STIR UP THE GIFT

and Take It Outside

Life is for living and the Word is for doing

JESSE DUPLANTIS

In that Upper Room over 2,000 years ago, the Holy Spirit lit a fire that has yet to be put out, and it's been flowing ever since. Why hasn't it been quenched? Because there's still more to do! Until Jesus returns, we need to be flowing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and not just when we're at a church meeting. There's a lost and dying world out there that needs to be reached. We're the salt. We're the lights in a dark place. If we don't give them an opportunity to see what a real believer who lives a Spirit-led life is like, who will?

A lot of people go to a power-packed meeting where the Holy Ghost is flowing and they praise, they jump, and they holler. They clap, and stomp, and shout for joy. They may even roll on the floor or run around the church. But in a day or two at most, once the emotions have worn off, they go back to living exactly as they were before. They were blessed. They were edified and lifted up. But they didn't change.

When the Holy Spirit moves, it's not for our spiritual entertainment—it's for our spiritual development, and that means it should affect our life outside of the church and not just inside the church. If we say, "Wow! What a great service! The Holy Spirit really showed up and showed out!" but leave without the intent to change or grow, we're just stunting our own growth and lessening our impact on the world.

We must not dampen the blessing we've been given when the Holy Spirit moves in a service. We must "stir up the gift" as it says in 2 Timothy 1:6. That means when the Holy Spirit moves in a service and it affects us, it's up to us to stoke the fire when we leave the church. That is our part to do. We're the hands and feet of Christ in this earth. The apostle Paul was telling Timothy here to remember when hands were laid on him, and to remember the spiritual gifts he was given so that he would stir up the gift within him and not let it stagnate.

Human nature wants to fall back on the natural, especially when things get tough, but we need to do the opposite. Letting the heat of the fire go lukewarm doesn't help us, the people in our life, or God's vision. Again, we have our own free will and God won't break it. It's up to us to use what we've been given. The more we use it, the more we become people who walk not only in grace and blessings, but people who live in power and purpose. We can have both and do both, but only if we act on what the Lord deposited into our lives.

Take It Outside!

When the Holy Spirit hit the Upper Room that day long ago, Peter didn't turn into a spiritual robot controlled by God. No, he had a choice to act on what the Holy Spirit was prompting him to do or not. He could keep what He'd been given inside the Upper Room or take it outside to the people. Peter had choices. The baptism of the Holy Spirit did not stop his free will. So, could Peter have done nothing but enjoy the supernatural experience he was having and keep it to himself? Yes. Could he have pushed down the prompting of the Spirit that was telling him to get up and go evangelize? Yes. But he didn't. Do you know why? I believe it's because He was more interested in flowing with what he knew was coming from Heaven than anything else.

You see, Peter already knew what it felt like to go against God, and he never wanted to do that again. Peter had denied Jesus, and not just once, but three times. The choice he'd made before Jesus went to the cross went against everything he thought he stood for. When the rooster crowed and he remembered Jesus had told him he'd deny Him, Peter wept bitterly. It tore Him up inside and he ran to get away from the pain of what he'd done.

If you've ever done something really wrong—something totally against your own heart—and truly regretted it, well, you know what remorse feels like. Can you imagine what it must have felt like to be Peter and deny Jesus, the Savior of the world, your mentor, and your friend, on His way to the cross?

Peter loved Jesus. He didn't want to deny Him; he wanted to support Him and even die with Him. He'd actually pledged to do it! But once under pressure, he was so bound by fear of persecution that he went directly against what he wanted to do. Fear had gotten the best of him, and that fear turned him into a traitor—and what he did tore at his very soul.

So, when the Holy Ghost hit that Upper Room and Peter felt his heart surge with power from on high, he didn't push it down or run away. And when the Holy Spirit started prompting Peter to get up and go tell the people the words coming up in his spirit, Peter didn't flinch. He listened, he got up, and he took it outside—because that was exactly what the Spirit was moving him to do. It was time to start building the kingdom of God on the earth, and Peter was ready to do whatever it took. He didn't care if they persecuted him anymore. He didn't care what the personal cost might be. He had just had an impartation of God's Holy Spirit, and he was ready to move.

Your Vision and God's Vision Do Better When You Stir Up the Gift

The early Church had it tough. They had to cut a new path at a time when they could be killed for speaking the truth. But with the baptism of the Holy Spirit, they were endued with power and they used it! They had an understanding of their authority in Christ and of the words God put on their heart to preach, teach, and write. They weren't the same men who'd walked with Jesus. They had boldness and tenacity even in the face of incredible adversity. They were changed, and the fears of the past were in the past—the cause of Christ was burning in their heart, and they had a fire in their soul to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We all have a destiny to fulfill and a destination to reach in life. Not everyone is called to the five-fold ministry—God calls some to the offices of pastor, teacher, prophet, apostle, and evangelist—but all believers are called to propel the Gospel in the world. Not everyone is called to be an evangelist, but all believers are called to do the work of an evangelist. No matter where we are in the world or what our main job is in life, if we're saved, we're not supposed to keep what we've been given all to ourselves. We're meant to take it outside. Jesus didn't keep His message in the synagogue. The early Church didn't keep the Good News and the baptism of the Holy Spirit in the Upper Room. All of them took it outside the buildings.

So, when the Holy Ghost moves in the Church, it's to build up the people and equip them with power and gifts so that they go out into their everyday life and shine bolder and brighter for Jesus. God wants the best for our lives. He wants us to be blessed and fulfill the dreams of our heart. He wants us to give Him a job with our faith and ask for what we desire. But we can't lose sight of the greater vision that comes with being a Christian.

Jesus came and gave His life not just for our sins, but the sins of the world. He came "to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10), and it's our job to get that message to world. It's our job to be a part of getting the Gospel throughout the earth, both in our everyday life as God puts people on our path and in our support of those who are sent by God, too. Our vision for our own life and God's vision for the world both do better when we "stir up the gift." More clarity, boldness, and power come when we let the Holy Spirit guide us and move us...both inside and outside of the church.

The Holy Spirit Gives the Right Words at the Right Time

As I fulfill the calling of God on my own life, I often quote John 16:13 over myself: "Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will shew you things to come." Then, I pray and confess that I'll know what to do, when to do it, and how to do it because the Spirit of truth is guiding me.

Every person in that Upper Room had a part to play in God's plan—and they each needed the Holy Spirit to do their part. You and I do, too. Peter didn't know how God was going to use Him, but when the Holy Spirit came, he immediately had the right words to say that won the souls of 3,000 people in a day! That's the power of the Holy Spirit. He gives us the right words.

The Holy Spirit arrived on the Day of Pentecost, when Jerusalem was filled with people from all over Israel who could take what they'd seen, heard, and experienced all across Israel and beyond. That's the power of the Holy Spirit. He does what needs to happen at exactly the right time. Once the early Church was given the Holy Spirit, they not only got power and energy to do what God was calling them to do, but they also got words and direction, too.

So, when the Holy Ghost moves in the Church, it's to build up the people and equip them with power and gifts so that they go out into their everyday life and shine bolder and brighter for Jesus.

The fire that God put in my soul for His vision in 1976 still burns in me today—and that fire is the Holy Spirit. I could have let that fire burn out and I could have let God’s vision fade away in my mind if I wanted to. I have a free will. But I love God too much to let that happen! I enjoy my salvation. I enjoy the calling God has put on my life. Is it always easy? No! But it’s worth every challenge because the God inside me helps me overcome challenges—He helps me move through them, regain my strength, and gives me energy to keep going.

The Holy Spirit is still helping me to move forward with energy and strength. I’m running my race, but I’m not finished with my course yet! I don’t sit around thinking about the past; I look to the future. I’m like the apostle Paul in that way. One of my favorite passages is Philippians 3:13-14:

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Life Is for Living and the Word Is for Doing

That’s what I do—I just put my faith in God, in His Word, and in the Holy Spirit’s power to help me do everything I need to do. I stoke the fire He put within me, and I spread it with others. I often say that I don’t need a “fresh touch” from God because I just never let His presence in my life get stale. I’ve talked to the Lord every day since I got saved. I’ve also read the Word and have been renewing my mind every day since then, too. I refuse to buckle to an arch-enemy of God named Satan, and I am simply not moved off my course by what the world thinks of me!

I don’t care what challenges come, I have decided to live by the principle that “I’m not moved by what I see; I’m moved by what I believe”—and I’ve gotten this way by keeping the Word of God and my relationship with the Lord first place in my life. You see, I don’t just preach this stuff; I live it! That’s why I’ve lasted so long, and I’ve still got my joy! It’s why I’ve never had a financial deficit. It’s why even when the media tries to take me out by lying about me to ruin my name, I just end up growing and prospering even more! Living by faith in God is way more rewarding than just talking about living for God. Being Spirit-led is much more success-producing—spiritually, physically, and financially—than just talking about being Spirit-led, while really just being a slave to the flesh.

Being a doer of the Word keeps you from self-deception, and it keeps you reminded of who you are. Hearers of the Word who don’t do anything with what they hear end up deceiving themselves. And like a person who looks in a mirror and then walks away and forgets what they look like, hearers-only forget who they are in Christ (James 1:22). So, they end up living low.

I am a doer! Day by day, year by year, decade by decade, I don’t move off of the Word, and I don’t let the fire of the Holy Spirit burn out. Every day, I press in and His presence fills me. Every day, I reach forward and press toward the mark. It’s what keeps me on track. It’s what keeps me moving.

If you’re still breathing, you need to be moving. Life is for living! And there’s no more rewarding life than living for God.

I hope you are being inspired to access the Holy Spirit even more. Because no matter how old or young you are and no matter where you are in life right now, you need the fire of the Holy Spirit in your life. If you’re still breathing, you need to be moving. Life is for living! And there’s no more rewarding life than living for God—not talking about living for God, but living for God. 🌐

The above article is from Jesse’s book,
Give God a Job.

Salvation Is God's Gift to You!

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

The greatest gift God offers is salvation through His Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus came that we might have life, and have it in abundance. So, how do you move into that kind of life? By recognizing your need for God, making a choice to accept Jesus as your Savior, and praying from your heart.

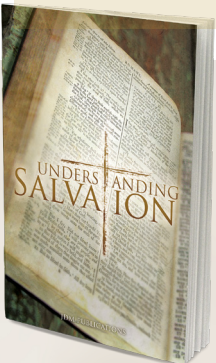

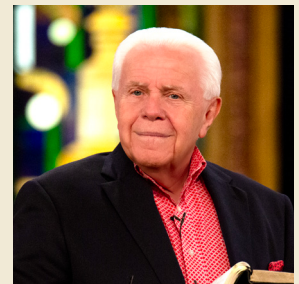

If you've never received Jesus as your personal Lord and Savior and you're ready to make Heaven your eternal home and begin a new life right here too, would you pray this prayer today? All you have to do is ask for forgiveness, ask Jesus to come into your life, and He will listen and do what He's promised: He will forgive you, wash your sin away, and it will never be held against you anymore. He loves you and He's waiting for you to call out to Him today. Use this simple prayer as a guide, and receive the salvation Jesus went to the cross to give you:

Lord Jesus, I ask You to come into my life today. I believe that You are God's Son and that You died for my sin. I believe that You were resurrected and are in Heaven now hearing my prayer. Forgive me of all my sin and create a clean heart in me. I know You see me, You love me, and You want to show me how to live Your way. I trust You, Lord, and from this day forward I will live for You. Help me, Lord, starting today, to see my life the way You do, and to draw closer and closer to You every day. I love You! Thank You for saving me!

If you just prayed this prayer, welcome to the family of God! As 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, you are now a "new creature" in Christ, and your slate is now clean before the Lord. I want to encourage you to read your Bible for wisdom and listen to positive, faith-filled messages to build your faith and your relationship with Jesus.

It's also important that you let someone know of your decision to follow Jesus, and I would love to hear from you. I want to rejoice with you and send you my free booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you in your new walk with Christ. You can contact me online at JDM.org or use the envelope/order form included in the center of this magazine. Like 2 Timothy 1:6 says, I encourage you to daily "Stir up the gift" of God that lives inside of you, and share Jesus wherever you can. No matter how old or young you are and no matter where you are in life, you now have the fire of the Holy Spirit to guide you into a rewarding and fulfilling life that's worth living. God bless you as you go and grow—I'm praying for you!

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

God is glorious and is He doing amazing things in the lives of so many people! Psalm 66:1-4 (NLT) boldly tells us to, “Shout joyful praises to God, all the earth! Sing about the glory of His name! Tell the world how glorious He is. Say to God, ‘How awesome are Your deeds! Your enemies cringe before Your mighty power. Everything on earth will worship You; they will sing Your praises, shouting Your name in glorious songs.’”

Each time we shout, sing, and tell the world how glorious our God is, it causes the enemy to cringe. It will also open the door for another glorious moment. Don't ever stop telling others about the awesome things that God does for those that trust in Him!

Since 1976, Jesse and I have been telling the world the Good News about Jesus Christ. We are so thankful to God for the lives that are reached and the people that are changed every single day through our meetings, television, products, magazines, and our social media platforms. I pray that you will be abundantly blessed and supernaturally encouraged as you read about what our God is doing the lives of others.

Thank you for your faith ministry and all of the teaching you have shared through the years. I remember I was in debt in 2015, but with your sowing and reaping messages and lessons, we are debt free today! All glory to God! As a pastor from the Solomon Islands living in New Zealand, planting churches and reaching the lost, it is really good to partner with you in prayer.

My American wife and I (I am Japanese) and our three children are Christian missionaries in Japan. A few days ago, when I was visiting a church in Washougal, Washington, USA, the pastor introduced me to your YouTube video of your testimony of Heaven. I shared the testimony with my wife, who was in Japan, and both of us were very touched and moved by your testimony, especially my wife. She was in tears, since we had miscarried three children. We all know that we have more children waiting for us in Heaven. Your testimonies are so powerful and truthful. I do not watch or follow TV or online ministries, but this video is very compelling. I have already shared it with my friends in Japan. Thank you so much.

Thank you for always standing for God. I love your teachings!

I want to give God the glory and praise for my healing and deliverance from severe pain. For over a year or more, I've had pain in my legs, feet, and back. Over the last 6 months, it has been quite severe in my knees and legs, but thanks be unto God for the victory through my Lord Jesus Christ. All of a sudden, last week, I got up out of my chair and was walking to the bathroom, and I realized my knees weren't hurting. Now, it's just like I turned off a light switch—I can stand up straight without any pain, walk without any pain, and sit without any pain! Glory hallelujah, praise God Almighty! Thank You, Lord Jesus Christ. Amen, hallelujah, praise God! Thank you all for your prayers and faithfulness and teachings.

You have taught me to stretch myself in life, and I am now bold to do it. Just know you are a blessing to me in Zimbabwe, and I love you so much because of your teachings.

I sent in a $300 seed gift to your ministry, asking for the 100-fold return. In less than 4 days, I learned that the buyer of my home was going to pay ALL closing costs, including my share of $3,800! I don't think that seed is done giving yet. There is more to come! God is good!

Your message, "Why Isn't My Giving Working? The Four Types of Giving," is the best teaching we have ever listened to. Thank you so much, Jesse. I've always loved your teachings, and I've given them to hundreds of people and anyone who will listen to them. Truth—yes, yes, yes, and amen!

After being a JDM Partner for a few months, God gave me $400 into my bank account. Glory to God! I trust Jesus Christ as my Provider, and I'm thankful for His love!

I wrote to you for prayer—for the Lord's provision for the final payment of the mortgage and insurance payment on my house. I'm writing now to say thank you and to report that God provided it before the due date.

I am a Partner and I enjoy your ministry very much. I'm blessed every time I hear God's messages through you and Cathy. God richly bless you both!

Early one morning, I watched Jesse preach the message, "Your Everything Is His Anything," on my Roku TV. I watched this message at least 3 times in a row! I was so shocked to realize that I had read John 14:13-14 many, many times in the past, but had never really truly understood what it said. That morning, I got the revelation! I am so thankful that Jesse listens to the Lord and preaches the Word, giving us revelation knowledge as God gives it to him. That day, after watching and listening to Jesse preach "Your Everything Is His Anything" again and again, I asked Father God, in the name of Jesus, to pay off my student loan. At that time, I knew it was over $20,000.00, maybe over $21,000.00. I had sown seed and prayed about it, and I knew that God was going to make a way, somehow, for me to pay my loan in full. Then, I heard Jesse preach about John 14:13-14, and after I asked Father God to do it, I knew it was taken care of. A couple of days later, I got a phone call from someone that I love dearly, asking me how much I owed on my student loan. This person told me to call and find out the amount I owed, and then said, "Let's get it paid off!" I was so excited! The following week, I called the Student Loan Offices and my student loan was paid in full! Now, that's a miracle in itself! We serve a mighty, big God! I am now completely debt free! Many years ago, the Lord helped me pay off my debts, and that student loan was the last debt I owed. I am so thankful! I wanted to share my praise report with you and to thank Jesse for preaching that message.

God bless you, Jesse Duplantis. I am new to hearing your preaching and I feel inspired and blessed. Thank you always, from Toronto, Canada.

You are an amazing preacher, Cathy. Thank you for all your wonderful insights and nuggets you glean from His Word.

Thank you, Jesse, for always giving us a good word and keeping us on the straight and narrow. You and Cathy are amazing people!

The two of you make me laugh so hard. I so enjoy watching your videos! Cathy, thank you for your strong testimony of staying with Jesse through all the hard times. You are a blessing to all the women struggling with their husband's salvation. Blessings from California.

Blessings from Orofino, Idaho! We are learning so much from both of you. Your Bible studies really bring it alive—a living book growing in us.

Brother Jesse, thank you for the many years of increased hope, joy, instruction, and encouragement.

You all have been praying for me whenever I need it. I'm pleased to report that Jesus is my Healer! My liver MRI came back perfectly normal, and no signs or evidence of tumors or cancer! Hallelujah! Glory to Jesus forever! Thank you for all your prayers. They mean the world to me!

God has blessed us! We believed God would bless us so that we wouldn't need public assistance or charitable assistance. We stood in faith to not use the government programs we had been using, and we sowed seeds into your ministry. God gave us the victory! We ended the year with every bill paid and enough food! And that was in a year of very high inflation and food prices, which is nothing to God! And God has helped our family to live debt free since we were married and our children were born! Like He prospered Isaac 100-fold in famine, He helped us and also prospered us during the main time that Covid was going on. Praise You, Lord!

I really enjoy being a Partner with Jesse Duplantis Ministries. Receiving the monthly Voice of the Covenant magazine is always a great blessing to me. I enjoy watching Jesse on YouTube when he is at Covenant Church, the Boardroom Chats, and Faith the Facts. I give all the praise and glory to God for the wonderful blessings in my life. God bless you.

Create Your WORLD and WALK In It

There's a statement I've been saying for many years that applies to every area of my life and ministry. It first came to me in response to a question my very observant daughter, Jodi, asked me when she was around 10 years old. She came up to me that memorable day and asked, "Hey, Dad, why does it seem like everything you do just works? Everything you touch always seems to prosper. How do you do that?" That's when this phrase came up from my spirit and out of my mouth. I said, "Well, Jodi, I create my world, and then I walk in it." Today, this phrase has taken on a whole new depth and meaning to me that God wants me to share with you. I pray that the revelation He's given me will ignite the power and strength of God within you, too.

Like I do every year, I went before the Lord to find out what was on His heart and what He wanted our ministry to focus on throughout 2025.

He often deals with me in themes, and so He said to me, "Jesse, I want you to use the statement you made to Jodi years ago, 'Create Your World and Walk In It.'" That's when He took me to a promise in His Word that He inspired the apostle Paul to write down, which, I believe, enabled Paul to create his world and walk in it. That promise is Philippians 4:13, and it's from God to all of us: "I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me" (NKJV). Glory!

Now, that is a BIG statement in a small sentence, and it connects us to our Creator Who gives us the ability to create, too. What it means is that "He can," and when you and I are living through Christ, "we can" too. Think about it. You and I share a "can-do" spirit with God, and we have the same Creator-DNA inside of us to walk out our destiny successfully. With Him, there is no can't. God can. Period. End of statement.

I want you to notice the fourth word in that verse: “I can do all...” That little word all contains only three letters, but God is letting you know that everything is doable for you, whether it’s spiritual, physical, financial, or in any other area of life, because you are a vessel of divine strength. You CAN walk in the power you’ve been given and live an “I can do all things through Christ” kind of life!

In order to create your world and walk in it, you must use sound words. When you speak the sound words of the holy Word of God, they will bring discipline to your thoughts, making you a more focused and disciplined thinker. Sound words lift the heart and the mind. They are the foundation for warfare when trouble comes.

So, how do you handle the troubles of life? Afterall, this is a sin-sick world. You handle them with the Word and the Greater One living inside of you (1 John 4:4). You don’t have to bow down to circumstances and walk in that low world. You don’t deny all the craziness that’s going on all around, but you do deny its right to affect you. Glory to God!

You see, when you create your own world, Satan can’t walk in it. If he does, he stumbles. The only thing Satan should be allowed to see is the bottom of your feet. God didn’t create you to be defeated but to live victoriously in Him. Jesus says in John 16:33, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.”

For me, “Create Your World and Walk In It” illustrates how to live as an overcomer, not a becomer. So, I don’t just take whatever life hands me as if I’m powerless and have no God. I don’t have to let the world get in me or get to me, because though I might be in the world, as the scripture says, I’m not of the world (John 17:14-16).

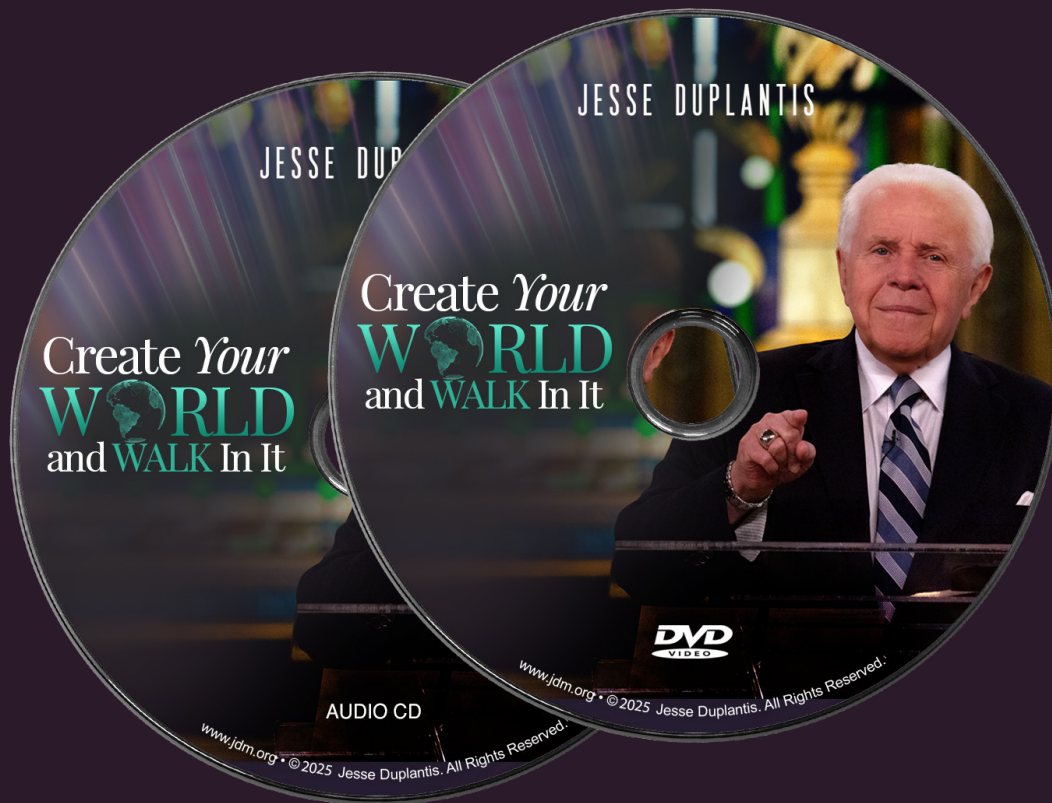

Remember that if Jesus overcame the world, then you have too. It doesn’t make any difference what the outer world is saying, it’s what your inner world is saying. Yeah, there’s tribulation in this earthly life, but so what! You’re the overcomer through Christ. So, how do you stand firm in that? You do it by cultivating your inner world with faith that will affect your outer world. You see, you can create your world and walk in it, and that’s done from the inside out.

People have asked me so many times how I handle the emotions of living in a sin-sick world, and I have so often answered, “I create my world and I walk in it.” I’ve learned to lean on the Word of God and the Spirit of truth that Jesus sent when He sent the Holy Ghost. I’ve learned to lean not to my own understanding, like Proverbs 3:5 says, but to instead keep His commandments on my heart. That’s what walking in the world you create with the Word is all about.

You and I demonstrate the Holy Spirit’s power working in us when we make the choice to create our world and walk in it—because when we choose to not be conformed to this world but to be transformed inside by His Word, we are choosing to highlight the spiritual DNA we share with our Father. That spiritual power we share is what gives us the strength to not only be able to handle anything that comes up in our life, but to also receive anything from the Word that we need or desire. His power is our strength! It’s what helps us turn “I can’t do anything” into “I can do ALL things!”

So, decide today to “Create Your World and Walk In It.” Do it with the Spirit and the Word, and you will see that you become a greater witness for Christ, both in words and in demonstration of power. You’re going to show others how they can create their world and walk in it, too! 🌐

THE HIDDEN HELP

Who are we to the angels? Why do they help us? What draws their attention? Are guardian angels real? Are God's angels worthy of praise? How can we tell the difference between the fallen and the faithful angels? Dr. Jesse Duplantis answers questions like these and much more as he shares teaching and stories from the Word of God to help you view the angelic realm, as well as yourself, in a biblically-sound way.

SUITED FOR SUCCESS

While societies in the world today are driven by the desire for success, many Christians seeking success in their own lives are not well received. But the TRUTH about God's view of success is revealed throughout the Bible. His will is and always has been for all of His children to thrive, prosper, and achieve everything in their lives that He's called them to do.

The GOLDEN FINGER
of God

CATHY DUPLANTIS

My mother-in-law has been in Heaven since 1982, but I often think about the impact of her life on Jesse, me, and this ministry. I'll never forget the first time that I came to visit her after I asked Jesus to come into my life and save me. I felt like I was on the witness stand as she asked me to explain what happened to me. For years she prayed for her heathen son to be saved, and now she wanted to know if the girl he married was truly born again. It was a tense moment.

Velma Duplantis was a bold woman who would stare you straight in your face when she asked you a question. I never saw her back away from anyone or anything, including the devil. I searched for the right words to explain what was in my heart.

Although the Bible was new to me, I had time to learn a few basic spiritual terms and was ready to give my testimony. But at that moment, my heart was so full of love and appreciation for all that Jesus had done for me, only a few words came out before I burst into tears.

Velma smiled contently and nodded as she said, "That's the golden finger of God touching your heart." Although I said very little, I had answered her question. Only the "golden finger of God," as my mother-in-law called it, can heal a wounded heart and give purpose to this life. She had recognized the amazing saving power of God that changed my life and filled my heart with unexplainable peace, unconditional love, and unspeakable joy.

Only the “golden finger of God,” as my mother-in-law called it, can heal a wounded heart and give purpose to this life.

On a Mission for God

I really got to know Velma after I was born again, and we would spend hours talking about God and the wonderful experiences she had in her walk with Him. Velma had an amazing passion for God, and she really knew how to tell a story.

Hands down, my favorite was when she ministered God's love to a young girl standing at the edge of the Mississippi River ready to commit suicide. I'll never forget the way she described what happened that day as she was washing her dishes. Velma told me that she heard the Lord say, "Get in the truck and drive where I tell you to go."

Immediately, she loaded her small children in the truck and began driving down the road, making turns wherever the Holy Ghost directed. Jesse and his brother, Wayne, didn't have a clue where they were going, but knew better than to question Mama. They knew to keep quiet when Mama was on a mission for God.

Suddenly, Velma stopped the truck as she spotted a girl standing at the river's edge. She instantly knew why God directed her to that very spot. She told her kids to stay in the truck as she called out to the broken-hearted young girl. Velma got her talking and found out that she had decided to kill herself rather than tell her parents that she was pregnant. But instead of meeting death at the bottom of the Mississippi River, this young girl met God as Velma led her in a prayer of salvation.

Then Velma brought the young girl home and gently spoke to her parents, helping them through a difficult family situation by directing them all to Jesus. That household discovered the amazing peace that comes from meeting God and serving His Son, Jesus.

I had often retold this story, never realizing that God would allow me to personally meet the same young girl that was rescued from suicide by my mother-in-law. It was several years after Jesse had been preaching the Gospel and in full-time ministry. Although I didn't always travel with him to be in the meetings, I was with Jesse the night he held a tent revival meeting in the small town where he grew up.

After the service, we stood at the entrance of the tent to meet the people and thank them for coming to the meeting. I remember smiling as a woman introduced herself, her husband, and five young children to us and said to Jesse, “I don’t know if your mother ever told you about me, but God used her to stop me from killing myself when I was a young girl.”

I can’t explain how overwhelmed I was to come face-to-face with this precious family. I suddenly realized that God did so much more that day than save one life—He saved six! The woman and her five children were smiling sweetly with their father as he proudly stood with his young family. That moment will forever stand as a practical demonstration of the amazing, saving power of our wonderful God!

It still amazes me how much impact one solitary life can have on so many others. We are all on a mission for God. As we are led by Him, we can help rescue someone that has lost their way and given up on life. Our true purpose is to spread the Good News about Jesus’ great invitation in Matthew 11:28-30:

Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.

Every single life is precious and so very valuable to God. Velma knew that, Jesse knows that, and so do I. Do you desire a change in your own life? Rely on the One Who will never change. In an instant, He will transform your life as He has for so many, including a desperate young girl at the edge of the Mississippi River so very long ago. You too can experience the amazing, saving power of God by asking Jesus to come into your life. He is ready to place your feet on a solid foundation that will withstand every storm of life. Reach out to Him today!

The Amazing, Saving Power of God

Jesus’ great compassion for the lost is revealed so clearly in Matthew 9:36, especially in the Amplified Bible, Classic Edition: “When He saw the throngs, He was moved with pity and sympathy for them, because they were bewildered (harassed and distressed and dejected and helpless), like sheep without a shepherd.”

The compassion of God is still reaching out to you and your loved ones. Realize today that it is always God’s will for your family to be saved. Even though they may be on the edge of desperation, the amazing, saving power of God can reach them when nothing else can.

But the battle for the salvation of your family is not fought with physical weapons; it’s fought with spiritual weapons, and you have them! You can do what I did, and use the name of Jesus to rebuke the enemy from blinding their minds to the light of the Gospel and command the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers to go forth and minister salvation to them.

Never forget that it is God’s will for all men to be saved, and so you can pray for God’s will to be done in earth, as it is in Heaven.

Never forget that it is God’s will for all men to be saved, and so you can pray for God’s will to be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. If your children are not yet serving the Lord, take peace in God’s promise: “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it” (Proverbs 22:6).

So, be determined to win your lost loved ones to the Lord Jesus. Hold on to Philippians 1:27 and declare that your entire family will be “...standing firm in united spirit and purpose, striving side by side and contending with a single mind for the faith of the glad tidings (the Gospel)” (AMPC). The devil has to let go of your loved ones. He has no choice; he is defeated! Glory to God! 🌐

The above article is an excerpt from Cathy’s new book, The Power of Prayer.

Create Your WORLD and WALK In It Testimonies

I have been a financial supporter of JDM for almost 5 years or so. The Holy Spirit spoke quietly to me in November of 2024 about planting an additional seed gift to the ministry: “Give a seed of $50.00 every Friday.” I obeyed the Holy Spirit and started planting the $50.00 Friday seed. Wow! The financial windfall that started in December 2024 was amazing, and it has not stopped! Over $50,000.00 dollars of miracle money has arrived, in short, the amounts are in the thousands! I even received credits from past purchases. Friday is very different for me now. I look forward to planting that $50.00 seed to JDM each week.

Your ministry has changed my life! I felt compelled to share how your ministry has profoundly shaped my life. A few years back, I was buried under $75,000 in debt, feeling utterly hopeless. Then, one of your sermons struck a chord with me when you mentioned, “I tried broke. I didn’t like it at all.” This simple yet powerful statement ignited a change within me. With renewed faith, I began to pray for divine strategies. Miraculously, within two years, not only was I out of debt, but I have also turned a $30,000 investment into a $147,000 success story! Your unwavering message on living debt free and trusting in God’s provision became the cornerstone of my financial recovery. Today, your teachings still resonate with me daily, filling me with inspiration and determination. Thank you for your incredible influence and the indelible mark you’ve left on my journey.

Hi, Jesse and Cathy. I’ve been sharing the 2025 vision statement, ‘Create Your World and Walk In It,’ with all sorts of people, including my clients. I’m a mental health therapist, and this truth has changed the lives of my clients. One young college student excitedly told me last week that he couldn’t wait for our session—he quit nicotine and marijuana and has been doing things he was afraid to do before. He said, “I’m creating my world and walking in it!” I hear this over and over from others. I, too, have taken this visionary statement to heart. Thanks so much for sharing it. God is so good!
