Water WALKING DISCIPLES

JESSE DUPLANTIS

Jesus' disciples were an unlikely lot—fishermen, rough and rowdy, who weren't intimidated by anyone or anything. They argued, doubted, and slept when they should have been praying. They bolted when things turned nasty. They denied Jesus and scattered like bad seed.

That wasn't all they did.

They prayed and the earth quaked. They preached and won thousands in a day. They laid callused hands on the sick and the sick recovered. Their shadows fell on the lame and the lame leapt for joy. They started churches all over the known world. Their letters were so inspired that they became books of the Bible.

Most of them died a martyr's death.

But only one walked on water.

Have you ever thought about that? Jesus had twelve disciples, but eleven stayed in the boat. One man climbed out of the manmade vessel and walked on the water.

"So what, Brother Jesse?" you might ask. "There's nothing wrong with a boat."

You're right, of course. If you're out in the middle of a lake during a storm, a boat is a real nice thing to have.

Still, there's one thing you might consider. Those in the boat visited with the other disciples. The one who stepped out of the boat encountered Jesus.

Which would you rather have? The safety of the boat with the other disciples? Or the wind and waves with Jesus? I've already decided: I choose Jesus.

If you look at that experience in the Scripture, you'll notice it was preceded by a great miracle. Jesus fed a multitude with one kid's lunch, then sent twelve baskets home to his mama. I like the way Creflo Dollar tells what happened. He says that boy went home and announced, "Mama, I gave Jesus a two-piece fish dinner, and we just bought McDonald's. You won't be cooking for a while."

Now, most preachers would want to take a vacation after performing a miracle like that. But that's not what Jesus did. He sent the multitudes away, and then told the disciples to take a trip in the boat. He said, "I just have to get closer to Dad." Then He went up on a mountain to pray.

And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, He was there alone.

But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

And Peter answered Him and said, Lord, if it be Thou, bid me come unto Thee on the water.

And He said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

And immediately Jesus stretched forth His hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

Then they that were in the ship came and worshiped Him, saying, Of a truth Thou art the Son of God.

Matthew 14:23-33

Water-Walking Breaks the Power of Natural Law

The devil must have worked himself up into a real snit over Jesus feeding the multitudes. That miracle probably cost him a lot of converts. He wanted revenge. "I'm gonna make Jesus look foolish," he thought. "While He's praying and acting religious, I'll kill everybody that works for Him. We'll wipe out His whole staff!"

The devil forgot that Jesus is the one and only real, live, Super Man. He even has Super Vision. He saw through that plot before Satan worked out the details.

Naturally speaking, it was impossible for Jesus to rescue the disciples. He was up on a mountain and they were across the lake. What could He do?

He broke the power of natural law.

Natural law won't allow you to walk on water. Water won't hold the weight of a man. You can trust me on this; I used to work as a lifeguard. One of my greatest challenges when I was seventeen years old was teaching a very obese woman how to swim. She was terrified of the water. When I think about that woman, I can imagine how Jesus must have felt.

The highest form of trust is trusting someone with your life. That's what Peter did when he stepped out of the boat. Those other disciples trusted Jesus to some degree, but they hadn't trusted Him with their lives. If they had, they would have gotten out of the boat.

That's similar to the position I was in trying to teach that lady to swim. So long as she was in shallow water, she was in control. She slapped me around like a twig. You've got to understand, this woman was big enough to drink the whole pool, spit it out, and beat the fire out of me.

The only chance I had was to get her into a place where I was in control. That place was in nine feet of water, where she couldn't touch bottom.

I finally got her to the deep end and she almost drowned me. When people get scared, their adrenaline flows, and this lady had a lot of adrenaline on board! The only way I could save my own life was to pull her under so she couldn't breathe—she'd turn me loose for a minute, and I'd get away. The minute I tried to help her, she'd scream, "I'll kill you!" Wham! She'd knock me back under. Every time she did that, I'd pull her under. I don't know how many times it happened, but she fought me a long time. Finally, she'd used up all her strength and she thought she was going to die.

Just then, I grabbed her fingertips.

She tried to grab me again. "Don't grab me!" I yelled. "I've got you!"

"You can't hold me up!" she gasped.

"I know I can't," I explained, "but this water can."

I treaded water holding her by her fingertips. "The water is your friend," I said. "You have life preservers inside your chest called lungs. If you scream and holler, they deflate and you'll sink like a rock. But if you breathe in air, they'll keep you up."

The only way I could teach that woman to swim was to get her in a situation where she totally trusted me. I had to be in control. After that happened, she lost her fear of the water and was one of the easiest people I ever taught to swim.

Two weeks later, she came flying out of the dressing room running. Everything was moving. She dove into nine feet of water and created a tidal wave that slapped kids up against the side of the pool.

“Look, Mr. Jesse!” she called. “A back stroke!”

That woman loved the water.

I taught her to swim, and most people thought it was a miracle.

But Jesus taught Peter to walk on water. That was a miracle.

To Walk on Water Without, You Must Have Water Within

Jesus overruled gravity and caused the density of water to hold a man’s weight.

Were the disciples excited to see Jesus walking toward the boat? Well, you might say so. They screamed, “If the storm don’t kill us, that ghost will get us for sure!”

“Cheer up and chill out,” Jesus said. “It’s Me!”

Fear had them climbing the poles of the ship. Yet as scared as Peter had to be, he thought, If that’s not a ghost, and it is Jesus, then it must be possible for me to walk on water with Him.

“Okay, Jesus,” he shouted against the storm, “if that’s You, let me walk on water with You!”

Jesus liked Peter’s attitude. “Come on down!” He called.

Peter stood up in that rocking ship and stepped over the side. Keeping his eyes on Jesus, he took one tentative step...then another...and another.

Peter walked on water!

Eleven men in the boat saw Peter walk on water. They may have mistaken Jesus for a ghost, but there was no mistake about Peter. This wasn’t John, the beloved. He was in the boat. It wasn’t Luke, the physician. He was in the boat. It wasn’t Matthew or Mark either. They were in the boat.

It was Peter.

Peter wasn’t a faith giant.

At least he hadn’t been until he stepped over the edge of that boat in the middle of a howling storm spawned by the devil.

Faith got him out of the boat.

Faith allowed him to walk on water.

Fear sank him.

What happened? Peter stopped watching Jesus and watched the waves instead.

Those waves were big.

He sank like a rock.

Look what happened in verse thirty-one: “And immediately Jesus stretched forth His hand, and caught Him....”

How close do you suppose Peter was to Jesus when he sank? The Bible says that Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him. Not His arm; His hand. He must have only been inches away from Jesus.

Sure, Peter was a mess-up at times, but I wouldn’t laugh. How close were you to Jesus when you screamed and sank? Do you suppose you were inches from His outstretched hand?

You’ve got to have something in you if you’re going to get out of the boat. That’s the reason some people fail. They try to walk on water without, but they don’t have water within.

It’s no small thing to get water-walking faith inside you. First, you have to find a place where the Word of God is taught and preached. Then, you’ve got to get that Word inside of you. If you want to be a water-walking disciple, it’s crucial. You have to have water within. That means you go to church, and not just on Sundays. You go anytime the doors are open. You listen to messages at every opportunity.

You learn to eat, sleep, breathe, and live the Word of God.

Why? Because out of your belly springs the river of life.

People often say, “Brother Jesse, you always seem refreshed.”

Bless God, I should be refreshed. I’ve been drinking the water of life.

I drank a lot of whiskey in my life—a fifth of whiskey a day. I was five years old, drinking beer in the back of a boat, the first time I got drunk.

“But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.”
Matthew 14:27

I got so drunk I fell into the water. I would have drowned if I'd let go of the rope. They had to drag me in, then Mama beat me until I was sober.

Whiskey is not refreshing. It'll kill you. But when you have water within, you'll never run dry.

Water-Walking Disciples Are Motivated by His Purpose

There were twelve disciples in the boat, but only one walked on the water— just Peter. The other eleven saw Jesus walk on water, and they saw Peter walk on water. Can you imagine? They witnessed both miracles and chose to stay in the boat.

Why Peter?

I believe it was because Peter was motivated by God's purpose. The miracle those twelve witnessed on the lake that night was just for them. Jesus could have walked on water for the multitudes, but He didn't. He chose that moment, on that night, on that lake, in the middle of that storm. Peter knew that Jesus wasn't out for a late-night stroll.

He was demonstrating something to His disciples, something more important than a new form of transportation. He was showing them a new way to walk through the storms of life. Peter understood that as surely as Jesus had taught the multitudes by parables, He was teaching them by example.

He was showing them that they could walk on water. That they, through faith, could walk through Satan's storms and break through the power of natural law.

But they could only do it if they got out of the boat.

Does that mean the boat was sin?

Of course not, but God expects anyone who wants to be a water-walker to stop depending on manmade things. He was showing them that they didn't need the boat.

Man made the boat; God made the sea.

If He made the sea, He can control the sea.

If He made you, He can control you.

Then, He can make you control what He made.

That's what Peter understood—God's purpose.

Peter knew that Adam had once had dominion, and now it was being given to them. Peter chose to take that dominion and walk on water.

"Now, Brother Jesse," someone said, "it never said in the Bible that Adam could walk on water."

Not in those words, but the Bible makes it clear that Adam had dominion over all the works of God's hands. I'll leave that for your theological mind to figure out.

Adam could do what God could do. Why? Because God gave him a job to do, and He wouldn't give him a job to do without the power to do it. Adam was to take dominion.

And so are you.

I've got a secret for you: You'll never do it until you walk on water.

Peter understood that his ultimate destination wasn't to stay in the boat. It was faith that directed Peter out of the boat. Faith will always direct you out of manmade things and into God-made things. That's why every person will only do as much as he believes.

There are four things required of a water-walking disciple. First, you must walk with God (Genesis 5:22). Second, you must walk after God (Deuteronomy 13:4). Third, you must walk before God (Genesis 17:1). Fourth, you must walk in God (Colossians 2:6).

When you become a water-walking disciple, you won't sink. I don't care what situation you're in. I don't care if you owe thirty dollars or thirty million dollars. If you don't get the money you need, you'll go broke needing thirty dollars just as quickly as you will needing thirty million dollars.

If you're going to walk on water, you'll have to do what Peter did when Jesus said, "Come."

He walked.

That means you must be prepared to leave the familiar and face the unknown with Jesus. Have you noticed that it doesn't take long for something to become familiar? The moment that happens, you can be sure there is another step to take.

That's why it was so hard to teach that woman how to swim. She wanted to stay with the familiar. She couldn't swim because she only went on what she knew. She thought I was her death wish, but I was taking her into a whole new unfamiliar area of life.

Water-Walking Disciples Attempt the Impossible

When you stay in the boat, everything around you is over your head. When you get out of the boat, everything around you is under your feet. Jesus is calling to you and me as surely as He called out to Peter that night.

“Come on, boy! Attempt the impossible! Get impossible results!”

Do you want to be debt free?

You can be out of debt in a week if you believe God and step out of the boat of manmade possibilities. The first thing you have to do is realize that we were made in God’s image and set here on earth to attempt impossible things, to do impossible tasks, and to bring to pass impossible results.

That’s the truth. We’re here to do the impossible.

Everything God has ever told me to do in my ministry was impossible.

Whatever He has called you to do is impossible, too, unless you step out of the boat.

I want you to notice something. Peter was walking on water by faith. Yet the minute his faith failed, he sank. The results of your faith will not last one moment beyond your faith.

But that’s not the end of the story.

The next statement after Peter sank was, “And immediately.”

Look at verse thirty-one again: “And immediately Jesus stretched forth His hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?”

When Peter’s faith failed and when Peter’s faith-results failed, he cried out to God, and immediately Jesus’ faith caught him. Isn’t that good news? When you come to the end of your own faith, call out to God. Jesus will keep you from sinking, too.

This is my philosophy in life. When Jesus says, “Come,” He intends for you to come all the way, not part of the way. Once you understand our Covenant, you’ll realize that there is nothing part-way about it. All you have to do is link up to the Friend who sticks closer than a brother.

I’ve told employees as much. “You’ve got a job,” I said. “I didn’t say you have a job for a year. You’ve got a job. Hook yourself up to this train—we’re moving forward.”

That doesn’t mean we won’t have mountains to climb.

What if we slip?

We’ll climb back up.

I can guarantee you that we’re going over, not under.

Grace is an amazing thing. God will give you not only the grace to go through a bad spot, but He’ll give you the grace to go beyond it. If you don’t think so, just cry out to God. Immediately, Jesus will pick up the slack.

Sin Deflates Your Faith and Will Cause You to Sink

I used to be the chief of sinners. I mean chief, not some pony soldier. I made sin an art form. People often ask me why I don’t have a problem with sin anymore. It’s because I don’t want to.

“You make it sound easy, Brother Jesse,” someone said.

It is easy to make a choice and trust God for the grace to follow through. His grace has given me the victory over all kinds of sin. But several years ago, the Lord told me that I lacked one thing: My temper.

Before I got saved, my temper just ran its course. I didn’t care who you were or how big you were. I figured a stick, baseball bat, or a gun would make you my size.

I can hear what you’re thinking: “Brother Jesse, you wouldn’t do that.”

You only think that because you didn’t see how I was raised. I was a street boy. Sometimes, even after all these years of knowing God’s grace, I can act like a street kid again.

Many years ago, I walked out of my office and noticed my maintenance man and a couple of my other employees gathered around one of our ministry vans.

“What’s going on?” I asked.

“Oh, we have a dent in the van,” one of the men said.

“A dent?”

“Yeah, the boys hit something in Chicago.”

I walked around them and looked. Both doors were caved in. Tabasco sauce started percolating up my legs. I could feel the hair rising up on the back of my neck. The devil ran up and said, “They wrecked your van.”

“I see that,” I agreed.

“And they called it a dent,” he added.

“Those guys are idiots,” I said. “Do you think that’s a dent?”

“No, I think it was a full-blown crash, Jesse.”

“I agree with you, devil.” I said. “Those boys crashed my van and I’m hot.”

Cathy walked up about then and noticed my temper had reached the boiling point.

“Jesse...!” she warned, but it was too late. I cut loose on that guy.

You might say that my faith did not keep pace with God’s grace.

Cathy couldn’t stop me, but God smote my heart.

“Repent, Jesse.”

“Lord, they wrecked my van! They drove it up a wall!”

I turned back to the men. “How did you drive it up a wall?”

“We don’t know.”

“You drove my van up a wall and you don’t know how?”

“Well” they said, “we had to jack it off the wall.”

Jack the van off a wall? An accident is an accident, but that was no dent!

I was going off like a fourth of July fireworks display. “Move!” I yelled at one of the men. “Find out what’s going on! I think I’ve been lied to and I don’t like it!”

“How would you like for Me to talk to you that way?” the Lord asked.

Cathy said, “Would you like something to drink while you destroy eighteen years of ministry with that stinking temper of yours?”

“I’m gonna tell you something woman...” I began.

“Call all your staff together and repent,” the Lord said.

I did it. I called them all together and repented to them. Cathy patted my back and said, “It’s okay, Honey.” My employees said, “Oh, that’s okay, Brother Jesse.”

But it’s not okay.

I don’t want to sink. I want to walk on water and achieve the impossible.

Sin will make you sink like a junkyard dog.

Whatever your besetting sin is that raises its head and mocks the grace of God, repent! It’s too heavy to carry around if you’re going to walk on water.

Then, get out of the boat.

Keep your eyes on Jesus.

You can walk on water today!

Are you ready to receive all that Jesus has for you?

Jesus chose to die on the cross to give you eternal life in Heaven, as well as an abundant life here and now. If you don’t know Jesus Christ as your personal Lord and Savior, I would like to introduce you to the greatest Friend you’ll ever have. As you say these words, if you believe with your heart, you will be born again (Romans 10:9-10):

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You died and rose from the dead for me.

Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that You shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

If you just prayed this prayer, congratulations! You are a “new creature” in Christ, and as 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, “...old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

You now have a brand-new, victorious life with Jesus to look forward to. Please let us know of your decision to follow Christ and we will send you a free booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you begin your new life as a believer. Just go to jdm.org and click on the “Do You Know Jesus?” link or use the envelope/order form in the center of this magazine and let us know if you would like the English or Spanish version. Also, send us your prayer requests. We want you to know that you will never be another day without prayer. God bless you!

– Jesse

GOD WILL GET THE JOB DONE!

Enjoy this miraculous testimony from Kesha Powell, a member of Covenant Church who has been a regular guest on Glorious Living with Cathy as well as on our Glorious Girl Talk Panel.

When Brother Jesse and Pastor Cathy receive their yearly theme from the Lord, there is such an anointing that comes with it. And when you truly take hold of the theme with everything inside of you and apply it to your life, results manifest. And that is exactly what I did!

I recently got a loan for $25,000, and I made a promise to myself that I was going to pay off the loan this year. As I was making a payment on June 6, I heard in a whisper this year's JDM theme: "Give God a Job." The phrase resonated within me so strongly! I suddenly had the urge to declare in faith, "Lord, I said I was going to pay this loan off this year, but I want this totally forgiven! I don't want to pay it at ALL anymore!" So, I decided to apply this year's theme to my situation, as well as the scripture, "Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law" (Romans 13:8 KJV).

A week later, after giving God the job of complete loan forgiveness, I went to the mailbox. I might not check the mail every day, but when I do, I expect "unexpected money!" When I opened the mailbox, I saw something that looked like a check in an envelope. At first, I thought it was just an advertisement or offer from a company trying to get my attention. So, I went to throw it away. But right before I did, I remembered my request to the Lord, quieted my spirit, and paid attention to what He wanted me to receive. I have learned that it is always wise to be intentional and listen to the Holy Spirit!

When I opened the letter, I had to sit down! My husband Remus asked, "Well, what is it?" I replied, "It's a check!" And at the bottom of the check were the words "Loan Forgiveness." The date on the check was June 6: the exact date that I gave God this job to fulfill! And if that wasn't enough, I got even more of a blessing and received the $25,000 back! Talk about "Give God a Job!"

If this happened for me, it can happen for you. Be faithful in the little things! Remember, it is so important to sow your tithe. As Remus and I tithe, we expect growth for where we want to be. And after this experience, we have been challenged to step up our giving for the Kingdom of God. I encourage you to "Give God a Job" today, because the Lord is eager to get it done for you. There is nothing too small for Him, and He will accomplish everything He says He will do!

October PARTNER OFFER

How far can your faith take you? God is always searching for someone to have daring faith that defies the limits of this world. He's looking for someone, regardless of their own ability or where they are in life, to stand on His Word and say, "I know anything is possible with God!"

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

Jesse and I are so blessed when we read the testimonies of people that have been reached and lives that have been changed by the wonderful Gospel that God has called us to proclaim to the world over 48 years ago. We know you enjoy reading them too, which is why we publish these glorious moments each month in our ministry magazine. At JDM, we want the whole world to know that Jesus came to remove every burden and give the gift of salvation to whosoever believes in Him. The Passion Translation of Psalm 68:19 declares, “What a glorious God! He gives us salvation over and over, then daily He carries our burdens!”

We are so thankful to God for every life that has been impacted through our ministry since we began reaching people and changing lives, one soul at a time. Each testimony here is from a precious life that has been forever changed by accepting Jesus’ free gift of salvation—and that is something to celebrate!

I’ve been a Partner for 7 months, and born again for 7 months. I’m so grateful and blessed with this new way of living. I came to your church when you blessed our prayers in January 2024. One of my prayers was to have my thyroid back. I had my thyroid taken out in 2002, and I’ve been praying since I had it taken out to have it back. I’ve been on medication twice a day since then. The fantastic, wonderful, great, amazing news is that Jesus restored my thyroid and I am no longer on medication. I feel better than I’ve ever felt in my life, stronger and more fit. I’ll be getting a scan in a couple of months. Thank you, Jesse, for facilitating my supernatural healing! I also tithe 10% weekly, and I see that my abundance is also growing. I pray to be debt-free with overflow so I can give back and serve others.

I have been reading Jesse’s Heaven book once a year for 6 years! It never grows old and blesses me anew each time. I order them and give them out whenever the Lord prompts me to. I include a note saying, “This book is a treasure. Pass it on to all of your family and friends. Don’t ever let it catch dust. It is life-changing.” My doctor, dentist, and eye doctor got one! I am so grateful that the book includes a salvation prayer and that every Voice of the Covenant magazine has one as well. I use them all! I am 86 years old and use every opportunity to get to witness. Thank you, Jesse and Cathy, for your magazine articles. We are blessed by them!

---

Thank you! Your humor and clear sermons led my son to Jesus. I will never be able to repay this gift you have given me—an eternity with my son, no matter what this life may bring.

---

You have changed my life. I want to thank you for the Spanish translation of the Boardroom Chats and Glorious Living programs. Both programs have been a great source of learning and blessing for me. You have no idea the extent to which your messages are expanding the Spirit and impacting the world.

This praise report has been translated into English for you to rejoice with us.

I found your ministry about a year ago and have been tithing ever since to you. For many years I have been a backslider—still always believed but looked at things in the wrong way. Well, let me get to the heart of it all. On Father’s Day, I fell extremely ill and almost died. While in the hospital, after coming out of a drug-induced coma lasting 4 days, I believed God through your teaching, which I listen to every day for 90 minutes on my way to work. You are my minister. I still am not totally out of the woods yet, as I still have a cancerous tumor in my throat, but am getting stronger every day in preparation for what is next. So, as I move forward with my situation, I will lean on your faith, as well as the faith you have built in me. I want to thank you for explaining the Bible in terms that a lot of us need. Please stay on the air as long as possible.

Thank you for coming to Charis Christian Center this year! You prophesied over me. It meant a lot. Thank you! You guys are the reason I became a Christian as a child. I am now 23 years old.

---

Years ago, when I began my walk with the Lord, I stumbled upon a Jesse Duplantis sermon on TV and was instantly hooked! A year or two later, Jesse was preaching in Greensboro, NC, so I went to hear him because I was hungry for the Word. I knew if Jesse was preaching, it was going to be good! Jesse said, "Someone here needs a car. If that's you, please come down so we can pray for you." What?!?! No Way! is what I was thinking to myself! I needed a new car but didn't have the money or credit score to get one (at least in my own power). So, I made my way down to be prayed over by Jesse. Praise God, just a few weeks later, I was signing the paperwork for my new car! And just because God loves showing up and showing out, I was able to pay it off 1.5 years early! My God (our God) is so amazing and powerful! Over the years, I have learned so much about standing in faith and sowing seeds.

---

I attended my first ever Visionary Conference in 2024. I loved it and God healed me! I waited a few days just to test things out, but here is my testimony. You shared a prophetic word of healing: "Someone is here with a hurt elbow. It's healed, and your torn rotator cuff is healed. You will reach for something tomorrow and you will see. You will be able to do what you could not do before." Immediately, my right elbow was totally healed that night when you spoke it. I had re-injured it about 4 weeks ago. It's 100% healed now. For two years or more, my left shoulder would fall out of place at least once a day, sometimes more. We are missionaries and have not been able to afford medical insurance for several years, just going by faith. God has healed every single medical issue, and now this one. That Friday morning, I was putting my dress shirt on, and in a rush, so I could be really early to the Friday morning session. As I was placing my left arm in my dress shirt and at the same time reaching for "something" on the table, I heard just as plain as day a loud tearing sound. It sounded like a piece of paper ripped in two, but definitely inside of my left rotator cuff. My heart jumped and my first thought was, I'm in big trouble now. Then, immediately, I remembered your prophecy and started laughing! I said, "I receive it, Lord. It's my turn for a healing. I'm healed." Jesse, it did NOT drop out of place. As a matter of fact, I lifted my arm out in front of me to taunt the devil. It had little to no pain. I said, "Ok, the pain will totally go and, thank God, it will NOT come out of place anymore." This week I have walked long-distance twice. Normally I have to grab my belt with my left hand to hold the shoulder in place as I exercise so it stays in place. Then, I will use therapy bands so it won't fall out of place that day. Now, no bands, walked a few miles, and it has not fallen out of place and ALL pain is gone. It's totally healed! Praise God! I'm creating my "impossible list" and it's already coming to pass. What a powerful two days! Thank you all for blessing us. It was an honor to plant a seed in person.

I have learned so much since I have been watching your Boardroom Chats. I love how Sister Cathy and Brother Jesse explain things. It sure helps me to see the truth the way I'm supposed to see it. I have learned so much about tithing and obedience. Thank you so much. God put it on my heart for a while, and I'm thankful I became a Partner about 3 months ago. I feel so good about it. Keep bringing the Boardroom Chats.

A few months ago, I requested prayer of agreement for debt freedom. I am happy to share that $70,000 of student loan debt has been forgiven. Hallelujah! I am encouraged to continue in faith and believe for my mortgage to be paid in full supernaturally—however God wants to do it. God gave me wisdom to pay some other debts, like consumer credit cards and a previous mortgage. Now, the mortgage is the only debt remaining. I pray to grow my faith so I can inherit, be gifted, or buy my next cars and houses with cash. Amen! Thank you for the awesome teaching and fervent prayers.

I asked for prayer to sell our house and find land to build on. Well, we sold our house with no issues and found land we could purchase. It was 20 acres, and the owner was going to subdivide the rest. When the county came out to survey the land, they said he could only divide the land into 2 pieces. So, praise the Lord, the owner told us that we would now get 35 acres for the same price. The Lord is so good! Thank you for helping us to increase our faith!

---

Your teachings on The Four Types of Giving have totally changed my tithing and giving this year! I bought the mini-book and I took detailed notes that I always refer back to in order to refresh my memory and recall the scriptures. Thank you for this anointed teaching, Brother Jesse!

---

Dear Brother Jesse, the first time I heard you speak about being debt free was in 2010. In fact, you asked, "What would you do with the first dollar when you are debt free?" Since then, I stopped borrowing and committed to pay off our student loans and home equity line of credit, making sure we pay off the balance every month on our credit cards, paying tithes, and increasing our giving to many ministries. This April 2024, I paid off the balance of our home mortgage. On top of that, I was able to pay tuition for both of my daughters in college (top 10 U.S. schools). I am on my next project as the Lord leads me. Thank you for your preaching. So, back to the original question: I will increase my giving to my next level of promotion, as I know I can't outgive God. Thank you. May this be an inspiration to other believers.

Thank you, Brother Jesse, for always being a man of integrity and being honest and telling it like it is. Continue to do what God has called you to do! You and Sister Cathy have built an amazing ministry. This world needs you both to continue to preach the Gospel! Thank you for this message on what we, the body of Christ, must do to usher in the second coming of the Lord.

Gloriously ANOINTED to Win

CATHY DUPLANTIS

When my daughter Jodi was five years old, she would pretend that she was the “Bionic Woman”—the popular female TV action hero of the late 1970s. This character could do everything faster than our eyes could see, so the camera had to film her in slow motion in order for us to see her super-human abilities.

Jodi and her little friend Tracy (who was the “Six Million Dollar Man” and also super-human) would run through the playground in slow motion doing damage to invisible bad guys. With each confidently placed step, they pictured themselves as powerfully strong, indestructible, and very dangerous to the enemy.

As a child, you may have done something similar. But did you know that you really are super-human? It’s the truth! Jesus Christ has made it possible for every born-again believer to be anointed with the power of the Holy Ghost to destroy the works of the devil and be victorious in every area of life. You are not limited to the natural; you are supernatural! When you walk with God, you are powerfully strong, indestructible, and very dangerous to the enemy. You are gloriously anointed to win and impossible to curse!

You Have an Equalizer

When I began dating Jesse, I had a stepfather who was extremely violent. In the three years that my mom was married to Johnny, he seemed to always be drinking, drunk, or passed out on the couch. Passed out was good. When he was that way, I didn’t have to deal with his insults or see him hit my mom. He never did hit us kids, but Mom was a frequent target.

Jesse would often take me and my sisters out of the house when the rampages began. He would buy us burgers and malts to help calm our fears and cheer us up. All of us knew how crazy Johnny could be. We remember coming home from school one day to find all of our clothes out on the front lawn, ripped to shreds with a knife, and scattered across the front yard. It terrified us to think about what could have happened if we had been home during his fit of rage that day.

I'll never forget the time that I called Jesse on the phone to help me stop Johnny from hurting my mom. He lived about five miles away and promised to be right over. But as he was going out the door, Jesse told his parents what was going on at my house.

His dad asked, "How big is he, Son?"

Jesse said, "I can handle him, Dad!"

But Mr. Duplantis wasn't taking chances with his son's life and quickly handed Jesse the largest knife from the kitchen drawer. "Just in case," his dad warned. He wanted Jesse to have an equalizer!

Jesse raced over to my house in his old, blue bomb of a car to protect "his girl." Although he never used the knife, he was ready to do all that was necessary to put a stop to Johnny that day. You see, we didn't know God at the time, so we didn't know God had a better way for our lives.

Jesus Christ has made it possible for every born-again believer to be anointed with the power of the Holy Ghost to destroy the works of the devil and be victorious in every area of life.

Later, after things had calmed down, Jesse and his big brother Wayne (another equalizer) met Johnny at a bar to talk to him privately and settle this thing for good. Jesse wanted him to stop terrorizing my family.

Jesse said, "Johnny..."

But before he could finish a sentence, Wayne interrupted with, "Don't talk, hit him!"

Just then, the bartender said, "Look guys, I don't want anything busted up in here. Leave that guy alone."

Wayne said, "Shut up, man! We'll beat-up this guy and everyone else in this joint that gets in our way!"

Jesse looked at Johnny straight in the eyes and told him, "Your brains and blood will be all over this floor."

But before Jesse and Wayne could whip-up on him, Johnny began to apologize to Jesse and promised to straighten up. Things went smooth for quite a long time around our house from that moment on. It was made crystal clear to Johnny that if he got violent with Cathy and her family, Jesse would find him and mess him up real good. Jesse had made him an offer he couldn't refuse!

Many people today are trapped in a similar life of violence and fear, not aware that Jesus Christ destroyed the works of the devil and can empower them to win in life. The Passion Translation of Philippians 4:13 makes this so clear: "And I find that the strength of Christ's explosive power infuses me to conquer every difficulty." Instead of being limited to natural equalizers, we can be supernaturally infused with power to conquer every difficulty in life.

Mighty Weapons

The Word of God declares in 2 Corinthians 10:3-5 (AMPC): "For though we walk (live) in the flesh, we are not carrying on our warfare according to the flesh and using mere human weapons. For the weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood], but they are mighty before God for the overthrow and destruction of strongholds, [Inasmuch as we] refute arguments and theories and reasonings and every proud and lofty thing that sets itself up against the [true] knowledge of God; and we lead every thought and purpose away captive into the obedience of Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One)." God wants to infuse each of us with power to tear down strongholds and overthrow the plot of the enemy to steal, kill, or destroy what belongs to us.

The Bible reveals to us that demons were terrified of Jesus. Mark 1:24 (AMPC) says, "What have You to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God." We also know that the world was terrified of the first century disciples. Acts 17:6 (AMPC) says, "...These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also."

In fact, all the heroes of faith recorded in the eleventh chapter of the Book of Hebrews were anointed to move in the realm of the miraculous and greatly feared by their enemy. "Who by [the help of] faith subdued kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promised blessings, closed the mouths of lions, Extinguished the power of raging fire, escaped the devourings of the sword, out of frailty and weakness won strength and became stalwart, even mighty and resistless in battle, routing alien hosts” (Hebrews 11:33-34 AMPC). They couldn’t lose with the stuff they used. They were anointed to win! They were impossible to curse!

We can be encouraged by their testimony. When surrounded by the enemy, we don’t have to rely on our own natural strength. In Ephesians 6:10-18, we learn that we draw our strength from God by putting on the whole armor of God. We have the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, and our feet are shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace. We have the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. Talk about being dressed for victory!

God has gloriously anointed us to win in life. Now more than ever, we need to be devoted, diligent, dedicated, and determined to receive God’s promises.

Devoted to Prayer

Prayer is always step one and is essential to your victory. Now, I am not talking about a haphazard prayer life that occasionally reminds God about your problems. I am talking about constant communication with God so that the Holy Spirit is able to reveal the plans of the enemy and show YOU how to neutralize his forces and send him running for cover.

When you take the time to yield yourself to the Holy Spirit, you will find that He is never short of words to pray. Romans 8:26-27 (AMPC) says, “So too the [Holy] Spirit comes to our aid and bears us up in our weakness; for we do not know what prayer to offer nor how to offer it worthily as we ought, but the Spirit Himself goes to meet our supplication and pleads in our behalf with unspeakable yearnings and groanings too deep for utterance. And He Who searches the hearts of men knows what is in the mind of the [Holy] Spirit [what His intent is], because the Spirit intercedes and pleads [before God] in behalf of the saints according to and in harmony with God’s will.”

When we are devoted to prayer and keep our time with God at the center of our life, we will walk in boldness instead of tiptoeing around the devil. First John 5:14-15 (AMPC) says, “And this is the confidence (the assurance, the privilege of boldness) which we have in Him: [we are sure] that if we ask anything (make any request) according to His will (in agreement with His own plan), He listens to and hears us. And if (since) we [positively] know that He listens to us in whatever we ask, we also know [with settled and absolute knowledge] that we have [granted us as our present possessions] the requests made of Him.”

Prayer is an indispensable part of your armor and makes you an active participant in spiritual warfare. Ephesians 6:18 (AMPC) tells us to “Pray at all times (on every occasion, in every season) in the Spirit, with all [manner of] prayer and entreaty. To that end keep alert and watch with strong purpose and perseverance, interceding in behalf of all the saints (God’s consecrated people).”

Don’t just start in prayer; stay devoted to prayer! Regardless of what things look like in the natural, never give up on it. Too often we get weary and faint before we are able to reap what we have sown. After teaching His disciples how to pray, Jesus commanded them, “So I say to you, Ask and keep on asking and it shall be given you; seek and keep on seeking and you shall find; knock and keep on knocking and the door shall be opened to you” (Luke 11:9 AMPC). Don’t just talk about it; DO IT!

Diligent to Study God’s Word

Paul told Timothy, “Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth” (2 Timothy 2:15 AMPC).

Unless we take the time to get into God’s Word and allow it to transform our old way of thinking, we will live in constant defeat and frustration and miss out on God’s plan for our lives. But when we are diligent to study the Word of God, we can become confident, skillful workmen who are extremely hazardous to the devil’s plans.

When we are devoted to prayer and keep our time with God at the center of our life, we will walk in boldness instead of tiptoeing around the devil.

John the Beloved wrote, “Little children, you are of God [you belong to Him] and have [already] defeated and overcome them [the agents of the antichrist], because He Who lives in you is greater (mightier) than he who is in the world” (1 John 4:4 AMPC).

You may not look like an overcomer or you may not feel mighty, but dwelling on the inside of you is the same power that raised Jesus from the dead (Romans 8:11). You are clothed with the armor of God and extremely hazardous to the plans of the devil. I believe that the devil’s worst nightmare is full of born-again believers who skillfully use the Word of God to quench his fiery darts and silence his lying tongue forever.

God did not save your soul and leave you a weakling, subject to all kinds of powers of darkness. The Spirit of God has been given to you to make you an overcomer with dominion over every demonic force that ever was. The devil knows it, and it’s high time that the Church knew it!

The Spirit of God has been given to you to make you an overcomer with dominion over every demonic force that ever was.

Dedicated to Doing the Will of God

Romans 12:1-2 says, “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.”

From the very beginning of my walk with the Lord, He let me know the importance of being at the center of His will. It didn’t matter how difficult it looked or how inadequate I thought I was, all that mattered was staying in the center of God’s will.

Jesus was that way. He said that He only did what the Father told Him to do and only said what the Father told Him to say. He never moved ahead of God or lagged behind. He was always in step with the plan of God and always took time to be alone with Him for up-to-the-minute instructions. When we follow His example, we will fulfill God’s plan that He has designed for us to live.

Determined to Win the Victory

Determination always wins out. If you are devoted to prayer, diligent to study God’s Word, and dedicated to God’s will, you will win the victory.

In Hebrews 2:14-15, the New American Standard Bible 1995 says, “Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives.”

Although Jesus has defeated and rendered the devil powerless, it is our responsibility to believe it by faith and act on it in order to receive God’s promise. When it comes to dealing with the devil, 1 Peter 5:9 (AMPC) tells us to “Withstand him; be firm in faith [against his onset—rooted, established, strong, immovable and determined]....”

Don’t allow the devil to neutralize you with doubt, fear, and ignorance of God’s Word. You are not alone—you are divinely connected with God, and that makes you powerfully strong, indestructible, and very dangerous to the enemy. You are gloriously anointed to win and impossible to curse.

Let that truth really saturate your heart today. I want you to take hold of Ephesians 1:11-12 (MSG) and make it personal. Say to yourself: “It’s in Christ that I find out who I am and what I am living for. Long before I first heard of Christ and got my hopes up, He had His eye on me, had designs on me for glorious living. I am part of the overall purpose He is working out in everything and everyone.” Never give up on the promises of God and His plan for your life. 🌍
