THE ANGEL AND THE STONE: Turning Problems into Pulpits

JESSE DUPLANTIS

I was on a plane flying to a meeting one day when I got a revelation just reading about an angel in the Word. There I was, just reading Matthew's account of Jesus' resurrection, and all of a sudden, I saw the most astounding thing. It was something I'd missed every time I'd read that old, familiar scripture. Yet there it was in black and white. In addition to redemption from sin, Satan, death, hell, and the grave, the Lord suddenly painted me a clear picture of how I could be redeemed from my own problems right then and there—by acting just like the angel at the empty tomb.

God showed me that what that angel did was turn a problem into a pulpit. In that one miraculous story, it suddenly dawned on me that what that angel did was an open display of Satan's defeat . . . and it was an example of what I, and every other believer, could do when confronted with problems in life, too.

Now, I've learned to never elevate the problems over the promises. I've learned to put what God did above anything the devil did or is doing in my life. I believe and preach that no matter how large a problem is, there's no reason to mentally make them into "stones" that we can't move because nothing is impossible with God! The crucifixion, death, and victorious resurrection of Jesus Christ show us that. His victory over hell, death, and the grave was the most life-changing event that has ever happened.

Just thinking about that empty tomb gets me excited! Every time I read through Matthew and get to the part where those women go to the tomb to lay spices on Jesus' body and find the stone rolled away, I want to shout, "He's risen!" at the top of my lungs. You see, Jesus didn't stay on the cross, and the devil couldn't keep Him in the tomb. He beat Satan and all his works—all the works he and his demon fallen angels do—in three days. I want you to read this passage about the empty tomb and let it paint a picture for you:

Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to look at the grave.

And behold, a severe earthquake had occurred, for an angel of the Lord descended from Heaven and came and rolled away the stone and sat upon it.

And his appearance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow.

The guards shook for fear of him and became like dead men.

The angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid; for I know that you are looking for Jesus who has been crucified.

'He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said. Come, see the place where He was lying.

*'Go quickly and tell His disciples that
He has risen from the dead; and behold,
He is going ahead of you into Galilee, there you will see Him; behold, I have told you.'*

Matthew 28:1-7 NASB1995

That day, as I was sitting on the plane reading this passage, the Spirit of God spoke to me and said, "Jesse, My angel sat upon the obstruction that was holding Jesus in the tomb." I unbuckled my seat belt and jumped up shouting, "The angel sat on the stone!" A man across the aisle looked at me real strange. "Hey!" I said to him, "The angel sat on the stone!" He just said, "Okay . . ." like he didn't want to talk, hahaha. "Look here," I said, pointing at the scripture, "the devil tried to hold Jesus in the grave, but God sent an angel to knock the stone away. It caused an earthquake, and then the angel sat on the stone!"

I danced a little charismatic hop. That man thought I was crazy. But it had dawned on me that if the angel of the Lord sat on the problem, that's exactly what I should do. If the angel of the Lord used that obstruction as a place to kick back and proclaim the Good News, then that's what you and I are supposed to do, too! We need to realize that what Satan used to hold Jesus in is what was used by that angel to proclaim that Jesus was out. Hallelujah! I get excited just thinking about it today.

Do you see it? Do you have a picture of it in your mind, like I did? I hope you do, because this little revelation really changed things for me. What is amazing to me is that the devil had guards around the tomb. They were guarding a dead man! When was the last time you saw that happen? Well, if you've got even a small part of the power of God, the devil is afraid of you. When God blew Jesus out of the tomb, those devils bit the dust, and so did the guards!

Everybody has problems. The devil makes sure that all of us have a stone or two. There's nothing unique or new about that. But, sadly, instead of rolling the stone away and using it as a place to sit and testify, many people canonize their stone. They try to make it holy. "Would you like to see my tumor?" they ask as they begin to compare the size of theirs with others.

Satan has marked and branded many of the Body of Christ today. We can all see that plainly. But Jesus never said that we were supposed to bear the marks of Satan. He told us that we are to bear the marks of a Christian (Galatians 6:17 NKJV). And the marks of a Christian are not sickness, disease, lack, or misery. Those things are from Satan, designed to keep us entombed and forever bound.

Today you may be looking at a big obstacle blocking your way. If you are, it is time you quit crying and start doing something about it. Weeping at the foot of the obstacle won't move it an inch. Talking about how bad it is won't roll it away any quicker. There is no reason why you have to stay bound by a stone carved in hell. You can use the Word of God to roll that stone away!

The Word is powerful enough to miraculously move that stone. All you've got to do is believe it. And once you do, then you can park yourself on top of what was designed to hold you back and begin to proclaim your freedom in Jesus. Just like in the Bible, you can sit on what the devil meant to hold you in with and proclaim that you are now out. Glory!

Remember, you can't have a testimony until you have a test. So, shout! You've got an opportunity to use your faith and trample on the devil. I want you to know something. Jesus said He was coming for a Church without spot or wrinkle—and that only happens when we are saved and washed through His blood, because on our own we cannot wash away iniquity. The more we lean on the blood and the less we give in to the temptation of the devil to stay stuck in the "tomb" of our problem, the more we can live free.

Freedom starts in the heart with the acceptance of Jesus Christ, but it continues in the way we live our life. Are we going to have faith or are we going to live in doubt? Are we going to use the Word or are we going to accept everything Satan does as just "part of life"? No! In Christ we have the power to not only overcome, but to also make an open display of Satan's defeat by making every problem a pulpit of sorts—we do not have to stay stuck when Jesus died to set us free.

It's time for us to learn to sit on our problems.

It's time to sit on that alcohol or drug habit instead of partaking in it. Spend time with God and let His glory come out of your inner man like lightning. It'll consume that thing. The stone that covered the opening of Jesus' tomb was Satan's attempt to throw an obstacle in God's path. What should you do with the obstacle that Satan puts in the way of your miracle? Climb up on it and use it as a pulpit to proclaim the Gospel.

What should you do with the obstacle that Satan puts in the way of your miracle? Climb up on it and use it as a pulpit to proclaim the Gospel.

Have you got a problem? Then, bless God, you've got a pulpit! If you've got cancer, climb up on that thing and declare the Gospel: "Jesus took my infirmity. He bore my sickness. And by the stripes on His back, I am healed!" (Isaiah 53:4-5). Turn the tables on the devil. Take the thing he meant to use to destroy you and turn it to glorify God.

Do you remember what the scripture says the prince of this world, the devil, thought of after Jesus was crucified and he'd realized what he'd done? First Corinthians 2:8 (NKJV) says, "Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory." Had the devil known, he would have never killed Jesus! When you start beating the devil at every turn, he'll start saying the same thing about YOU!

You can beat the devil up so much that you get to the place where he says, "Man, if I would have only known, I wouldn't have put that cancer on him. Now look at him! He's telling everybody how he got healed." Or maybe he will say, "Man, if I would have only known, I wouldn't have tried to destroy her marriage because, look! Now she's telling everyone how Jesus healed her marriage." You've got to believe it and climb up on that stone with gusto. That's the way to overcome!

Give me a problem and I'll have a pulpit. I love to confuse the devil. I've learned to inject thoughts into his mind. It knocks his socks off. Why would I do that? Why would I encourage you to do the same? Well, he throws thoughts into your mind often enough, doesn't he? Don't you think it's time you threw a few into his?! The Bible gives us instructions on how to combat thoughts that don't line up with the Word.

The Bible tells us in 2 Corinthians 10:5 to bring every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. And if we don't want the devil to get a foothold in our lives, then it is critical that we do that. But I've learned how to really irritate the devil. When he throws a thought into my mind, I don't care if I'm standing in a crowd, I'm going to deliberately think a faith thought. And he knows what I'm doing because I let him know! "I'm going to preach the Word of God and get everybody saved!" First, I think it, and then I say it!

I know how to irritate the devil. My radar is up, and if he's anywhere near, I'll know it. The devil will be afraid for me to get up tomorrow morning. He doesn't know what I'm going to do. I'll get up in the morning and put a "behold" on myself. I'll say what 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold [Jesse], all things are become new."

"Oh yeah, Brother Jesse, but my problem is so hard. I can't just say something and make it go away. I'm fat. I can't help it. My Mama's fat. My Uncle Fred is fat. My Uncle Fred's dog is fat. We're all just fat!"

Have you ever taken the time to stop and realize that your body was made by the Lord and He can help you to overcome any obstacle that's weighing it down? I know food has a voice. It does! And it'll talk to you if you'll listen. Food has talked to me many times. Once, when I was at lunch with someone who ordered chocolate mousse for dessert, it seemed to know my name. "Pssst, Jesse! Reach your spoon over here."

Now at the time, I was watching what I was eating when that chocolate started talking to me. I'd already decided that I was working on something with my body. Today, I have no problem with any food. I eat whatever I want, just less of it. But back then, when the chocolate came, I was learning self-control and was on a specific diet. I was buffeting my flesh, so to speak.

So, what did I do when the chocolate wouldn't shut up? I rebuked that thing in the name of Jesus, resisted that temptation—and soon, guess what? The devil fled! Hahaha, that's a joke, but I'm telling you, if you struggle with food like I did for years, sometimes you have to tell food to "Shut up!" What good will that do? It will cause you to climb upon that obstacle—it will help you see yourself as in authority over your own body, and not the other way around.

Sometimes you have to roll the stone away and sit on it, and proclaim that you have the victory over what has been trying to keep you down, and maybe even hidden for years. Whatever your struggle, whatever your problem, don't elevate it. No matter how large they may appear, don't make them out to be stones you can't move—because you can. From big to little things, you are more than a conqueror through Christ Jesus (Romans 8:37). And those stones have got to move by the power of His name!

"But, Brother Jesse, I can't stop drinking."

Yes, you can.

"But, Brother Jesse, I can't lose this weight."

Yes, you can.

"But, Brother Jesse, I can't quit committing fornication."

Yes, you can.

"But how?"

Sit on them! Get up on that obstacle and start proclaiming your victory in faith. And then, when the devil tries to get you to doubt God's Word is true, doubt it! Quit lying to yourself! When you say, "Oh, I can't," you are elevating the obstacle instead of sitting on it. You may not want to quit, but you can quit. You may not want to quit drinking, but you can. You might not want to treat your body like a temple instead of a trashcan, but you can. It is all a decision. You choose what you are going to do. Nobody but you!

That may be hard to hear, but it's the truth. And if you'll take your mind off that trash and fill it with the Spirit of the living God, you will roll that stone away. And once you do, you'll find that you can't help but sit on it and proclaim what the Lord has done in you.

I agree with what I once heard Charles Capps say, "Doubt your doubts!"

I was flying on a little commuter plane one time and the woman next to me started sneezing. "It looks as if you've got a cold." I said.

"Yeah."

"Do you believe in healing?"

"Uh, well, our pastor talks about it."

"Okay," I said, "bow your head."

"Here?"

"Well, do you want to cough all the way and spread those germs all over everybody, or do you want a healing?"

"Uh . . . well . . ."

"Don't worry," I said, "people will get quiet."

Then I turned around and announced, "Y'all calm down! We're gonna pray for this woman's healing!"

I laid my hands on her shoulder and prayed, "Father, in Jesus' name, I rebuke the virus that's trying to invade her body. We invade her body with Holy Ghost cells of power, dominion, and authority!" A guy who was drinking nearby went, "Whoa!" But that woman needed some help doubting her doubts. I just used her obstacle as a pulpit to proclaim God's goodness.

I was in an airport another time when I saw a man having a fit of carnality over the hot dog machine. He put his money in the machine, but he didn't get the hot dog. He started screaming, cussing, and punching the machine.

"Give me my hot dog!"

Bam! Bam! He started hitting the glass. I thought it was pretty stupid, and I figured what he really needed to do was sit on his problem. So, I strolled over.

"What's the matter, Sir?"

He called the machine a few choice words before he said, "It won't give me my hot dog!"

"Well, did you pray for it?"

He looked at me like I was insane.

"I'm gonna pray for this machine to give you your hot dog." I said. You can laugh if you want to, but that man needed Jesus! Anybody cussing and punching a vending machine in the airport needs God! I felt like an idiot as I laid my hands on that machine.

The devil started harassing me with doubting thoughts, Suppose the weenie don't come out? I grabbed the machine. "Devil," I commanded, "turn loose of that weenie! Turn loose of the thing in the name of Jesus!" Plop! The hot dog fell out, just like that. A hippie dude walked over to me. "Say, brother, can you get me one?"

"No, he paid for his. You have to pay for yours." I should have prayed for chili and mustard on it, too. That would have been a miracle! Still, I just used that machine as a pulpit to proclaim the Good News of the Gospel.

If you will move off the humorous side of the situation, you will see there are people entombed with terrible problems and they are trying to get out. You need to knock the stone down, sit on it, and set them free.

Some Christians like to erect stones. They enjoy rolling the stone in front of the tomb. Peering at the door of the tomb, they say, “Is he in there? Don’t let that joker out, God’s gonna get him!” Let me tell you something, God’s not trying to “get” anyone. If He were, we’d all be dead by now.

Let go of the status quo mindset of dead religion and realize that you serve a God Who can do the impossible. Start walking in the light of His glory. Realize that Jesus is alive, and the holy angels of God are all across this earth looking to help people who have the guts and tenacity to believe God. Do you know what will happen when you do? Jesus will move the stones holding you in. Quit being distracted by the lies of the enemy and the foolishness of fear—start just believing what the Word of God has to say. His Words minister life to you. They will lift you up and refresh your spirit. God will open your eyes to things you never even recognized before.

Millions of good Christian people are struggling with the feeling of finality in their own individual tombs—they feel helpless, as if a stone has shut them in forever. But Jesus came to set all of us free. He rose so that we can rise up in life and not be bound by the devil and all the problems he tries to kill us with.

We weren’t saved just so we can live miserably. We weren’t given the victory so we could stay defeated in our heart, our mind, and our life. We weren’t made free just to fall in a rut! We’ve been made free through Jesus to get out of what’s holding us back in our heart and in our mind. The stone has been rolled away; now it’s time we see our freedom and plant ourselves on that stone that is trying to hold us back.

Satan would try to deceive you, maybe even send well-meaning people to tell you it’s only natural that you stay in the tomb. He’s a liar and the father of all lies. Satan would try to roll the stone back once you begin walking in freedom—and tell you that you’re too weak to stay out of what once held you back. Again, he’s a deceiver and a liar.

Don’t let the devil convince you of what God can’t do in your life. He’s a defeated foe, but he still roams this earth like a lion, looking for whom he may devour (1 Peter 5:8). He isn’t a lion though; he’s just roaring like one. Realize that greater is He Who is in you than he that is in the world, and put that problem in its place—under your seated body! It’s time to sit on the problem.

You know, this world is getting sicker and more twisted by the minute. Things we once thought were evil are now rubberstamped as natural and even normal. We’ve normalized stones. I believe we are barreling toward the end of this age and Jesus is coming! Many are falling away from the faith, and the Bible said that would happen. In this world, right is wrong, and we’re persecuted for believing in Jesus. This is no time to play games with the devil. It’s time to stand up for what we believe—and not just to the outside world, but to ourselves.

It’s time to grow up, knock those stones down, and sit on them. When people talk about power but produce weakness, I can nearly guarantee that in their everyday thoughts, they are consistently either elevating the stones or ignoring the stones—they may even make excuses for the stones and call them good. It’s crazy what people will do to keep their stones in place when they don’t want to let go, but there is freedom in letting go and moving on.

People who are “more than conquerors” don’t look at the size of the stone; they grind the stone to powder and hurl the dust ball back at the forces of evil! That may be a strange example, but in spiritual terms, it’s the truth. In Luke 20:18, Jesus said, “Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.”

I’ve learned to grind the devil to powder and blow his dust away. And I’ve been against some of the biggest stones you’ve ever seen. The devil has tried to kill me many times. But the Bible says that with long life He will satisfy me (Psalm 91:16), so I don’t listen when my mind tries to get me to doubt. I don’t put the power of Satan or his angels (or any problem he throws) above the One Who sent that angel to roll the stone away.

As long as there is a sinner in this world, there should be a pulpit. Our testimonies of what God has done in our life are the perfect pulpit to not just share Jesus, but also show what Jesus can do in someone’s life. The harvesters are headed our way—time is speeding up and we don’t have time to placate our flesh, dabble with the devil, or let go of our belief in the present power of Jesus Christ.

As long as we have breath in our body and as long as the world is still in need of His salvation, we should be sitting on those stones proclaiming that He is risen! Like those women at the tomb so long ago, we should be looking to tell somebody that Jesus is alive, and He's alive in us! So, let that angel at the empty tomb be an inspiration to you, like it was to me. Because your life matters to everyone you interact with—you are a walking testament to God's love, grace, and power, and others need to see it.

Conquer what's holding you back. Roll the stones away from the tombs in your life and act just like that angel sitting on the stone that was rolled away—because you can use every obstacle as a pulpit to proclaim and show that Jesus is alive and victorious in you. 🌐

The above article is from Jesse's book,
The Hidden Help.

Jesus Wants to Roll the Stones in Your Life Away

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

(John 3:16)

Are the tombs of life holding you back? Jesus wants to roll the stones away for you. Let me ask you, have you met my Jesus? Wherever you are right now, no matter what your situation, God loves you and will meet you right where you are. Just open your heart up to Him today and be sincere. He will hear your prayer, loose the chains of sin off of your life, and set you free by the blood of His precious Son, Jesus.

If you've never prayed a prayer of salvation, or if you just need to come back home to God where you belong, would you take a moment and pray with me today? This prayer below is a guide, but feel free to talk to God from your heart. If you are ready to start new with a clean slate, pray this with me now:

God, thank You for loving me enough to send Your Son for my sins. I believe that You are my God, my Maker, and my Father. I accept Your plan of salvation through the death and resurrection of Jesus. Like all, I know I've sinned and fallen short, and I need help. Jesus, come into my life right now. Wash my sins away and create a clean, new heart in me. Thank You for paying the price for me on the cross.

From this point on, I will seek Your will and ways for my life. I will talk to You every day and make Your Word the light that guides my life. I know Your favor will surround me, Your blessings will follow me all the days of my life, and Heaven will be my eternal home. Thank You for loving me enough to give Yourself, and for continuing to help me in every area of my life as I turn to You each day.

If you have prayed this prayer, congratulations! You are in the family of God. I'm your brother in the faith now, along with millions of others all around the world who have accepted God's plan of salvation. Isn't that amazing?

It's important that you let someone know of your decision to follow Jesus, and I would love to hear from you. I want to rejoice with you and also send you a free booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you in your new walk with Christ. You can contact me online at JDM.org or use the envelope/order form included in the center of this magazine. All of Heaven is celebrating with you—you are now a walking testament to God's love, grace, and power! Know today that you are loved, you are never a day without prayer, and that your life will never be the same, in Jesus' name. May God show Himself strong on your behalf, rolling every stone away, and may you continue to grow in your relationship with Him!

VISIONARY TESTIMONIES

Jesse Duplantis' Visionary Conference is always the place to push our faith to the next level! I love spending time with my husband and growing together!

Watching the Visionary Conference with my 2-week-old baby girl since I couldn't be there in person this year. We are just thanking God for the provision and for our visions coming to pass. So thankful for this ministry and for lives being changed!

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

Easter is a wonderful opportunity to tell the world about the glorious moment when Jesus rose from the dead. Jesse and I are so thankful to God for our Partners that help us send this life-changing message around the world: "...Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: He is risen; He is not here: behold the place where they laid Him" (Mark 16:6). His glorious resurrection destroyed the works of the devil, gave us all power over all the power of the enemy, and granted abundant, overflowing life to all that will believe and receive it (Luke 10:19; John 10:10).

As you will see from the amazing testimonies in this month's free issue of Voice of the Covenant magazine, we should not be frightened when problems arise. When we seek Jesus and have faith in His Word, all things are possible. It is my prayer that you will be strengthened to experience your own glorious moment with our Lord as you read these today.

Dear Jesse and Cathy, I was healed of colon cancer. There was no need for chemo or radiation. I was also speedily healed of a fractured pelvis and the ball and socket in my right hip separated. Praise God! Thank you for preaching the uncompromised Word of God. You are a true blessing. I've been watching the Boardroom Chats since the beginning and am truly blessed by them.

Thank you for your prayers. My eyesight has been restored after 2 years of doctor appointments and prayers. I can now drive again and read! Praise the Lord!

When my daughter was 4 years old, I ended up with systemic lupus. Not only did the doctor tell me there was no cure; he said that I would not be able to have any more children. I immediately started praying and told Jesus that I'm doing my part, and now I expect Him to do His. Not only was the doctor shocked that I was healed, but that I'd had a second child! I gave Jesus a job, just like Jesse and Cathy said to. Every time that dumb Satan tries to throw something in my face from my past, I just continue to watch Jesse and refuse to let him win. I thank God every day for ministers like you.

Last week I sent in a prayer request for our 17-year-old great nephew. He was diagnosed with leukemia and they started him on chemo. We've had so many praying for him. Last week his blood platelets were 4; this morning they were 61! Praise the Lord!! We declared Psalm 118:17, "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD." We are declaring and seeing the works of the Lord. We continue to stand on all God's promises, and we want to thank Brother Jesse and all the team for the prayers. Keep praying. We continue to "Believe the unbelievable and receive the impossible, because it's doable." We love your ministry so much!

God healed my body of lymphoma. I am cancer free! Praise God! Thank you for your prayers and for joining me in agreement regarding 1 Peter 2:24 and Galatians 3:13.

Years ago you came to New Iberia, and I was there with my grandson who was 4 years old at the time. He had Leukemia. Thanks be to God, he made 23 this year! The day you laid hands on him, he was healed. I can't thank you enough. God is Great! Amen!

I called in for prayer for my aunt's healing. She'd scheduled a heart stint procedure to unblock a clogged artery. God moved mightily in that procedure! The doctor went in to a different artery. No stint was put in. She has no clogged artery and all back pains have stopped. Thanks for praying with me. God bless you all.

I believed in what you said, to "Give God a Job." God healed my mouth. Now I can eat on both sides of my mouth because I gave God the job!

Thank you for being "present and there." I finally go to my PO Box to get my mail and, much to my surprise, there was a Partner Letter in my box from JDM. It is the only Partner Letter from ANY ministry in 45 years of tithing and sending offerings to numerous ministries that mentioned my prayer request. THANK YOU! Most ministries send or have sent the usual form letter thank you, tax receipt, and a continued request for more money. I just obey the Holy Spirit and believe God that someone actually reads and prays in agreement over whatever prayer request I've mailed in. Thank you for being REAL. My son is better and continuing to get better, and my family's salvation is happening. My heart is more touched than anyone can imagine that someone took the time to pray for my son and our family, and to remember us enough to let us know we are not alone. Thank You!

Thank you for the laughs! I see through you both that Jesus is so gentle and encouraging to us all. I think the world has worn me down, but when I focus on Him, remember the Holy Spirit, or think about God's plan for my life, things don't seem so harsh and bleak. Thank you again for your videos. They always lift me up. Blessings to you all.

Thank you for the teachings of God! The way you bring the Word helps me tremendously, and I'm sure that it helps others as well. I am so grateful. That's the best way that I can say it. Thank you!

Jesse's testimony of going to Heaven and his interaction with Jesus made me decide to run after Jesus when I was 12 years old. Ever since then, I loved listening to Jesse Duplantis. Just recently I've surrendered everything to Jesus and my faith is alive instead of dead. My faith was dead because I didn't trust in Jesus with everything.

Thank you, Jesse, for staying TRUE to your calling from God. As I see others slip, you PROVE that following God can be done. Thanks for the teachings and examples throughout our daily lives. God bless you all.

Brother Jesse, I've watched your testimony of Heaven video about six times over the past few years, and every time I do, I weep buckets of tears of yearning and gratitude. You asked the congregation at the end of this message if it witnessed with their spirit. It certainly witnessed with mine, and I feel somehow that it deeply imparted a touch of Heaven to me in a way that I can't even articulate. May God continue to bless you mightily, sir, and may the Lord continue to use this message to tell His people that He is coming back sooner than we think.

We had the honor and privilege to be at your Visionary Conference. There are no words to express all the Lord downloaded into me. It is a supernatural conference! It was exactly what I needed to build my faith even stronger for our vision to come to pass. Thank you, Brother Jesse, Ms. Cathy, and all the staff and volunteers! It was a PHENOMENAL CONFERENCE! Can't wait for next year's!

I started watching you on and off for about 6 months, but within 3 months I had a strong desire to watch all of the Visionary Conferences. Over that 3-month period, I learned to 'Give God a Job!' With that being said, I gave my lift-chair debt to him. Within 2 weeks, I had the money to pay it in full! I praise Jesus for using you to teach the way you do. I sow seed into your ministry every month because I get so much from you. The worship team at Covenant Church is outstanding—such an anointing! I watch you all the time.

I enjoyed your Boardroom Chat teaching, "When 'They' Say You Can't...God Says You CAN!" What a powerful reminder to never put limits on God or my potential in life. I love the interactions between Brother Jesse and Pastor Cathy. They are so real and authentic and FUNNY! I am in great expectation for God's very best for me and my family!

I want to say thank you for sharing the Gospel and never putting anyone down. Many other churches you see or go to, they're always pointing fingers. But every post I see of yours and every time I get a chance to watch you preach, you're always so happy in Christ Jesus. I just want to say thank you for sharing the Gospel to the world.

I love your uplifting sermons. You are my hope and joy to lift me when I'm down. I am a lover of Jesus/Yeshua, and I am gaining strength through your sermons. Praise be to God for you, Jesse and Cathy. Thank you, Lord, for allowing me to know Your Word.

THE REVELATION THAT DESTROYED SATAN'S PLAN

Ponder this: If Jesus Christ would not have come to the earth to be put to death for us, sin and death would NOT have died. This revelation of God's marvelous plan of salvation was a mystery, and one that Satan could not foresee.

The enemy and his cohorts were aware that Jesus was the Messiah, the Sent One. They witnessed His miraculous works. They saw Him turn water into wine, cast out unclean spirits, heal the sick, deliver the oppressed, and raise the dead. Even so, they could not comprehend Who Christ truly was—God's only begotten Son, sent into a sinful world to die in our place and to save us. The Bible says that if the devil and his demons had known, they would not have crucified Him (1 Corinthians 2:8).

In this captivating resurrection message, you'll gain insight and understanding that will keep you ahead of any attack from the enemy that would try to hinder God's amazing plan for you. Get ready to receive life-changing revelation as Jesse shows you how to access the hidden mysteries of God and see your destiny come to pass. Learn how:

- The primary task of revelation is to make you see things revealed
- True wisdom is Heaven-born, not Earth-born
- The resurrection and ascension were the completion of the work which was begun by the incarnation and the sacrifice
- The mysteries of the kingdom lie hidden in the kingdom of God, far away from human sense and reason

As a born-again child of God, you have been transformed from death into life. Your spirit is alive and in communion with the Holy Spirit to lead, empower, and protect you. Let the powerful mysteries of God become a revelation in your life and keep the enemy right where he belongs—under your feet!

Palm Sunday: The Journey to the Cross

CATHY DUPLANTIS

Growing up, it was very normal to see palm branches in homes or in the back windows of cars on Palm Sunday. Although I didn't realize the significance of them at the time, this tradition marked the beginning of Holy Week around our Catholic neighborhood. After being blessed by the local priest during Palm Sunday mass, the palm branches were to be displayed as a reminder of the day when people waved palm branches to welcome Jesus as He rode into Jerusalem on the back of a donkey.

This is one of the few incidents in Jesus' life that was reported in all four Gospels, and it was the beginning of His journey to the cross. John 12:12-13 (AMPC) says, "The next day a vast crowd of those who had come to the Passover Feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him. And as they went, they kept shouting, Hosanna! Blessed is He and praise to Him Who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!"

Palm Sunday was a turning point in Jesus' earthly ministry. Until this moment, Jesus would not allow the people to praise Him publicly. In John 2:4, just before performing His first miracle at the wedding in Cana, He told His mother, "...Mine hour is not yet come." After healing a man that was deaf and could not speak, Mark 7:36 tells us that Jesus "...charged them that they should tell no man..." In Luke 8:56, Jesus told the parents of the child that was raised from the dead that "...they should tell no man what was done."

Jesus' journey to the cross began with His triumphant entry into the city of Jerusalem as hundreds of thousands of pilgrims gathered in the region for the Passover feast. Many of these people had heard that Jesus was in Bethany with Lazarus, whom He raised from the dead. Crowds of people had come out to see them both.

The Perfect Time

At this time, Jesus' popularity was at its peak, and it drove the religious crowd wild with envy. John 12:9-11 (AMPC) says, "Now a great crowd of the Jews heard that He was at Bethany, and they came there, not only because of Jesus but that they also might see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death also, Because on account of him many of the Jews were going away [were withdrawing from and leaving the Judeans] and believing in and adhering to Jesus."

These priests could tell they were losing their control over the people. The Sanhedrin and other Jewish leaders wanted Jesus dead, but didn't want him killed during Passover because they feared stirring up the multitudes who believed in Him. However, Jesus entered the city on His own time so that it would happen exactly on the day of Passover when the lambs were being brought into the city to be sacrificed.

Jesus entered the city on His own time so that it would happen exactly on the day of Passover when the lambs were being brought into the city to

The Triumphal Entry of Jesus was on the tenth day of the Jewish month Nisan. This was the precise day on which the Passover lambs were set apart and to be kept up until the fourteenth day of the same month—the day when each family of the congregation of Israel were to kill their Passover lamb in the evening (Exodus 12:3-6). This annual Passover celebrated Israel's miraculous deliverance from over 400 years of Egyptian bondage.

To announce that He was indeed the Messiah, Jesus chose the exact time when all of Israel would be gathered in Jerusalem. It was a place where huge crowds could see Him. John 12:14-15 (AMPC) says, "And Jesus, having found a young donkey, rode upon it, [just] as it is written in the Scriptures, Do not fear, O Daughter of Zion! Look! Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!" In God's perfect timing, at the precise time foreordained from eternity, Jesus presented Himself officially to the nation as the Messiah and Son of God.

Jesus' actions that day proclaimed His mission in a way that was unmistakable. Psalms 115 through 118 were traditionally sung at the Passover meal. The people who were singing it that day must have had some understanding of the significance of that moment. Psalm 118:22-26 says, "The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. This is the LORD's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes. This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD."

A Perfect Sacrifice

Why a donkey? Conquering kings would ride on a warhorse or in a golden chariot. Horses were symbols of war, but donkeys were symbols of peace and often used to enact treaties. And so it was that Jesus, the Prince of Peace and King of Glory, rode into Jerusalem on a domesticated donkey to be the perfect sacrifice in order to bring salvation to the entire world, not just one nation.

The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke reveal details about this donkey that were not recorded in John's Gospel. Let's read Matthew's account of the events on that first Palm Sunday from the New Living Translation:

As Jesus and the disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the town of Bethphage on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead.

"Go into the village over there," He said. "As soon as you enter it, you will see a donkey tied there, with its colt beside it. Untie them and bring them to me.

If anyone asks what you are doing, just say, 'The Lord needs them,' and he will immediately let you take them."

This took place to fulfill the prophecy that said,

"Tell the people of Jerusalem, 'Look, your King is coming to you. He is humble, riding on a donkey—riding on a donkey's colt.'"

The two disciples did as Jesus commanded.

They brought the donkey and the colt to Him and threw their garments over the colt, and He sat on it.

Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of Him, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around Him were shouting, "Praise God for the Son of David! Blessings on the One Who comes in the name of the LORD! Praise God in highest heaven!"

The entire city of Jerusalem was in an uproar as He entered. "Who is this?" they asked.

And the crowds replied, "It's Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

Matthew 21:1-11 NLT

When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on that donkey's colt, crowds shouted, "Hosanna," which means, "Save Now." It was an open demonstration by the people of that day that the promised Messiah and King of the Jews had come. They praised Him as their king as they spread garments and palm branches on the road before Him. The date palm was a celebratory symbol of Jewish nationalism, so this showed how they longed to be delivered from the unfair oppression of the Roman government.

It is easy to understand their frustration about the government they were living under during that time. Most of us have had similar concerns about the state of our government at times. Last year on Palm Sunday, then president Joe Biden released a "Transgender Day of Visibility" proclamation. In it, he read statements that celebrated transgender ideology and sex-changes for children. He actually declared that "Transgender Americans shape our nation's soul." The only thing that should shape our nation is the Gospel of Jesus Christ! That is why it is vitally important that we intensify our efforts to spread the light of the Gospel through every available voice.

A Perfect Salvation

Jesus came to bring light to the darkness in this world and give perfect salvation to all who believe in Him. Hebrews 2:10 (AMPC) says, “For it was an act worthy [of God] and fitting [to the divine nature] that He, for Whose sake and by Whom all things have their existence, in bringing many sons into glory, should make the Pioneer of their salvation perfect [should bring to maturity the human experience necessary to be perfectly equipped for His office as High Priest] through suffering.”

“
Jesus came to bring light to the darkness in this world and give perfect salvation to all who believe in Him.

The greatest error is for people to see the light and reject it. When revelation comes, we must believe. John 12:35-37 (AMPC) says, “So Jesus said to them, You will have the Light only a little while longer. Walk while you have the Light [keep on living by it], so that darkness may not overtake and overcome you. He who walks about in the dark does not know where he goes [he is drifting]. While you have the Light, believe in the Light [have faith in it, hold to it, rely on it], that you may become sons of the Light and be filled with Light. Jesus said these things, and then He went away and hid Himself from them [was lost to their view]. Even though He had done so many miracles before them (right before their eyes), yet they still did not trust in Him and failed to believe in Him.”

If we refuse the light, the light disappears. When God’s light departs from the world, darkness closes over unbelieving hearts. John 12:46 AMPC says, “I have come as a Light into the world, so that whoever believes in Me [whoever cleaves to and trusts in and relies on Me] may not continue to live in darkness.”

After Jesus’ resurrection, He commissioned His Church to journey beyond Judea to Samaria, and ultimately to the ends of the earth. Mark 16:15 (AMPC) says, “And He said to them, Go into all the world and preach and publish openly the good news (the Gospel) to every creature [of the whole human race].” All believers are under divine command to take hold of the flaming torch of the good news about Jesus and proclaim the truth of the Gospel in every nation.

As you celebrate Palm Sunday this year, take time to tell a few people about that journey to the cross that Jesus made for us all. He came at the perfect time, as a perfect Savior, to give a perfect salvation for everyone who believes in Him. Only Jesus can give us a glorious journey on earth and a marvelous eternal life in Heaven! 🌐
