The Power of PRAYER

NEW BOOK
by Cathy!

PRAYER Is Your Lifeline to GOD'S POWER IN YOUR LIFE!

Do you realize how essential a strong commitment to prayer is in order for you to receive from Heaven and fulfill God's plan for you?

Get ready to revive your spiritual life and start enjoying the abundant life Jesus died to give you. In The Power of Prayer, Cathy Duplantis, anointed author, pastor, and Bible teacher, will inspire and guide you to an intimate communion with your Heavenly Father. With personal stories and biblically-based, time-tested principles that will effectively posture your heart to God, you'll be equipped to tap into an open, clear line of communication with God that will unlock the gates of Heaven in your life.

Jesus Christ clearly established the importance of prayer, so much so that His disciples asked Him to teach them how to pray. They didn't ask Jesus to teach them to do miracles, even though they saw Him heal the sick, raise the dead, feed the multitudes, and walk on the water. They recognized that prayer was the source of His power.

Never underestimate the power of your faith-filled prayers to God Almighty, the Source and Creator of all things. Your prayers will always reveal God's plan for you and provide for your victory. You serve a good God Who desires to hear and answer your requests, and thanks to Jesus, you can bring them directly before the throne of grace. Choose today to live a life devoted to prayer—it is your lifeline to God's power operating fully in every area of your life!

Praying EFFECTUALLY

CATHY DUPLANTIS

You can take charge of your life and put a stop to the destructive plans of the devil. Instead of living in distress or despair, you can use the power of prayer to enforce God's Word and enjoy an abundant life in Jesus. It's really up to you.

Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, whatever you forbid and declare to be improper and unlawful on earth must be what is already forbidden in Heaven, and whatever you permit and declare proper and lawful on earth must be what is already permitted in Heaven. Again I tell you, if two of you on earth agree (harmonize together, make a symphony together) about whatever [anything and everything] they may ask, it will come to pass and be done for them by My Father in Heaven" (Matthew 18:18-19 AMPC).

Think about the kinds of things that are forbidden in Heaven. Pain, sickness, fear, or lack of any kind cannot be found in that marvelous place! An abundance of peace, joy, and love flow there continually. In Heaven, we know that all needs are met and every tear is wiped away.

God has given power to the Church to enforce His will on the earth. We have authority to forbid those same things on earth that are forbidden to operate in Heaven. Whatever we permit is what we will have. Whatever we forbid cannot stay.

You can put a "No Trespassing" sign on everything that belongs to you. God has given you power to restrain the devil and demand a seven times restoration of everything that has been stolen by that thief (Proverbs 6:31). Don't let him hang around your house or even leave a package at the door. Just stamp it "Undeliverable!" Lack has to get back. Pain can't remain. Fear must disappear. You rule!

Once you make a quality decision to submit yourself to God and resist the devil, the Bible promises that he will flee from you (James 4:7). However, the opposite is also true. You will never successfully resist the devil until you have totally submitted your life to God. If you are half-hearted in your commitment, the devil will know it. Living on the fence is a very uncomfortable place.

Even if the deceiver has bluffed his way into your life and everything is a mess, you can run him out today. The moment you ask Jesus to come into your heart, you become righteous before God and the power to defeat the devil and all his works becomes available to you. So, not only are all of your sins washed away by the blood of Jesus—never to be remembered against you anymore—but tremendous power becomes available to you as well.

And, because you are righteous, your prayers become more effective. James 5:16 (AMPC) says, “...The earnest (heartfelt, continued) prayer of a righteous man makes tremendous power available [dynamic in its working].” When you boldly pray in faith, people are healed, saved, and delivered from the bondages of sin. The forces of darkness are restrained and God’s will is established in earth, as it is in Heaven. What does that mean? It means that you are anointed to win and impossible to curse! Effective prayer makes tremendous power available to you.

Immeasurable, Unlimited, Surpassing Power

In the book of Ephesians, the apostle Paul prayed this prayer for the Church:

...[so that you can know and understand] what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength,

Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His [own] right hand in the heavenly [places],

Far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named [above every title that can be conferred], not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church...

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together [giving us joint seating with Him] in the heavenly sphere [by virtue of our being] in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Ephesians 1:19-22; 2:6 (AMPC)

Notice that the immeasurable, unlimited, and surpassing power that raised Jesus from the dead is available to every believer. When Jesus was raised, so were you! He has put all things under His feet and placed you right beside Him. His name is above every other name that is named or will ever be named. When you stand on His Word in faith and speak in His name, it is as though Jesus Himself is talking. God’s will is done in earth, as it is in Heaven when we take our rightful position of authority in the earth.

I believe that we are called and equipped by God for this particular time to enforce God’s will and restrain the forces of the devil. The word restrain means “to hold fast or hold back,” and it was used when referring to the power that restrains the antichrist from being revealed. “For the mystery of lawlessness (that hidden principle of rebellion against constituted authority) is already at work in the world, [but it is] restrained only until he who restrains is taken out of the way” (2 Thessalonians 2:7 AMPC).

Many theologians believe that the antichrist cannot be revealed until the Church, the restraining force, is taken out of the way at the return of Jesus. Although many people recognize this as a future fact, they fail to realize that the same power is available to restrain the forces of darkness today. That power should not just lay dormant in our lives.

Our job is clear. Just as God commanded Adam and Eve to take their rightful position of authority and subdue anything that got out of line, the same will be required of us today. We cannot yield to the fear tactics of the devil or be intimidated by his lies. Philippians 1:28 (AMPC) says, “And do not [for a moment] be frightened or intimidated in anything by your opponents and adversaries, for such [constancy and fearlessness] will be a clear sign (proof and seal) to them of [their impending] destruction, but [a sure token and evidence] of your deliverance and salvation, and that from God."

Just before Jesus went to the cross, He gave these encouraging instructions to His disciples. "I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have [perfect] peace and confidence. In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer [take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted]! For I have overcome the world. [I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you]" (John 16:33 AMPC).

Deputized by God

One of my all-time favorite television comedy shows is "The Andy Griffith Show." I loved the episode when Andy's deputy, Barney, wrote a traffic ticket to Gomer, the local gas station attendant, for making an illegal u-turn in the middle of Main Street. In an effort to calm Gomer down, Barney tried to explain that as a deputized officer of the town of Mayberry, he was bound to enforce their laws.

Barney told him, "Even if I wasn't a deputy, and just a regular citizen, it would be my civic responsibility to perform a 'citizen's arrest' upon someone that was breaking the law." After that explanation, Gomer calmed down and took the traffic ticket from the deputy.

At that point, Barney got into his patrol car and made an illegal u-turn right in front of Gomer. With arms flailing in the air, Gomer ran down the street screaming, "Citizen's Arrest! Citizen's Arrest!" Barney had no choice but to stop and allow Gomer to perform his civic responsibility.

Well, as a citizen of the kingdom of God, I know that I have been anointed by God to arrest the devil! He has dispatched me with His message to stop the outlawed tactics of the enemy in the earth. I am deputized!

In the Strong's Dictionary, the word angel means "to dispatch as a deputy; a messenger; specifically, of God, i.e. an angel (also a prophet, priest or teacher)." Once I saw that definition, Psalm 91:11 took on a stronger meaning to me. "For He will give His angels [especial] charge over you to accompany and defend and preserve you in all your ways [of obedience and service]" (AMPC).

Although I know that God can send legions of angels, He can also use whosoever and whatsoever He wants to get His message to me. My responsibility is to be sensitive to and recognize those messengers that God sends my way to preserve me with wisdom from His Word. God did not send an angel to teach me how to apply the blood of Jesus to protect my home—He sent a teacher. Time after time, I have received clear direction that brought specific answers to complex problems while hearing the Word at church. Although thousands may be in the sanctuary, I have often felt that the message from the platform is just for me. When I applied God's Word, I saw the breakthrough that I needed.

Some people are crying out for God to send His angels, when He has already put capable messengers in their path with clear instructions. However, they refuse to hook up with a church or ministry that is preaching the uncompromised Word, so they miss hearing what God is saying through His messengers. Not only that, but many times people fall into the trap of criticizing the one He has sent. This is like static on the radio—the signal is being sent, but something hinders the message from getting through.

Equipped for Battle

Many years ago, I watched an early morning news program that featured a segment on some of the new, high-tech battle equipment of that time that our soldiers would carry into battle. I was fascinated by their night vision equipment, personal global positioning systems, and especially their personal hydration system. This was a small tube connected to a water reservoir stored in the backpack, which allowed the soldier to drink without putting down his or her weapon. It was obvious that the government wanted our soldiers to be the best trained and best equipped as possible before going into battle.

In an even greater way, God has fully equipped His Church with power to restrain the forces of darkness. Although we are in this fleshly body, the weapons that have been issued to us are mighty through God!

Second Corinthians 10:3-5 (AMPC) says, "For though we walk (live) in the flesh, we are not carrying on our warfare according to the flesh and using mere human weapons. For the weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood], but they are mighty before God for the overthrow and destruction of strongholds, [Inasmuch as we] refute arguments and theories and reasonings and every proud and lofty thing that sets itself up against the [true] knowledge of God; and we lead every thought and purpose away captive into the obedience of Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One)."

You can pull down those strongholds of fear, sickness, or lack. God has invested heavily in you and given you everything necessary to live a godly life (2 Peter 1:3-4). However, if you neglect to exert your authority, the forces of darkness will advance. It is your responsibility to take hold of all that has been given to you through the Word of God and put it to work in your life.

In conclusion, be strong in the Lord [be empowered through your union with Him]; draw your strength from Him [that strength which His boundless might provides].

Put on God's whole armor [the armor of a heavy-armed soldier which God supplies], that you may be able successfully to stand up against [all] the strategies and the deceits of the devil.

For we are not wrestling with flesh and blood [contending only with physical opponents], but against the despotisms, against the powers, against [the master spirits who are] the world rulers of this present darkness, against the spirit forces of wickedness in the heavenly (supernatural) sphere.

Therefore put on God's complete armor, that you may be able to resist and stand your ground on the evil day [of danger], and, having done all [the crisis demands], to stand [firmly in your place].

Stand therefore [hold your ground], having tightened the belt of truth around your loins and having put on the breastplate of integrity and of moral rectitude and right standing with God, And having shod your feet in preparation [to face the enemy with the firm-footed stability, the promptness, and the readiness produced by the good news] of the Gospel of peace.

Lift up over all the [covering] shield of saving faith, upon which you can quench all the flaming missiles of the wicked [one].

And take the helmet of salvation and the sword that the Spirit wields, which is the Word of God.

Pray at all times (on every occasion, in every season) in the Spirit, with all [manner of] prayer and entreaty. To that end keep alert and watch with strong purpose and perseverance, interceding in behalf of all the saints (God's consecrated people).

Ephesians 6:10-18 (AMPC)

God has fully equipped you for victory! You have immeasurable and unlimited power to enforce God's will on the earth and successfully stand against the strategies of the devil. Use the restraining power that Jesus has purchased with His blood and forbid the forces of darkness from operating in your life. Go ahead, use the power of prayer and arrest the devil! 🌐

The above article is from Cathy's new book,
The Power of Prayer.

Jesus Came to Give YOU VICTORY!

Jesus loves you, and He came to save you and lift you out of darkness and into His marvelous light. He wants you to have intimate, direct communication with Him that will equip you for victory in every area of your life.

If you don't know Jesus, or if you just aren't where you should be and you need the Lord to rekindle the flame of His love and power in your heart, I would like to lead you through a simple prayer that will supernaturally change you from the inside out. All you have to do is open up your heart to Him, and all of God's amazing promises are yours.

Romans 10:9-10 says that if you believe with your heart and confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, you will be saved. If you're ready, pray this prayer with me now:

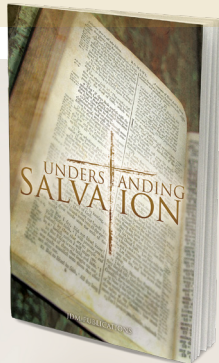

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You died and rose from the dead for me.

Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. In Your name I pray. Amen.

If you just prayed this prayer and received Jesus, would you let us know? You can go online to JDM.org (click on "Do You Know Jesus?") or use the response/order form included in the center of this magazine. Jesse and I want to rejoice with you and send you our free Understanding Salvation booklet to help you begin your new life in Christ. We want you to know that you are deeply loved, and we are praying for you to live a victorious life that radiates the love and power of God every day. Seek Him daily, honor His Word, and devote yourself to a life of prayer. We're expecting God's unlimited power to move in your life in every way!

God Bless You,
Cathy Duplantis

SUITED FOR SUCCESS

While societies in the world today are driven by the desire for success, many Christians seeking success in their own lives are not well received. But the TRUTH about God's view of success is revealed throughout the Bible. His will is and always has been for all of His children to thrive, prosper, and achieve everything in their lives that He's called them to do.

THE QUESTION OF FAILURE

YOU DON'T HAVE TO FAIL IN LIFE!

As a born-again believer, Jesus has given you not only eternal life in Heaven to look forward to, but also a purpose-filled and victorious life to enjoy right here on earth. So, why fail when God has already provided your victory?

In the Bible, you read how Jesus' disciples experienced failure during their walk with the Lord. He'd given them the authority to cast out demons and cure diseases, yet they were unable to heal a boy with an unclean spirit. After Jesus took matters into His own hands and delivered the boy, the disciples were perplexed and confused. They asked the Lord why they weren't able to perform the miracle themselves? Jesus was clear in His correction. He answered, "...Because of your unbelief..." (Matthew 17:20).

Jesse is on fire as he teaches from scripture and unpacks the answers to what could be hindering the power of God from working in your life. Build up mountain-moving faith and keep it ready for the miraculous as you understand how:

- Weak faith is unable to meet the demands that are made upon it
- Prayer is an acknowledgement of dependence on God
- The failure of God's people is no evidence of the weakness of our Lord
- Christ is the only unchanging source of the believer's comfort

Jesus wants you to achieve every dream, goal, and vision that He's placed on your heart. He gave you His Holy Spirit and the measure of faith to overcome any obstacle that would try to come against His good plans for you. In this message, you'll learn how to focus your faith in the divine power of God when the strains of life come, and kick failure to the curb once and for all!

VISIONARY TESTIMONIES

"You have to come to the Visionary Conference this year! The revelation that is given and the power, presence, and anointing that God imparts to you when you are here is hard to be put into words. It is POWERFUL!"

"God moves in the presence of His people, and with the atmosphere created at these Visionary Conferences, you can feel God's tangible anointing. You receive from the Lord in an even greater way than while watching online. When you are here at the conference, it's just next level!"

"My husband and I knew we had to be at the Visionary Conference because we knew that God had something for us. We wanted everything He planned for us! The Lord does something special for us every single year we attend. We meet great people while recharging our vision, and have met lifelong friends while here. Every year, it's like a big reunion!"

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

I always get so stirred up when I read the glorious moments that are sent to our ministry by so many precious people from all over the world! The New Living Translation of Psalm 72:19 declares what I feel in my heart as I share them with you now: “Praise His glorious name forever! Let the whole earth be filled with His glory. Amen and amen!”

Jesse and I are so thankful to our wonderful Covenant Partners that faithfully give generously to help people all over the world hear the Good News of Jesus. We know that the work God has called us to accomplish takes a team effort and that, together, we can do so much more to impact the lives of others. Together, we can produce television broadcasts, magazines, products, and evangelistic meetings to rescue the lost, heal the sick, and deliver those that are oppressed by the enemy.

Rejoice with me as you read these amazing testimonies from people, just like you, whose lives have been reached and changed through Jesse Duplantis Ministries. Go ahead and take a glorious moment to give a great big shout of thanksgiving to God, because HE is worthy! Let's all praise His glorious name forever until the whole earth is filled with His glory!

We remember when you both came to our church in Gosford, NSW Australia many years back. How you blessed us with your humble spirit and the way you honored the local church was inspiring. God bless you both.

Your preaching is fantastic. I enjoy it thoroughly because you bring the points so clearly for listeners to enjoy and be blessed. Blessings to you, Cathy, and the ministry, from Papua New Guinea.

What a great time in the presence of the Lord, just soaking into Cathy's "Come and Drink" message. The enemy can't handle the Jesus that is in me! I'm drunk with the Holy Ghost. I have really been getting nourished whenever I listen to JDM, and now the Lord has amazed me with His goodness. I remember moments just soaking in Glorious Moments with Cathy, enjoying the presence of the Lord before I sleep. It's been a nourishing journey with JDM while I keep myself stirred up. Amen!

We just wanted to testify about sowing into Jesse Duplantis Ministries. We started our church in Johannesburg, South Africa in 2020, just before Covid started. We continued to do meetings online and in person. In 2021, we did a Pentecost service and sowed our first R10000 seed into this ministry. The very next day, a R100000 seed came in. That was the first time seeing this kind of increase. We have built a church in the space of 3 years of being open, on a double stand property. Every time we have sown, we have seen double increase.

Brother Jesse, your sermon made me cry because I know it is God Himself speaking and telling me not to settle. I used to dream big, but, not seeing results, I had settled. There is something inside me that says there will be great things in my future; better than what I live now. Thank you for the faith you are creating in me.

This praise report has been translated into English for you to rejoice with us.

I really appreciate communications with you, my family in Christ Jesus, knowing that you are also praying for me and my loved ones. We are so blessed to be one of your Partners from the Philippines. While believing for my prayer requests during the start of year 2024 with your theme, "Give God a Job", I am happy to share with you the tsunami of blessings God gave me since I started partnering with your ministry in June 2023. During the pandemic, monthly partial releases of our salaries had been delayed for months. Starting the last quarter of 2023, the delays had been reduced. At the beginning of 2024, our partial salary releases were released on time. I am believing for full monthly salary releases and that the accumulated unreleased portion of our salaries (since the pandemic started) will be released also. By God's grace, starting January 2024, I was granted a salary increase of almost 50% of my monthly pay. Praise God! This is a big miracle, considering the financial situation of the group of companies I am working with, which are yet to fully recover after they were severely affected by the pandemic. In spite of the companies' present financial situation, I will have a nice brand-new car to replace my 6-year-old one. God is so good and gracious to His children. Thank you, Lord Jesus. Also, the results of my recent lung CT scan showed diminution of the pulmonary mass seen in my previous CT scan 5 months ago. I believe God continually heals me and eliminates all my health issues, in Jesus' mighty name. God's Word heals with our faith and trust in Him (1 Peter 2:24—by the stripes of Jesus, I am healed). Hallelujah! Also, the Chairman of the Board of the group of companies I am working with just informed me that I am the new Director and Treasurer of the group. Praise God! Thank you, Lord Jesus, and thank you so much for your constant prayers for me and all my loved ones.

We have been joining Covenant Church online every Sunday since 2012. We live in Vancouver, BC Canada. Every teaching has always brought us great encouragement and practical steps we can apply in our lives. We live debt-free as a result of Jesse explaining that we can do so.

Hello, from Melbourne, Australia! I've been a Partner for over 20 years and I am so blessed. You both continue to inspire me to advance in my faith, and I believe 2025 is my year to thrive! Thank you for staying true to your calling and vision. God bless you.

I want to thank Brother Jesse for bringing his "Why Isn't My Giving Working?" message to my understanding. I listened to the message and read the booklet, and when I completed it, I made a commitment that I will be debt free, in the name of Jesus, by the time I turn 40 (that was going to be less than 5 years away). So, I started sowing into JDM and naming them seed, firstfruits, and so on, as I was blessed with increase in my business. At this point in my farming business, I was making a loan every year to keep my equipment updated. It seemed as soon as I paid one off, I needed to update another piece of equipment and was not able to save enough to pay it off! As the years progressed, I started to pay down my debts on the many pieces of machinery, but I had to make a new loan for the new machinery that I purchased. My wife reminded me that my trend didn't look good, but I reminded her that I had made a covenant with the Lord and that I was going to be debt free! Well, let me tell you this: the week I turned 40, I went to the bank with a check to pay off my last loan! Glory to God! Not only that; I also had as much already put away in savings to purchase a new piece of machinery, which is the largest machinery I ever purchased since doing business. To this day, I'm debt free in my business! Glory Hallelujah! God is not too early and He's not too late—He is right on time!

I am so thankful that Jesse answered the call of the Lord to minister to the multitudes, because the Word he shares comes from the heart of God. The Word makes me laugh, cry, be convicted, deeply inspired, and encouraged all at the same time. It takes an anointing to do all that, and our Heavenly Father has done just that so beautifully through Jesse. Talk about teaching love for God! Wow! I want to love God like that, too!

Mr. Jesse, we thank God for you. You hit that sermon "We Are Americans" out the ballpark! Amen! I'm so very thankful to God that our generals of the faith have lived out a lot of stuff and have the wisdom that comes from God. Non-scripted sermons come from the heart of God, and I believe this sermon was one of those great-cloud-of-witnesses-watched type of sermons. I'm thankful God's evangelists bring deliverance to people and set the captives free. They bring healing, too.

Don't Let Time Defeat You

It's amazing to me how many Christians don't see their dreams or visions for their lives come to pass. Most of the time it's not because of a lack of faith or an abundance of unbelief. They are defeated by a four-letter word called TIME. Time is one of the greatest tactics the devil uses to defeat the children of God. When you're believing the impossible, Satan will use time to try to get your focus off of your vision.

I say it all the time. If you want to see God manifest what you're believing Him for, never let time defeat you. If this has happened to you in the past, I want to encourage you that you are not alone. The enemy used time to attack great men and women of faith in the Bible, too. For instance, let's talk about John the Baptist. In the Gospel of Luke, chapter 7, you will see how the enemy used time to try to derail John off of God's vision for his life.

Now at this point, King Herod Antipas had John the Baptist arrested and imprisoned after John had condemned the king's marriage to his wife, Herodias. Because Herodias was previously married to Herod's brother, he deemed it as illegal. John didn't just rebuke their marriage once, but several times. As a result, Herodias had a hate-filled grudge against John and wanted revenge. She had her daughter provocatively dance before her husband, Herod, to win his favor and manipulate him to execute John. John was more than nervous and sent some of his disciples to question Jesus. Let's pick the story up in Luke 7:19-23:

And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou He that should come? or look we for another?

When the men were come unto Him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto Thee, saying, Art Thou He that should come? or look we for another?

And in that same hour He cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind He gave sight.

Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

And blessed is he, whosever shall not be offended in Me.

Notice how John's faith wavered when he asked Jesus about His identity. While he was in prison and facing terrible circumstances (his impending beheading), John thought Jesus wasn't acting fast enough. That's when John allowed time to pressure him—this is what I call bending to the pressure of time. Even though John witnessed the Holy Spirit come upon Jesus with his own eyes, and he heard with his own ears the Father say, "This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17), time got to him. He bent to the pressure of time when he questioned if Jesus really was "the One."

Let's be honest here. At some point, we've all been tempted to wonder, Is God ever going to do what He promised me? What about you? Do you think God's not working fast enough in your life? Listen, we are all human here, and who doesn't want it yesterday? When it comes to your dream or vision, are you tempted to doubt if it will ever come to pass?

I want you to look at the last thing Jesus said to John's messengers before they left. In verse 23, Jesus said to tell John, "...blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in Me." You see, John was offended in the Lord. John's message to Jesus was basically, "Hey, Jesus, one of these guys in here is going to cut my head off! I'm in trouble. Are you the One? Or is somebody else coming?" Criticism was kicking up in John right there because the time factor was working on him.

When it comes to time, I've made up my mind that I want the first part of Luke 7:23. I want to be "blessed," and I know you do, too. And we do that by not offending God in some sort of physical way or somewhere in our thinking.

While we are on our way to completing our vision, we must know that God will do what He says and never question His timing.

Triumph in Conflict & Safe in the Calm

When you really understand time, you will not only be triumphant in the midst of conflict, but you'll be safe in the calm that succeeds it. Think about it. Whenever there is conflict, there will always come a calm. That calm is for you, not for the devil, and it's a calm where you can rest yourself and restore the things you need in order to keep moving forward. Remember what Ecclesiastes 3:1 says: "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven." Throughout my faith walk with God, I've learned that if I don't get something immediately, it's because there is a season and a time. But no matter how long God is working things out for me, in the end, it will come!

I've been walking with God since 1974, and there have been many things I've believed for that didn't come quickly. When I received one of the most impossible things God promised me—a jet to preach the Gospel—it took years for it to manifest in my ministry. Yes, I received God's vision for that plane the moment He spoke it to me, but it took many years for it to come to me in the physical realm. Whatever you're believing for, whether it comes quickly or it takes longer than you imagined, it doesn't make any difference. You are going to get

Don't mix faith and time.
While we are on our way to completing our vision, we must know that God will do what He says and never question
His timing.

what the Lord said you could have. Time doesn't really have anything to do with it.

Human Nature & Fainting Not

When you move toward seeing your vision come to pass, it may seem difficult. One thing about human nature is that it has great faith in doubt and unbelief. Referring back to John the Baptist, he was a great man of faith and courage. Jesus had nothing but praise for him. In fact, after Jesus sent John's messengers back, Jesus began exhorting John to the crowds. Yet, just before that, John's human nature kicked in. He let time get the better of him and he doubted Jesus' identity at that point in God's divine plan.

But, throughout His ministry, Jesus showed us how to crucify the flesh and walk by the Spirit. That was even before He went to the cross! He never allowed the pressure of time cause Him to lose His focus on His mission for us. When He went to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray before He was crucified, Jesus knew the impending torture that He was facing. He prayed and said, "Father, if Thou be willing, remove this cup from Me: nevertheless not My will, but Thine, be done" (Luke 22:42).

Jesus was steadfast to complete His vision for you and me, and He submitted to the Father's will and timing. He "fainted not" during the most excruciating time of His life when He was facing the cross. The result? He trusted the Father and completed the vision He had for the world. He made the way to save us!

For you to fulfill everything that God has for your life, you need to have what Jesus had: concentration. Hebrews 10:23 says, "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for He is faithful that promised.)" God is faithful! But what could tempt you to waver under difficult circumstances? TIME. Follow Jesus' example and concentrate on your goal. If you do that, time will not defeat you.

Someone once said to me, "Well, Brother Jesse, your vision hasn't come to pass yet. So, what are you doing?" I said, "I'm holding fast." See, somebody will always try to get you to accept defeat. Just refuse to do it. Like I said before, just concentrate on your vision and don't let time defeat you.

People are always asking me how I've been able to complete the visions God has given me for my life and ministry. I say, "I don't mix my faith with time." See, it doesn't matter to me how long it takes. I'm determined to "faint not" (Galatians 6:9). And I stand on Isaiah 40:31 which says, "But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

There's something about fainting when you've been waiting on the Lord for something. You have nothing to fall back on. But when you pray, you always have God to fall back on.

If you're ever on the verge of fainting in your vision, my advice to you is to read the Word and pray!

Prayer is powerful and God honors it. A while back, the devil was trying to attack my thoughts about something I was believing God for. I knew he was trying to get me to give up. I said, "Devil, since you want to talk to me so much, I'm going to talk louder to God." Then, I started concentrating, confessing the Word, and praying out loud. At some point, I couldn't hear a word that idiot was saying. Always remember that prayer and speaking the Word out of your mouth is a powerful way to win the battle over TIME.

The Power of Self-Command & Humility

For you to succeed and not fail while on your journey to achieve your God-given vision, it's important for you to develop the power of self-command. You must learn to control yourself in every way possible. When you learn to conquer yourself and remain in faith, things start getting a lot easier.

You see, your success or failure lies in your soul, which is your mind, will, and emotions. Are you controlling your thought life? Romans 12:2 says, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind..." God's Word is where you renew your mind. That's how you get your thoughts, desires, and determinations to stay in line with God. That is also how you develop the power of self-command. I can't emphasize this enough. God wants to do the impossible, but it's up to you to remain in faith.

Listen, "waiting" is not a bad word. It means that you are on God's timeline. During the process of moving toward your vision, God never intends to humiliate you during the wait. He's doing a great work in your life. The waiting period doesn't have to be a stumbling block—it can be a stepping stone that will lead you to the fullness of God in every area of your life.

Just look at the time that Joseph was in prison. He was locked up for something he hadn't even done, yet he didn't stumble. While he was in there, God was working on Joseph. The Lord wanted to use him in a great way, but Joseph still had to obey God every step of the way. It wasn't until God completed the work in Joseph that he saw his vision realized. He went from being a prisoner to the governor of Egypt. And because he had been promoted by Pharaoh to that position, Joseph saved his own family and Egypt from famine.

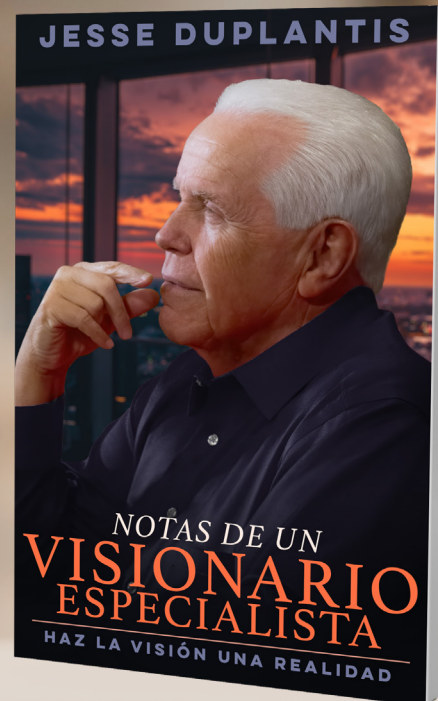

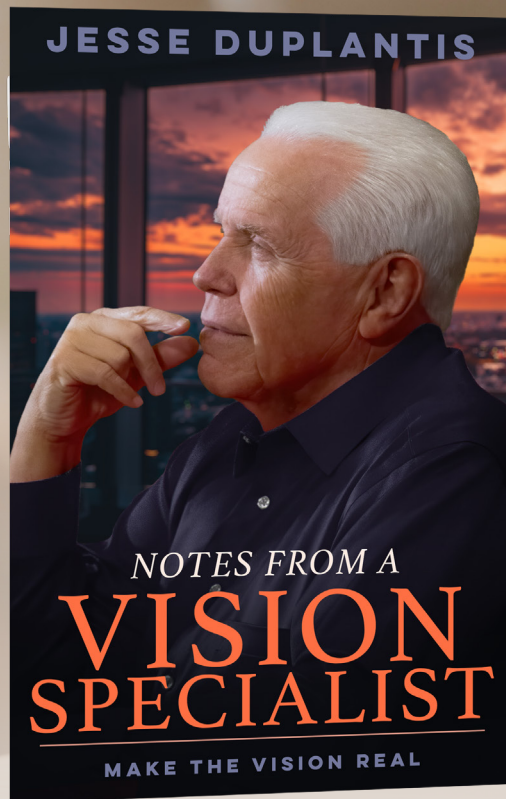

God's vision for Joseph didn't happen overnight, but at the appointed time, it came to pass.

No matter how long it takes, I want to remind you that God is with you and time is on your side. God didn't give you a vision just to give you hope. He knew from the beginning that you would complete your vision and reach your destination.

Whether your vision is spiritual, physical, relational, or financial, God has established the perfect moment to bring it to pass. So, don't mix your faith with time—God wants to do the impossible for you! 🌐
