

Guilty as charged. I believe it from Genesis to the maps.

Speak the Word

The second and most crucial step is to speak the Word of God. Many mornings I get up and talk to myself. "Jesse, come here. Listen, Jesse, you're a chosen generation. Boy, you're a royal priesthood. You don't have bayou water flowing through your veins; you've got the Covenant Blood of God flowing through you!"

I take the Word of God and speak it to myself in the first person. "I am abounding in the work of the Lord. For I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I've committed to Him against that day."

"Those scriptures are nice, Brother Jesse, but I'm facing a real storm!"

So were the disciples in that boat, and Jesus called them men with no faith.

One of the worst storms I remember happened when I was a little boy. We were attending church at the Venice Full Gospel Temple. It was a little shotgun-style white church with about 35 members gathered there that night. We'd had real bad weather all evening, but suddenly, during the service, it sounded like a thousand trains were about to meet in that little building.

Someone looked out the door and saw that a tornado was coming through the woods, heading directly toward us. "Get on the floor!"

People dropped to the floor and scrambled to get under furniture. The Pastor, my daddy, and a few others went outside. I followed them out, and as soon as I stepped through the door, the wind blew me into the yard. I heard Daddy yell, and the next thing I knew he was holding me by my pants while the wind blew me off the ground. I felt my face sting from the pricks of hundreds of bugs hitting me.

I could see the tornado coming. There was no running away from it. It looked like it was going to blow that church apart. I saw trees being ripped up like grass in the wind.

I was waiting for my daddy and the other men and women to do something. They did: They started talking to that storm.

I thought, We're dead!

"In the name of Jesus..." they declared. The tornado kept getting closer, but they kept talking to it. I could barely hear what they said because of the force of the wind. Finally, they were just hollering Jesus' name.

I'll never forget what I saw next: That storm split in half. Right in the middle where the tornado had been, I saw clear sky. Half of the storm went left, and half of the storm went right. It never touched us.

The whole congregation started shouting, dancing, and praising God—all except for me. I just stood there with my mouth open. All I could say was, "Wow!" But one thought was forever burned into my mind that night: We beat up a tornado with the name of Jesus!

What made those people stand against odds that no natural force could conquer? Jesus was with them. They didn't have time to call a prayer vigil or form a committee. They just went out there and spoke faith-filled words to the storm.

“Don't give up on your healing!
Don't give up on the salvation of your loved ones! Don't give up on your harvest! Don't give up on your vision!”

If you're facing a storm in your life today, I want to encourage you to keep walking in faith. Don't give up on your healing! Don't give up on the salvation of your loved ones! Don't give up on your harvest! Don't give up on your vision!

Jesus is with you and will speak faith-filled words to your heart that will deliver you from the storms of life.

"Peace, be still!"

ARE YOU SEARCHING FOR Peace in the Storm?

Are you searching for peace but find that you're overwhelmed with the storms of life? I want to tell you that Jesus is your answer. He is alive and desires to have a personal relationship with you. He wants to give you joy that overcomes, supernatural peace beyond understanding, and eternal safety with your Heavenly Father.

If you don't know Jesus as your personal Lord and Savior, or maybe you know Him but you feel lost in the middle of a raging storm, I would be honored to introduce you to the Greatest Friend you will ever have. As you say these words, if you believe with your heart, you will be born again and made right in your relationship with the Lord (Romans 10:9-10).

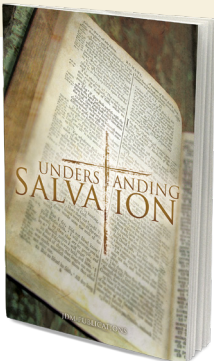

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You died and rose from the dead for me.

Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. In Your name I pray. Amen.

If you just prayed this prayer, congratulations! You are a “new creature” in Christ and, as 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, “...old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.” You have a brand-new life of peace and victory to look forward to. From this day on, Jesus is at your side to protect you and empower you with His joy. Hallelujah!

Would you do me a favor and let me know of your decision to follow Christ? I want to send you a free booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you begin your new life of faith. You can contact me online at JDM.org or use the envelope/order form included in the center of this magazine. Remember, Jesus loves you, He is with you, and He'll help you overcome any raging storm you may face. It's my prayer that you experience for yourself, like I did, the true joy and lasting peace that only He can bring. I want you to know that I love you, and I'm praying for you every day!

— Jesse

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

I love telling the world about the glorious things that God has done. Psalm 118:15 (NLT) says, "Songs of joy and victory are sung in the camp of the godly. The strong right arm of the LORD has done glorious things!" For 48 years now, we have seen God do glorious things through JDM. Each testimony that I have featured here in this issue are real "glorious moments" in the lives of real people that have encountered our wonderful God. Jesse and I are thankful to God for our wonderful Partners that help us spread the Gospel of Jesus that make each "glorious moment" possible. Together we are reaching people and changing lives, one soul at a time!

Good evening, I am watching you from Maracaibo, Venezuela. Your Gospel messages have filled my life with wisdom, faith, and trust in the Lord Jesus Christ and in His Word. Your teachings have strengthened my spiritual life and filled my life with faith, perseverance, and wisdom in Jesus Christ. Thank you!

This praise report has been translated into English for you to rejoice with us.

I first heard you on TBN back in the 80s when I was a teenager and the church was on fire with revival. To see you all these decades later still on fire for the Lord stirs my spirit. Just like Cathy said she kept asking, seeking, and knocking for Jesse's salvation. So, all these years I have been praying to see the promises of God. Almost 10 years ago, our life changed with the passing of many loved ones, one right after another, and it definitely took a toll on my faith. Since then, it has been an uphill climb, but slowly I've found myself falling back into the arms of the Father. Thank you for the humor and love that you both share because it truly helps believers like me continue fighting the good fight and run the race that the Lord has set before us.

Dear Brother Jesse, I have been watching you and learning many faith principles for many years. I have stepped out in faith over and over again because of your teachings. Yesterday was one of those times. A friend and I went out to eat, and the Lord impressed upon me to bless our waitress with a big tip. My friend was also moved by the Lord to do the same thing. Our bill was only $54, but we tipped her $250! She was an older lady who only worked 2 days a week, but was retired from her previous job. Come to find out, she was $200 short in making her rent for the month. I just wanted to thank you for teaching God's Word on tithes and offering properly. It does work!

Glory to God! I'm so grateful to be part of your ministry. You have helped me open my eyes and understand the God I love.

Hello, Jesse and Cathy. Your videos have helped me a lot in my faith. I started listening to you only 3 months ago. I pull up playlists on the internet and listen over and over again. Plus, I get the new notifications from your ministry. A lot has also changed for me in my health and finances since I started listening to you. Keep doing what you do. A lot of people really need you these days.

I love your ministry, Jesse, and how bold you are with the truth of God's Word. I have listened to you for almost all my 45 years of walking with the Lord. I know, because I know you have disciplined me, and I praise God I have grown in faith.

I reached out for prayer of agreement for a clean CT—no cancer. Praise God, no evidence of disease!

I'm writing to thank you for praying for my husband. He had his heart catheter procedure done and when the doctor came in prior to the procedure, he was still talking about 3 areas of concern, including one area that may require bypass. We told him that we'd been praying for and believing that he'd find nothing. He said, "Well, there is that chance." My husband was only gone 40 minutes from the time they wheeled him out until the time they brought him back to his room. I was shocked and awaiting what I expected to be good news. Not only did my husband say that the doctors were bewildered because they couldn't find ANYTHING, but the blockage that he's had since 2018 that was at 70% is now down to 40%! Praise God! Thank You, Jesus! All glory to Jehovah Rapha, our Healer! Many thanks and blessings to you all!

The two of you are awesome. I have learned so much watching your videos and recently partnered with your ministry. Thank you so much for your prayers and the Word of God. I pray that you continue to be blessed and bless others through the Word of God.

Powerful messages! Jesse's messages are transforming my lifestyle. We have to know how to speak and fill our minds with the thoughts of the Lord that are written in the Bible.

Praise God for the Word, Pastor Cathy. Your message, "Beware of the Dream Killers," was fresh manna for me. Thank you for reminding me about the God-given dreams He has given me.

Blessings and greetings from Venezuela. You are excellent pastors who have blessed my life, inspire me, and influence my life! Excellent translation into Spanish!

My husband and I, when we first got married, would only give to our church when we had the "extra money." I have been in church my whole life and was never really taught the value and reasons behind tithes and offerings. We feel that we should be giving offerings to any minister that we listen to and who provides teachings to us. It was by listening to you and what you teach on giving that taught me about the four types of giving. I bought the small pocket-sized book and read it, and I also had my husband read it. I don't think we would be at the point that we are at now if it weren't for your teachings. At the beginning of 2024, my husband was due to go in for his review—this is where he gets his yearly increase and bonus check for meeting the company goals. He was expecting a certain amount for the bonus and came out with $2,000 more than what was expected. Thank you again for your teachings on the tithes and offerings. We have two teenagers who both are working now and we have put the teachings of the tithes and offerings to work in them. We are teaching them the importance of this. I want my kids to be ahead of the game with the understanding of why this is important. Thank you for your teachings and all the products and broadcasts that you put out there. You are making a difference.

For as long as I can remember, my wife has mentioned how my smoking has affected my health and my breath. After watching Jesse's DVD, "What in Hell Do You Want?", I am no longer a smoker and I am now able to turn my back on nicotine and smoking. Praise be to the wonderful name of the most powerful Jesus.

Is There Anything Too Hard FOR THE LORD?

Do you have absolute unwavering conviction deep down in your heart that God can do anything? Jeremiah 32:17 says that NOTHING is too hard for the Lord. It's time to ask, believe, and receive!

The Word of God is full of promises to you that show with absolute clarity that God's power is not limited, and that He is not only able but also willing to move miraculously in your life. All that God requires is that you ask in Jesus' name and believe that He can do what He says, and you shall receive (John 14:13).

Jesse and Cathy bring you one of their most life-transforming Boardroom Chats where they share revelatory truths and personal experiences that will open your eyes to the explosive power of God in your life. Whatever trial or challenge you may be facing today, you will learn how it is Jesus' ultimate desire to display His immeasurable love, power, and faithfulness to you.

Whether it's healing in your body, salvation for someone you love, restoration of a relationship or business, or cancellation of an impossible debt, don't limit God. You serve El Shaddai, the God of more than enough. Whatever the enemy uses to thwart Jesus' plan for your life, remember Isaiah 59:1 (NLT), which says, "Listen! The LORD's arm is not too weak to save you, nor is His ear too deaf to hear you call." Hold on to the promises in God's Word and never let go—nothing is too hard for God!

Testimony

Hello, Jesse and Cathy! I enjoy viewing your programs on YouTube, such as your Sunday Services, Boardroom Chats, Faith the Facts, and Glorious Living with Cathy. I have borrowed one of Jesse's taglines, "Jesus, You got mail!" as I stand on the Word in Philippians 4:6-7 not only for my bills, but for whatever shows up in my mailbox or on my doorstep. Back in 2021, I was a cashier suffering from the aftermath of the pandemic: low wages, inadequate paycheck, and a court-ordered eviction from my apartment. My daughter and I began living at a hotel. The payments drained my savings and eventually rendered my paycheck useless. Even though I was and had been a faithful tither for four and a half years, my home church, without explanation or justification, turned me down when I'd asked for help. I was deeply heartbroken. I became depressed, my health plummeted, and I began to dislike the church. But I never blamed God.

In 2022, we came dangerously close to living outdoors. Much like my savings, resources from family, friends, and their families had dried up. In desperation, I reached out to your ministry for help. We are so very thankful for your love, encouragement, and generosity. With your help, we were able to remain off the streets until two slots opened up at the local shelter. Your broadcasts helped me re-learn what I already knew: that as a Christian, I am responsible for applying the Word of God to my life. I must choose to live in victory, without doubt, fear, or excuses. So, I repented and surrendered my will unto the Lord. It wasn't easy for me to let go of the pain and forgive the church, but God said that I had to. It wasn't easy for me to remain and not go join another church, but God said to stay where He put me. It wasn't easy for me to continue paying tithes to the church, but God had me re-read Malachi 3:10-11. He reminded me that paying the tithe is a commandment to honor Him, not that church. He and He alone is the one true God with the power to open the windows of Heaven to enhance everything that touches my life, not that church.

Little by little, He helped me get through all the emotional baggage blocking my way. I am at peace with the church. God introduced me to men and women who obeyed His Word. He utilized their knowledge to help us move from the shelter into transitional housing for women, and eventually into our own apartment. He utilized their expertise to open doors of employment for us. I was able to give notice to McDonalds before accepting an Administrative Assistant position that I was handpicked for. I am currently a Program Manager to the Executive Director whom I originally worked for as an Administrative Assistant. How miraculous is that! Along with my salary, my tithe increases more and more. Thanks be to God! His promise in Malachi 3:10-11 did not return to Him void. Thank you, Brother Jesse and Sister Cathy, for praying for your Partners and being faithful prophets of God, proclaiming His Word continuously. A donation for $1,500.00 is enclosed to help fund JDM's mission to witness to the lost, encourage the saints, and win souls for the Kingdom.

THE MOST WONDERFUL TIME OF THE YEAR

There's more to Christmas than buying gifts and the traditional songs we enjoy each year. In Jesse's book The Most Wonderful Time of the Year—Uncommon Lessons from the Christmas Story, you'll be inspired to live a higher life of faith by exploring the wonder of God's mysterious ways in the lives of people, both ancient and modern. Broken into five key sections, Jesse shares personal insights on some of the more unusual elements of the Christmas story.

You Can Master Any Disaster

CATHY DUPLANTIS

Jesus mastered every disastrous situation that He encountered. He spoke peace to raging seas, commanded blind eyes to see, and crippled legs to walk. The dead were raised, multitudes were fed, and devils were cast out. Even when an angry crowd in Nazareth drove Him out of town and tried to hurl Him over a cliff, Jesus just passed through them and went on to the next town to preach the Gospel. No plan of the devil could stop His purpose that was established before the foundation of the world. First John 3:8 says, “...For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.”

Jesus came to remove every burden and destroy every yoke of bondage placed on mankind by the devil. His precious blood redeemed us from the curse of the law and restored God’s blessing to those that call upon Him in faith. First John 4:4 & 5:4 say, “Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world...For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.”

When we are born again by the blood of Jesus, He gave us the ability to live gloriously. He gave us world-overcoming faith to be victorious over sin, sickness, poverty and every evil work the devil can produce. Jesus said, “I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have [perfect] peace and confidence. In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer [take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted]! For I have overcome the world. [I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you]” (John 16:33 AMPC).

Cheerful, courageous faith in Jesus always conquers the distress and frustration of this world. Once you know that Jesus has deprived the world of power to harm you, perfect peace and confidence will rule your heart and mind. You can take courage. You can remain confident in the finished work of Jesus. Go ahead, stir yourself up in the Holy Ghost and be gloriously cheerful! Romans 8:37 says, “Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.” You are more than a conqueror because Jesus has overcome the world and given you the victory.

You Have Superhuman Power

Did you know that you are superhuman? It’s the truth! Jesus Christ has made it possible for every born-again believer to be anointed with the power of the Holy Ghost to destroy the works of the devil and be victorious in every area of life. You are not limited to the natural, you are supernatural! When you walk with God, you are powerfully strong, indestructible, and very dangerous to the enemy.

It’s time for us to get a true picture of ourselves and forget about the lie that the devil would like for us to see. He is continually trying to convince us that we are powerless and subject to his every whim. But if you are a born-again believer, nothing could be further from the truth.

Philippians 4:13 (AMPC) says, “I have strength for all things in Christ Who empowers me [I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him Who infuses inner strength into me; I am self-sufficient in Christ’s sufficiency.” You are mighty in Jesus! The devil’s worst nightmare is a child of God who understands their covenant rights and acts on God’s Word.

The devil’s worst nightmare is a child of God who understands their covenant rights and acts on God’s Word.

As a born-again child of God, you have superhuman power to master any disaster. The transforming power of the Word of God is more effective than Superman’s phone booth or Wonder Woman’s spin. You may look like mild mannered Clark Kent on the outside, but the anointing can transform you into a Superman or Superwoman of God.

Think about it. You may be in the middle of the grocery store or at a ball game when you notice someone that needs the power of God applied to their life. You know that Christ has empowered you to be ready for anything and equal to anything that comes your way. Suddenly, you swing into action and a disastrous situation is mastered by a born-again child of God. He places His “Super” on your “natural” and the works of the devil are destroyed once again. Now that is what glorious living is all about!

The church at Thessalonica experienced the superhuman power of God’s Word at work. The apostle Paul wrote, “And we also [especially] thank God continually for this, that when you received the message of God [which you heard] from us, you welcomed it not as the word of [mere] men, but as it truly is, the Word of God, which is effectually at work in you who believe [exercising its superhuman power in those who adhere to and trust in and rely on it]” (1 Thessalonians 2:13 AMPC).

Paul also wrote to the Colossians about the superhuman energy given to him by God for the work of the ministry. “For this I labor [unto weariness], striving with all the superhuman energy which He so mightily enkindles and works within me” (Colossians 1:29 AMPC).

Paul had a huge assignment, but God never expected him to accomplish it in his own natural strength. All the superhuman energy needed to get the job done was mightily at work in Paul’s life. He was empowered by God to reach his generation with the wonderful Gospel of Jesus Christ.

A Disaster Perceived & Prevented

Not everyone liked the message that the apostle Paul was preaching to the world. He had enemies. There was that thorn in the flesh; a messenger of Satan sent to buffet or harass him. Paul’s life was definitely a fight of faith every step of the way. But it was a good fight. In Philippians 1:20-26 (NLT), he wrote:

For I fully expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but that I will continue to be bold for Christ, as I have been in the past. And I trust that my life will bring honor to Christ, whether I live or die.

For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better.

But if I live, I can do more fruitful work for Christ. So I really don’t know which is better.

I’m torn between two desires: I long to go and be with Christ, which would be far better for me.

But for your sakes, it is better that I continue to live.

Knowing this, I am convinced that I will remain alive so I can continue to help all of you grow and experience the joy of your faith.

And when I come to you again, you will have even more reason to take pride in Christ Jesus because of what he is doing through me.

Although the devil tried to destroy his life on many occasions, Paul stayed as long as he wanted to. Once Paul completed the work commissioned by Jesus, he left this world to be with Christ in Heaven.

One particularly unforgettable story from the life of Paul happened while he was a prisoner aboard a ship headed for Rome. In Acts 27:10 (AMPC), Paul warned and advised the crew:

Saying, Sirs, I perceive [after careful observation] that this voyage will be attended with disaster and much heavy loss, not only of the cargo and the ship but of our lives also.

Paul did not say that God sent him a warning. He just perceived after carefully looking at things in the natural, that it would be disastrous to take that voyage. However, no one paid attention to what Paul said and continued on their journey.

It wasn't very long before a horrendous storm, like a typhoon, came bursting on the ship. In verses 18-20, Paul goes on to tell us,

As we were being dangerously tossed about by the violence of the storm, the next day they began to throw the freight overboard;

And the third day they threw out with their own hands the ship's equipment (the tackle and the furniture).

And when neither sun nor stars were visible for many days and no small tempest kept raging about us, all hope of our being saved was finally abandoned.

That is when Paul stood up with a word from God for all those on board (verses 21-25):

...Men, you should have listened to me, and should not have put to sea from Crete and brought on this disaster and harm and misery and loss.

But [even] now I beg you to be in good spirits and take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you but only of the ship.

For this [very] night there stood by *my side an angel of the God to Whom I belong and Whom I serve and worship,

And he said, Do not be frightened,
Paul! It is necessary for you to stand before Caesar; and behold, God has given you all those who are sailing with you.*

So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith (complete confidence) in God that it will be exactly as it was told me.

The decision to take that voyage was not Paul's. But, because he was a prisoner, he had to go where he was told. Many times, the bad decisions of others affect the course of our lives. That is why it is so vital that we obey God's commands to pray for those in government that have authority over us. Their righteous, godly choices make it easier for us to all lead a quiet and undisturbed life (1 Timothy 2:1-2).

Even though that ship was headed straight toward disaster, Paul knew how to turn things around with his faith. Although everyone else on board had given up all hope of survival, Paul had God's Word that all 276 lives would be saved if they stayed with the ship. The storm was still not over, but Paul's faith-filled words restored their hope and brought courage to their hearts.

You can take refuge in God's Word and refuse to allow your heart to be overwhelmed with fear and worry.

A Refuge in Times of Trouble

In the same way, God will never leave you or forsake you, especially in those times of difficulty and trouble. Psalm 9:9 (AMPC) says, "The Lord also will be a refuge and a high tower for the oppressed, a refuge and a stronghold in times of trouble (high cost, destitution, and desperation).” You can take refuge in God’s Word and refuse to allow your heart to be overwhelmed with fear and worry. First Peter 5:7-9 (AMPC) says, Casting the whole of your care [all your anxieties, all your worries, all your concerns, once and for all] on Him, for He cares for you affectionately and cares about you watchfully.

Be well balanced (temperate, sober of mind), be vigilant and cautious at all times; for that enemy of yours, the devil, roams around like a lion roaring [in fierce hunger], seeking someone to seize upon and devour.

Withstand him; be firm in faith [against his onset—rooted, established, strong, immovable, and determined], knowing that the same (identical) sufferings are appointed to your brotherhood (the whole body of Christians) throughout the world.

I don’t know why people are so surprised when the devil attacks. That’s what he does for a living. The devil is not doing anything strange or new. He’s still a destroyer. First Peter 4:12 says, “Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.” Fiery trials are designed by the devil to shock and awe you into believing his lies. Instead of giving into his tactics, you can turn the tables on the devil by worrying his worry, aggravating his aggravation, and troubling his trouble.

James 4:7 says, “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” Once you learn how to withstand him firmly in faith, his days of stealing, killing, and destroying are over. He is destined to lose and you are anointed to win. Jesus has made you more than a conqueror and deprived the world of its power to harm you. You can master any disaster and live a glorious life! 🌍

SUITED FOR SUCCESS

While societies in the world today are driven by the desire for success, many Christians seeking success in their own lives are not well received. But the TRUTH about God's view of success is revealed throughout the Bible. His will is and always has been for all of His children to thrive, prosper, and achieve everything in their lives that He's called them to do.
