Sharing Jesus with the World for 50 Years!

Jesse and Cathy Duplantis share one mission: to proclaim God's message of salvation all over the world! They want everyone to experience a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Since Jesse's first sermon preached in 1976 through today, he and Cathy are continuing to make an impact for the Kingdom of God!

For 50 years, Jesse Duplantis Ministries has been guided by the Holy Spirit to shine the light of the Gospel through global evangelistic outreaches. You can witness all of God's abundant blessings throughout the years in JDM television broadcasts, social media posts, podcasts, printed media, and so much more. And this is just the beginning!

Thank you, JDM Partners, for your faithful financial support and prayers. The ministry values every seed sown and considers it a holy, precious thing. Not only is your seed destined to produce a harvest for you; it will also enable Jesse, Cathy, and Team JDM to continually reach people and change lives, one soul at a time!

Living LETTERS

JESSE DUPLANTIS

Let's face it, the proof is in the pudding! The only Jesus some people will ever see is the Jesus in you or the Jesus in me. The only way they will understand His love is by seeing it in action through His Body.

The apostle Paul said, Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart (2 Cor. 3:2,3).

What are epistles? They are not apostles' wives as some might think! They are letters or messages for the world to read! As Paul spoke of the Corinthians being epistles, we too are living letters.

A Living Letter is an unfinished life. The last page will not be written until the Kingdom and the will of God are done on the earth.

Every person who is born again can reveal a side of Jesus that the world has never seen. Every believer is made in His image, and all have uniqueness in Him. Our lives should be read like a page of large, clear print which will lead them to quick, calculating conclusions.

I have been in meetings where some people get boisterous while praising Jesus. Others, in the same meeting, barely move, yet seem to enjoy the service just as much. The loud one wonders why the quiet one isn't moving. He asks himself, "What's the matter with this guy? Is he dead?" No, he's not dead, he is just a side of God that you are not used to. When we are critical of other believers, we are critical of Jesus. He lives in them and has given them a uniqueness only they possess.

Luke said in Acts 1:1, The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach. In other words, the twelve disciples were going to show a side of Jesus that the world had never seen.

A human life is the medium in which God's voice utters divine truths. Jesus began the work when He was on earth and is still continuing through the Body of Christ. When your life is finished on this earth, that part of Christ's job is finished.

While jogging the other day, God told me something that made me stop running. He said, "Jesse, do you know that you've never lost a battle to the devil? The devil has never defeated you, and the devil cannot defeat you."

I said, "I don't want to shake the throne here, but let me show You where the boy (devil) knocked my socks off a few times."

But God said, "The devil didn't knock your socks off. How can he knock your socks off when he's under your feet? You are undefeatable. All of My people are undefeatable."

I asked, "What do You mean?"

He said, "Many have thought that they lost battles with the devil. The devil is under their feet. They lost the battle of faith. I told you to fight the good fight of faith. It's a good fight. The devil didn't beat you; you just quit fighting with faith."

I said, "It's hard, Lord."

He said, "It's not really hard if you are dealing in the realm of the Spirit. You have tried to get your flesh to fight the fight of faith. I told you to live by the faith of the Son of God; I didn't tell you to live by your faith."

Paul said in Galatians 2:20, I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, Who loved me, and gave Himself for me.

Have you ever studied the faith of the Son of God? A living letter is more than a memory or an indication of what Christ did. It is living revelation of the Word of God. It is the power of the cross revealed in human flesh. When you live by the faith of the Son of God, you will truly be a living epistle, read by all men. You can't lose with that kind of faith.

The power of the cross is something that shines in the eyes, trembles in the voice, and throbs out of your every movement.

Paul said, For me to live is Christ (Phil. 1:21). With his back bleeding, he and Silas sang about the goodness of God. Every fiber of his being throbbed with the fullness of Jesus Christ.

The power of the cross trembles in the voice. My wife Cathy used to hate to testify. She hated it because as soon as she'd start speaking, the tears would come gushing.

The pastor would ask, "Does anyone have a good testimony?" Most people didn't, but they stood up anyway. They'd say, "The devil has been kicking my brains out. He hit me with a pick-up truck today, but I made it to church! Yeah, we lost our house. My husband got mad and shot the dog, the cat and tried to kill the kids, but they just wouldn't die."

Cathy would get up and begin, "I want to say..." She could never finish her testimony, she would always tremble, break down in the middle of it and cry. She would get so embarrassed.

That happens to many people. When the cross is so meaningful to you, it trembles in your voice and you become speechless.

The power of the cross is something that shines in the eyes. People can see it. You don't have to say a word to be a walking revelation of the Word of God.

I walked by a woman in the Atlanta airport who was rubbing the bottom of her leg. I could tell she was in pain. As I walked by, the Lord said, "Are you going to let that woman stay in pain?"

I said, "Yes, I don't know that lady. I'm just trying to get to that jet over there."

He said, "Are you a living epistle?"

I said, "Yes!"

He said, "Let her read you!"

I tried to reason with Him, "But, Lord, I'm going to miss my plane."

He said, "I'll hold it."

What are you going to do if God is holding a plane for you? You aren't going anywhere. I turned around and walked up to the lady and said, "Excuse me, madame, you don't know who I am, and that's all right, you don't need to know, but your leg is hurting and the Lord spoke to me and told me not to leave you sick and afflicted with that pain. IN JESUS' NAME BE HEALED!!"

Immediately, God touched her and she stood up and yelled, "It's working, I'm not hurting anymore!"

A Living Letter is a revelation of the Word of God.

How many times have you read the Bible and found it was only words? Before you were saved, you probably thought the Bible was boring. The Word of God is only words unless it has a medium of expression.

Blotted, blurred or hard-to-read lives fail to communicate the message of your life to the reader. Some of you are barely-getting-by Christians. You compare the scars the devil put on you with other barely-getting-by Christians. You tell everyone what the devil's done to you, instead of what Jesus has done for you.

If you enjoy looking at each other's scars, you need prayer. There is a world around you dying and going to hell, and you've got the life jacket to save them.

Those in the world don't like people who are doubled-minded or wish-washy. To blow hot and cold with the same breath is an abomination to the world and the Word. James 3:10 says, Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

*Out of the same mouth
proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.*
James 3:10

Christians should make the truth seem more true. We should make a lie seem more false. We should not only carry a message; we should be that message.

I hate it when people are overly interested in the details of my sinful past. I've had preachers say, "Brother Jesse, you've lived a pretty sinful life, haven't you? Being a musician, I'm sure you lived really bad, huh? I guess you've been around a lot of women... groupies, I mean."

I'd say, "Yeah, I was pretty bad."

They answer, "That's terrible, tell me about it." They want to know! But I don't like to talk about what the devil has done. I like to talk about what Jesus has done!

When someone asks me to describe my past, they are basically telling me they don't hate sin, they like it. They hate what sin does to them, they hate the wages of sin, but they do not hate sin. If it tickles your ears and you enjoy hearing about it, you don't hate it. Sin is an attraction for some, and if they aren't careful, soon they will find themselves in it.

Do you know why people mess up in immorality? It is because they aren't wearing their underwear!

They talk about their helmet of salvation, their breastplate of righteousness, and their sword of the Spirit. Their feet are shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace, but they never say anything about their loins being girded about with truth. That's what holds everything together! Your loins must be girded about with truth. If you are walking in truth, you will not sin. So put your underwear on and keep it on!

I believe the reason there are so many divorces in America is because we are not marrying women and men, we are marrying parts. We see parts and say, "Oooohh. Look at those parts." Let me make an announcement: Parts wear out!

Many people don't see their mates as persons; they see them only as a pile of parts. When some of those parts wear out, or when they just get tired of looking at them, they go to another part store.

Don't marry for looks. Eventually, it's all going to fall down. You need to marry someone because you love them. It doesn't matter if she has nine hundred varicose veins on her legs!

Once a man told me, "My wife's legs look like a United States map." I said, "What about all those red blood vessels on your nose? You look like you have interstates on your face!" Have you ever noticed when men start getting old, their noses start getting big and red, and lines start coming out on them.

I said, "If you want to look at parts, you better look at yours. What's the matter with you? You are running head-on into sin. You are not an epistle of Jesus Christ; you are a stop sign! You aren't moving with the flow of Christ; you are stopping to try to find something." That man wasn't a living epistle, he was only interested in parts.

God created the first man and woman and called them Adam. God did not name Eve. Adam named Eve. When God created male and female, He called them both Adam! He chose the female Adam to procreate. She was called woman, which means "man with a womb." God did not create Eve from Adam's foot; He created her from Adam's side! God made woman to stand side by side with a man to such a degree that their prayers would be hindered if they argued.

At the fall of man, God told Satan point blank that he would send one born of woman's seed that would bust his head. Women don't have seed, men have seed! For the birth of Jesus, God did not need a man. He needed man with womb; He needed a woman. That went right over Satan's head!

Ever since Satan died spiritually, he hasn't had a lick of sense! When you deal with the devil in the flesh, he will beat you, because he has years of experience. But when you deal with him in the Spirit, like Jesus did, it totally confuses him. That is why it is so important to walk in the Spirit and fill yourself with the Word of God.

Throw scripture at him like Jesus did! "It is written, it is written, it is written." Jesus refused to take the devil out from under His feet. Satan did not understand what God told him in the garden until Jesus died, was resurrected and ascended. Then Satan said, "If we would have known, we never would have crucified Him!" Satan had been warned early on about one who would be born of woman's seed, yet he was too stupid to recognize Him when He came.

Throughout His life on earth, Jesus was a Living Letter to the world. John 1:1 says, In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Even in His death, Jesus was a living example of God's love to the world. After He was betrayed, ridiculed, beaten, and nailed to a cruel cross, He prayed, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do (Luke 23:34). It takes a great living letter to bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you. 🌐

The above article is an excerpt from Jesse's book, The Ministry of Cheerfulness.

Jesus Wants to Make You a Living Letter of His Great Love

Jesus died to save you and make you a living letter of His great love. He wants to demonstrate His supernatural power and love in and through you. Will you receive Him in your life today? He wants you healed, delivered, prospering, and set free from anything that could be keeping you from the life of joy and purpose He has for you. If you don't know Jesus, or if you already know Him but you've fallen back for some reason or another, He wants you to come back home to Him and be restored.

Are you ready to make a change and discover the great plan God has for you? He wants to wash away your mistakes and give you a fresh start right now. All you have to do is turn to Him, open up your heart, and say this simple prayer. When you say these words and believe them with your heart, you will be born again and made right in your relationship with the Father (Romans 10:9-10). Pray with me now:

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You died and rose from the dead for me.

Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. In Your name I pray. Amen.

If you just prayed this prayer, congratulations! You are a “new creature” in Christ, and as 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, “...old things have passed away; behold, all things are become new.” Heaven is your final destination, and all the blessings and power of knowing God and following His Word are now open to you. You have a whole new victorious life with Jesus to look forward to.

If you prayed this prayer, it's important that you tell someone—and I'd love to hear from you, too! I would also like to send you a free copy of our Understanding Salvation booklet to help you begin your new journey with Jesus Christ. You can contact me online at JDM.org and click on the “Do You Know Jesus?” link, or you can use the top portion of the envelope/order form in the center of this magazine. Always remember that God loves you and He always has your best interests at heart. He's empowered you with His love and Spirit to not only be an overcomer in this life, but to be a living message for the world to read. I love you and want you to know I'm praying for you!

– Jesse

UNDERSTANDING SALVATION (Mini-Book) MBS01

There is a path that leads to inner peace, real joy, and true wisdom about life. You begin walking on this new path the moment you reach out to God...the moment that you realize your need for His love and salvation.

In Understanding Salvation, you will discover why God sent His Son, why salvation is necessary, and what you can do to begin living a new and better life in Christ Jesus.

HOW THE HEALING POWER OF JOY CAN CHANGE THE WORLD AROUND YOU

Available in Spanish!

It is amazing how many Christians are shocked when trouble surfaces in their lives. They have this idea that salvation through Christ brings a candy-coated life. Jesus plainly said that while we are in the world we will have tribulation or trouble. But He commanded us to be of good cheer, because He has overcome this world.

Jesse Duplantis knows that cheerfulness is infectious! In his dynamic first book, he shows you how to pass it on. You will learn:

- How to stop letting the world affect your spirit
- How the joy of the Lord can keep you living well
- Why people who are full of faith are also full of power
- How to stop denying your problems and begin denying their rights
- How to give your all when God wants you to do something
- Why you need to be a living epistle for others to see
- How faith gives you the ability to sing in all sorts of circumstances
- How to light fires in cold rooms and scatter gloom

When everybody says it can't be done, God has an opportunity to produce a manifestation for the world to see. Let Him do it through you!

IN-PERSON SERVICES ONLY

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

I hope you are ready to erupt with excitement and joy about what God has done around the world through Jesse Duplantis Ministries. Psalm 40:16 (TPT) tells us, “But let all who passionately seek You erupt with excitement and joy over what You’ve done! Let all Your devoted lovers rejoice continually in the Savior, saying, ‘How great and glorious is our God!’” Each testimony we receive is a glorious moment in the lives of real people that have decided to passionately seek God. Let’s all rejoice continually about our great and glorious God!

We have been with you since January 1998. When I got sober, God spoke to me while I was reading a Voice of the Covenant magazine and instructed me to give a monthly donation. At first, I told myself that I was probably just talking to myself. However, later that same day at my AA meeting, God spoke to me again. This time I listened, and as a result, I now have 28 years of sobriety. We have been blessed ever since. Everything we did prospered in every area of our lives. We are still fighting the good fight of faith and will never stop.

I watched your “50 Years” video and almost fell out of my chair when I heard Brother Jesse talk about his $2,000 miracle involving a Bose sound system back in 1976. When he mentioned poor sound quality in many churches, I had to smile, because sadly, that’s still often true today. He could probably verify that the system he received was a Bose 800 speaker set with an 1800 amplifier, compact for its time, but definitely heavy! Here’s why this absolutely blew me away: between 1995 and 2018, I was the Chief Loudspeaker Transducer Engineer for Bose. During that time, I designed and invented about half of all Bose speakers used for home audio, as well as for cars and trucks (GM, Nissan, Mercedes-Benz, and others). These products were produced in the hundreds of millions of units. Throughout my career, I consistently asked the Lord to help me design products with excellence so they would bless His children. Many times, I specifically asked Him to bless Brother Jesse through that work, and then I would quickly tell myself, “Oh come on... how would he even know about Bose?” And then came today’s blockbuster moment! Please tell Brother Jesse and Sister Cathy that we have been incredibly privileged to support the ministry over the past quarter-century. If I were there in person, I would hug Brother Jesse and Sister Cathy’s necks in gratitude for the amazing, incredible blessing they have been to us over all these years. They may not realize it, but they are truly virtual members of our family. And now, this beautiful Bose connection is simply the icing on the cake. God bless you!

Thank you for reaching souls all over the world like you do, and for bringing joy to so many lives.

I am a member of New Life Church in Caddo Mills, Texas. My husband and I first attended the church about nine years ago when we came to see and hear Jesse minister, completely unaware the church even existed at the time. We never left! It has been such a tremendous blessing to us these past nine years, and we have been grateful to hear you minister every October when you come to preach. Over the last couple of years, you have left our congregation with a blessing and a hopeful expectation that we would be able to pay off our mortgage, and that the amount we once owed would become the amount we have in the bank. I grasped hold of that word and held on to it. The Lord has truly blessed us in every way, including financially. My husband has had good jobs, and while we have been able to pay cash for most everything else, we had not yet been able to pay off our mortgage. A few years ago, I decided to put God first in an even greater way. With His help, our giving became our highest priority, greater than even our total monthly mortgage payment (principal, interest, taxes, and escrow). We faithfully and diligently give to many partners each month, sowing seed with joyful and hopeful expectation that God is blessing it all. Recently, that hopeful expectation manifested in a way we did not expect: my husband was laid off from his job. What a blessing it turned out to be! While it was a complete shock and we were given only a few days' notice, I chose to pray in tongues during the entire 20–30 minutes while he was being let go. When he got off the phone, the Lord impressed upon my heart that we had before us life and death, blessing and cursing—not literal life and death, but the power of our words. We made the decision immediately that we would not curse the company or anyone involved, but instead speak blessing and trust God completely. What happened next overwhelmed us. The company was exceedingly generous. They honored a yearly bonus he was not scheduled to receive for another four months, included investments that had not yet vested, and provided several additional months of full pay. Just five days later, my husband received an offer from another company, with a significantly better salary, a large sign-on bonus, and additional compensation we are still learning about. As a result, we now have more than enough to pay off our home, put a substantial amount in savings, and reinvest even more into the Kingdom with what we will no longer be paying toward our mortgage. After hearing feedback from others at his former company who were shocked he was let go, we are fully convinced this was the favor of the Lord. We know God has many ways to work things out, but we are absolutely persuaded that His hand was in every detail. Truly, we are blessed coming in and blessed going out, blessed in the city and blessed in the country, and it is marvelous to see! I have listened to you minister for many years and simply wanted to share this testimony with you, and to thank you for your faithfulness and the blessing you have spoken over our congregation in Caddo Mills. We are deeply grateful for your presence at New Life Church every October. Our pastor speaks so wonderfully of you throughout the year that we all feel as though we know you personally.

Thank you for making your messages available through the JDM app and on ROKU. We began listening to Jesse on television in the early 1990s. Jesse's speaking engagement in Townsend, TN years ago on God can do exceedingly and abundantly above all that we could ask or think was of special significance to us. It felt as though that sermon was meant especially for us. You even mentioned to those in attendance that you were changing what you had originally intended to preach that evening. At the time, we did not live in Townsend, or even in Tennessee, but it was our hearts' desire to buy a house in Townsend. We stood on the Word and believed. In short, our desire came to pass. Now we have other hearts' desires we are believing for. Both of you have taught us so much through the years, and we thank you for it.

I could write a book about how the biblical truths you preach have helped deliver me from religious legalism. I tried so hard to keep the rules—live up to them, live like them, and talk like what I thought a good Christian should be. At one point I asked the Lord why it felt like it was a sin just to breathe. Because of your messages, I am being set free and I am so grateful. I also love being able to sow seed into your ministry.

I called the Jesse Duplantis Ministries' prayer line to request for prayer for my brother who had been injured in an accident at a nursing home. At the time, my brother was in a comma. The prayer department prayed for my brother and for me as well. About a month later, our sister went to visit him at the hospital and found him sitting up and eating a meal. Praise God for the answer, and praise God for Jesse Duplantis Ministries and the prayer department.

WHAT WILL YOUR FAITH VOICE SAY TODAY?

WHAT WILL YOU CREATE WITH THE WORDS OF YOUR MOUTH?

Below is an excerpt from Jesse Duplantis' May letter to JDM Covenant Partners. Partners are those who support the ministry's vision of world evangelism with donations and/or product orders, and they receive a letter each month from Brother Jesse sharing what God has put on his heart. We hope you enjoy reading a portion of this month's letter and will consider becoming a Partner in JDM's vision of world evangelism.*

Dear Partner,

What an honor it is to write this word from God to you today. These Partner letters come to me as I meditate on God's Word and allow Him to guide me on what to share with you. The theme this year is, "I Only Say What Faith Says. I Only Use My Faith Voice" and today, I want to share a little on Ruth and her mother-in-law, Naomi, to show you how what you choose to say can move you into your destiny.

The foundational scripture for our theme is found in Romans 4:17, which says, "...even God, Who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were." Now, that's a mouthful of faith, isn't it? It describes how God operates—He speaks the end result and calls it done, and He also quickens the dead. In other words, God speaks life into dead circumstances. God makes a way where there seems to be no way. When we follow His lead, we speak the end result too. We create our world with the words of our mouth through faith.

Over the years, I've learned that if you want God's promises, you've got to get serious about how you think and speak. Faith requires a quality decision to move forward without doubt and fear—you do not need to be certain about exactly how the future will be, but you do need to be certain that God will lead you and guide you in all things as you trust in Him. Let's look at Ruth now, because this was a woman who knew how to talk! This was a powerful young woman who used her faith voice.

You may be familiar with the story of Naomi and Ruth, but if not, here's a summary. Naomi and her husband, Elimelech, had two sons. They were from Bethlehem in Israel, but when a famine hit, they moved to Moab. Now, Israel and Moab weren't exactly on good terms at this point in history. Still, her sons ended up taking wives, named Ruth and Orpah. Ten years go by and tragedy hits. Elimelech and both his sons die, making all three women widows. They're all devastated by the loss, but Naomi is noted as being especially broken and wanted to return to Israel. The famine has lifted and she sees no point in being a stranger in a strange place. She tells Ruth and Orpah to go back to their father's house, as there's no point in following her back to Israel, since their only tie to her are her dead sons.

Ruth and Orpah wept over this situation with Naomi, because they both loved her—but the scripture shows us that they respond differently. Orpah kissed Naomi goodbye, but Ruth? Ruth clung to Naomi...and she didn't just hold on to her; Ruth also started to speak by faith about her own future. In life, there are kissers and there are clingers! You could say the same thing is true about faith. You can't lightly graze the cheek of faith and expect much to change. You must cling to what you want and be willing to put aside fear, because faith requires commitment.

Ruth begins declaring a new future when she decides to cling to Naomi and follow her to Israel instead of going back to the life she had before marriage. She says, and I'm paraphrasing Ruth 1:16-17, "Wherever you go, I am going. Wherever you stop and stay, I'm going to stop and stay there, too. Your people are my people. Your God is my God. I'm going to stick with you to the end. Nothing but death is ever going to separate me from you." Now, you can read the full passage in your own Bible, but it's verse sixteen that I want you to focus on the most: "Thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God."

That verse moved her into a new destiny—because choosing a connection with God and His people was the right choice to move her into greater love and prosperity than she'd ever known. You can read the story of Boaz and Ruth to see that! God has a future, you see...even when it looks like everything is at a dead end in life. My point is this: Your faith voice has in it both your destiny and your destination.

Ruth made a decision to let go of her fear of an uncertain future. Israel wasn't just a foreign place to her, but it was also filled with people who were in direct conflict with the Moabites. But Ruth never brought that up. Ruth decided that the Israelite people were her people before she ever got to Israel. She decided to accept that the God of Israel was her God too. She didn't just think it—Ruth made an amazing proclamation of faith when she spoke to Naomi. She was adamant about what she wanted, where she was going, and who she was going with! Her choice and her words shifted the whole course of her life. She looked at an uncertain future and didn't flinch. Ruth's destiny was in her faith voice, and she spoke herself right into a new and, eventually, better destination. Glory!

Use your faith voice 24/7. Only say what faith says. Remember that Satan and his cohorts can't handle it! Satan is a flesh devil, not a faith devil. There's nothing good in the flesh. Faith is the substance that changes things, and faith speaks! Faith-talking is good-talking. When I got saved, my language changed. I started speaking faith words over everything I was doing. First, I focused on only the spiritual things. Then, I added physical things, and then, finally, I put my faith on financial things too. God was revealing that I could have what I said, if I said what He said! He kept opening my eyes more and more to His goodness in all things.

Think of the magnitude of Ruth's declarations to Naomi. Remember, she was a Moabite—she wasn't even supposed to be an Israelite—yet Ruth's words changed her destiny and her destination. Ruth would become King David's great grandmother. She was given a great position in the lineage of David and of Christ, and she started out as a total outsider. God can use anyone! And anyone can change their destination with faith! So, don't tell me your faith voice won't work. It will work, but you must get like Ruth and make a decision to speak your choices with clarity and faith—choose to be a clinger! Cling to your faith. Only say what faith says. I know that this theme is so simple, but simple things can change your life.

So, what will your faith voice say today? What will you create with the words of your mouth? Think about it, then start talking. Remember our theme: "Only Say What Faith Says. Only Use Your Faith Voice." Glory! Imitate your Father as a dear child, as Ephesians 5:1 says, and speak the end result like Romans 4:17 says. Cling like Ruth! Let faith rise up and get ready for a great blessing—more than you have room to even contain. God bless you and until next time, keep the faith!

—Jesse

Giving Birth to YOUR VISION

The Lord gave me a vision for our ministry magazine when Jesse and I were in our third year of full-time traveling ministry. Correction: Jesse was traveling five days each week. I stayed home with our daughter so she could attend school while I ran a childcare business out of our tiny, two-bedroom home, caring for eight pre-school children five days a week.

I cooked lunch every day, fed them snacks, read to them, played with them, potty-trained most of them, and changed loads of diapers. Then, during naptime, I would drag out a borrowed typewriter (that was stored under our bed) to answer ministry mail, type cassette tape labels, and type content for our ministry newsletter.

Our first format was only one page, printed front and back in brown ink on ivory paper, and folded in two places. It was a small beginning, but it was packed with ministry information for Partners and friends—a personal message from Jesse, testimonies, product listing, ministry news, and Jesse’s travels. We gave it a very original name, JESSE DUPLANTIS’ NEWSLETTER, and the first publication was printed and mailed to our entire mailing list of 200 households. Mailing it out was a glorious moment for us—we had given birth to our vision to reach people and change lives, one soul at a time, and we wanted to glorify God for all that He was doing in our ministry.

Jesse and I have been so blessed by the thousands of great testimonies from people all over the world who have been ministered to by our monthly magazine over the years. This one was sent to us from Australia many years ago, and it’s just one example of how God has blessed people through this anointed outreach:

“What a blessed year we had last year because of all your prayers and great words of encouragement to us. Thank you for being obedient every month to connect with us through your Partner letter and magazines. It’s really a blessing when they arrive, just like cold water to a thirsty, dry soul wanting water. Thank you for everything, even the testimonies . . . Wow, they are powerful and alive! It makes excitement kick inside our hearts and blesses us. Truly we are blessed because of Jesse and Cathy’s faithfulness to study God’s Word and share with us.”

Reading this precious testimony makes “excitement kick” in my heart, too! In my office at JDM, I have a copy of every issue we have published, and each one is filled with powerful testimonies that bless me because they bring glory to our wonderful God.

The vision that God birthed in my heart in 1981 for Voice of the Covenant magazine has increased into a 28-page, full color monthly magazine and is now a vital part of JDM’s Publish the Word Outreach. Although I am still the Editor in Chief, I no longer use a borrowed typewriter—God has provided the best equipment and excellent staff members who share our passion. With their help and the faithful support of our JDM Partners, we are reaching people and changing lives through this anointed outreach that has impacted over 40 million people around the world.

Conceived by the Holy Spirit

When you think about it, everything you see today began with a vision. The home you live in, the car you drive, and the business where you work, all began as a vision in someone’s heart. This beginning stage of a vision—the moment when conception occurs—is truly a glorious moment.

You may have experienced a powerful moving of the Holy Spirit while reading your Bible or hearing a sermon, and suddenly the reality of God’s promise of salvation, healing, protection, or provision comes alive within your heart and your vision is conceived. I believe that in these glorious moments, God imparts visions that are far above all that we can ask or think. However, the sad reality is that many visions never move beyond the point of conception, and far too many are aborted because of neglect, doubt, or fear.

However, the sad reality is that many visions never move beyond the point of conception, and far too many are aborted because of neglect, doubt, or fear.

Never Abort Your Vision

Never neglect spending time with God and His Word—it is your primary defense against doubt and fear, which is designed by the enemy to abort you from your vision. Spending time in God’s Word will breathe life into your vision and banish any temptation to abort it.

Second Corinthians 10:3-5 NLT says, “We are human, but we don’t wage war as humans do. We use God’s mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments. We destroy every proud obstacle that keeps people from knowing God. We capture their rebellious thoughts and teach them to obey Christ.” Think about this passage of scripture for a moment. You are not limited to human warfare. You can use God’s mighty weapons to knock down strongholds, destroy obstacles, and capture every rebellious thought. Never abort your vision!

The Way Visions are Born

I believe that God wants to give us a clearer understanding about the way that visions are born. So, I want us to take a look at the birth of Jesus with fresh eyes.

Matthew 1:18-21 says, “Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as His mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call His name Jesus: for He shall save His people from their sins.”

Notice that God had a vision to save His people from their sins. The Bible makes it clear that whenever God wanted something to be done in the earth, He searched the earth for the right person. Think about just a few of the great heroes of faith: Noah, Abraham, and Moses. They did great things for God and obtained a good report. Like Paul, they fought a good fight, finished their course, and kept the faith.

Mary is another wonderful example of someone who took steps of faith in the face of tremendous difficulty and opposition to give birth to a vision. She believed, pondered, and acted on God’s Word—and so can you!

BELIEVE: The First Step in Giving Birth to a Vision

Mary’s first step toward the fulfillment of God’s vision to save His people from their sins was in her declaration: “be it unto me according to thy word” (Luke 1:38). Although the vision had many challenges and was impossible by anyone’s standards, this powerful affirmation by a young teenager settled the issue: Mary believed God.

The most basic principle in receiving anything from God is that we BELIEVE. Hebrews 11:6 declares, “But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.”

We must believe! It is the only way that a vision is conceived and birthed. It is the vehicle that God uses to move in the earth through mankind. Elisabeth may have understood this truth more than anyone else on earth at that time—she had a similar assignment and understood that nothing was impossible with God. I am inspired by the words she declared under the inspiration of the Holy Ghost in Luke 1:45: “And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.”

Mary and Elisabeth had what I like to call a divine connection. All of us need people in our lives that will inspire us to believe in our vision and declare that it will come to pass—“there shall be a performance of those things which were told.”

Jesus taught us about the power of agreement in Matthew 18:19. Jesse and I understand this principle and often tell our Partners, “I’ll be your 2!” We know that nothing is impossible to those that believe (Mark 9:23).

PONDER: The Second Step in Giving Birth to a Vision

Believing is vitally important to giving birth to your vision, but you must also invest quality time pondering it in your heart—your spirit. Luke 2:19 tells us, “But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.”

The word ponder is not one we use much today, but most of us understand that it implies deep thought or meditation. The Vines Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words says it means, “to put one thing with another in considering circumstances.” The Merriam-Webster Dictionary had these definitions: “to weigh in the mind: appraise: to think about: reflect on: to think or consider especially quietly, soberly, and deeply.”

Taking time to ponder your vision and the promises from God’s Word will impart strength to stand in faith for your manifestation. Psalm 19:14 says, “Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.”

I believe that every vision must have a “be it unto me according to thy word” moment.

ACT: The Third Step in Giving Birth to a Vision

Realize today that every situation you encounter in life is an opportunity to act on your faith. God always has a plan to accomplish your vision, and He will lead you every step of the way. The leading may come as an audible voice in your ear or a knowing inside your spirit, but it will always be in line with God's Word. Our responsibility, then, is to obey His Word and act on what He says to do.

That was what Mary learned to do when she was a teenage girl entrusted with God's vision to "save His people from their sins." Many years later, when Jesus' ministry was just beginning, she revealed the key to every successful birth, and John 2:5 recorded it: "His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever He saith unto you, do it."

Today, these same wise words have the power to birth the vision that God has placed in your heart. I believe that every vision must have a "be it unto me according to thy word" moment. Stay in faith and never give up on your vision—believe it, ponder it, and act on it. 🌐

SUITED FOR SUCCESS

While societies in the world today are driven by the desire for success, many Christians seeking success in their own lives are not well received. But the TRUTH about God's view of success is revealed throughout the Bible. His will is and always has been for all of His children to thrive, prosper, and achieve everything in their lives that He's called them to do.
